Re: Tariff Revision – Consolidated Communications of Washington Company,
LLC – WN U-1

Dear Mr. Johnson:

Effective July 2, 2019, Consolidated Communications of Washington Company, LLC is electing incentive regulation for its interstate Business Data Services pursuant to Title 47, Part 61.50 of the Federal Communications Commission’s rules. As a result, Consolidated Communications of Washington Company, LLC is withdrawing its Special Access services from the NECA Tariff F.C.C. No. 5 and moving them either to a new interstate access tariff, Consolidated Communications Companies Tariff F.C.C. No. 9, or to a Service Guide for detariffed services as outlined in section 61.50. This filing modifies the Consolidated Communications of Washington Company, LLC WN U-1 tariff to remove a reference to NECA Tariff F.C.C. No. 5 and replace it with a reference to Consolidated Communications Companies Tariff F.C.C. No. 9 pertaining to concurrence for Special Access services with speeds higher than a DS3.

If you have any questions or concerns regarding this filing, please contact me at the phone number or email address below.

Sincerely,
