The Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) believes that you have violated Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 19.122.030(6)(c) by failing to provide the required additional notice to facility operators through a one-number locator service before continuing excavation beyond the expiration of the previous utility locate request. RCW 19.122.055 states, in part, that any excavator who fails to notify a one-number locator service and causes damage to an underground hazardous liquid or gas facility is subject to a civil penalty of not more than $10,000 for each violation.

Commission staff (Staff) conducted an investigation that included reviewing damage reports submitted by Puget Sound Energy (PSE) that identified a natural gas damage event involving North Sky Communications, LLC. (North Sky or Company). Accordingly, the Commission hereby notifies you that it is assessing a penalty against you for $5,000 on the following grounds:

On February 6, 2018, the Commission assessed a $1,000 penalty in Docket D-180104 against North Sky for failing to submit a request to locate utilities prior to excavation. The Commission gave North Sky the opportunity to suspend $800 of the penalty amount on the condition that its employees attended dig safe training. The Company failed to meet the condition and the Commission imposed the suspended penalty amount on September 21, 2018. North Sky paid the suspended penalty amount on December 21, 2018.

On January 31, 2019, North Sky was excavating at 15222 22nd Ave E, Spanaway, Washington. While excavating, North Sky workers struck and damaged an underground PSE gas facility. The Damage Information Reporting Tool report submitted by PSE on March 6, 2019, indicated that North Sky was excavating without a valid request to locate underground utilities. Staff's investigation found that while North Sky submitted utility locate request #18518641 on December 4, 2018, the request expired January 18, 2019, 13 days before the damage incident.

Staff recommends the Commission assess a $5,000 penalty against North Sky for one violation of RCW 19.122.030(6)(c) for failing to provide the required notice to a one-number locator service before excavating, as follows:

- $5,000 penalty for the violation of RCW 19.122.030(6)(c) that occurred on January 31, 2019.

The Commission agrees with Staff's recommendation and assesses a penalty of $5,000.

These facts, if not contested or if proved at a hearing and not rebutted or explained, are sufficient to support the penalty assessment.

Your penalty is due and payable now. If you believe the violation did not occur, you may deny committing the violation and contest the penalty through evidence presented at a hearing or in writing. Or, if there is a reason for the violation that you believe should excuse you from the penalty, you may ask for mitigation (reduction) of the penalty through evidence presented at a hearing or in writing. The Commission will grant a request for hearing only if material issues of law or fact require consideration of evidence and resolution in a hearing. Any request to contest the violation or for mitigation of the penalty must include a written statement of the reasons supporting that request. Failure to provide such a statement will result in denial of the request. See RCW 81.04.405.

If you properly present your request for a hearing and the Commission grants that request, the Commission will review the evidence supporting your dispute of the violation or application for mitigation in a Brief Adjudicative Proceeding before an administrative law judge. The administrative law judge will consider the evidence and will notify you of his or her decision.

You must act within 15 days after receiving this notice to do one of the following:

- Pay the $5,000 penalty amount due; or
- Request a hearing to contest the occurrence of the violation; or
- Request mitigation to reduce the amount of the penalty.

Please indicate your selection on the enclosed form and send it to the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission, P.O. Box 47250, Olympia, Washington 98504-7250, within FIFTEEN (15) days after you receive this notice.

If you do not act within 15 days, the Commission may refer this matter to the Office of the Attorney General for collection. The Commission may then sue you to collect the penalty.

DATED at Lacey, Washington, and effective August 7, 2019.
