

WASHINGTON UTILITIES AND TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION

NOTICE OF PENALTIES INCURRED AND DUE FOR VIOLATIONS OF LAWS AND RULES

PENALTY ASSESSMENT: TV-200990
PENALTY AMOUNT: $400

South Sound College Hunks, LLC,
d/b/a College Hunks Hauling Junk
1130 Industry Dr.
Tukwila, WA 98188

The Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) believes South Sound College Hunks, LLC, d/b/a College Hunks Hauling Junk, (South Sound College Hunks or Company) violated Washington Administrative Code (WAC) 480-15-570, Driver Safety Requirements, which adopts Title 49 Code of Federal Regulations (49 CFR) Part 391 – Qualification of Drivers.

Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 81.04.405 allows penalties of $100 for each violation. In the case of an ongoing violation, every day's continuance is considered a separate and distinct violation.

On December 16, 2020, Commission Motor Carrier Investigator Wayne Gilbert completed a routine safety investigation of South Sound College Hunks and documented the following violations:

- Four violations of 49 CFR § 391.45(a) – Using a driver not medically examined and certified. The Company allowed driver Nofoaiga Moi to operate a commercial motor vehicle without a valid medical certificate on four separate occasions between October 24 and November 9, 2020.

The Commission considered the following factors in determining the appropriate penalties for these violations:

1. How serious or harmful the violations are to the public. The violations noted are serious and potentially harmful to the public. Household goods moving companies that allow their drivers to operate commercial motor vehicles without a valid medical certificate put their customers' belongings and the traveling public at risk. These violations present serious safety concerns.
2. Whether the violations were intentional. Considerations include:
 - Whether the Company ignored Commission staff's (Staff) previous technical assistance; and
 - Whether there is clear evidence through documentation or other means that shows the Company knew of and failed to correct the violation.

On May 2, 2019, the Commission received the Company's application for household goods moving authority. In the application, Susan Davis, owner of South Sound College Hunks, acknowledged the Company's responsibility to understand and comply with applicable safety laws and regulations.

On April 17, 2019, Susan Davis and Christopher Helle attended household goods training provided by Staff and both acknowledged receiving training pertaining to motor carrier safety regulations.

The Company knew or should have known about these requirements.

3. Whether the Company self-reported the violations. The Company did not self-report these violations.
4. Whether the Company was cooperative and responsive. South Sound College Hunks was cooperative throughout the investigation and expressed a desire to come into compliance with motor carrier safety regulations.
5. Whether the Company promptly corrected the violations and remedied the impacts. South Sound College Hunks provided Staff with a corrective action safety plan that addresses the violations.
6. The number of violations. Staff identified nine violation types with a total of 16 individual occurrences.
7. The number of customers affected. South Sound College Hunks traveled 5,845 miles in 2019. These safety violations presented a public safety risk.
8. The likelihood of recurrence. Staff provided technical assistance with specific remedies to help the Company assess how well its safety management controls support safe operations and how to begin improving its safety performance. The Company was cooperative throughout the safety investigation, expressed a desire to come into compliance, and provided Staff with a corrective action safety plan to address violations identified during the safety investigation. In light of these factors, Staff believes that the likelihood of recurrence is low.
9. The Company's past performance regarding compliance, violations, and penalties. This is the Company's first routine safety investigation. South Sound College Hunks has no history of violations or penalties with the Commission.
10. The Company's existing compliance program. Susan Davis and Christopher Helle are responsible for the Company's safety compliance program.
11. The size of the Company. South Sound College Hunks currently operates four commercial motor vehicles and employs six drivers. The Company reported $147,844 in gross revenue for 2019.

The Commission's Enforcement Policy provides that some Commission requirements are so fundamental to safe operations that the Commission will issue mandatory penalties for each occurrence of a first-time violation.¹ The Commission generally will assess penalties per type of violation, rather than per occurrence, for first-time violations of those critical regulations that do not meet the requirements for mandatory penalties. The Commission will assess penalties for any equipment violation meeting the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration's "out-of-service" criteria and also for repeat violations of critical regulations, including each occurrence of a repeat violation.

The Commission has considered these factors and determined that it should penalize South Sound College Hunks $400, calculated as follows:

- Four violations of 49 CFR § 391.45(a) – Using a driver not medically examined and certified. The Commission assesses a penalty of $100 for each occurrence of this violation, for a total of $400.

This information, if proven at a hearing and not rebutted or explained, is sufficient to support the penalty assessment.

Your penalty is due and payable now. If you believe any or all of the violations did not occur, you may deny committing the violation(s) and contest the penalty through evidence presented at a hearing or in writing. Alternatively, if there is a reason for any or all of the violations that you believe should excuse you from the penalty, you may ask for mitigation (reduction) of the penalty through evidence presented at a hearing or in writing. The Commission will grant a request for hearing only if material issues of law or fact require consideration of evidence and resolution in a hearing. Any request to contest the violation(s) or for mitigation of the penalty must include a written statement of the reasons supporting that request. Failure to provide such a statement will result in denial of the request. See RCW 81.04.405.

If you properly present your request for a hearing and the Commission grants that request, the Commission will review the evidence supporting your dispute of the violation(s) or application for mitigation in a Brief Adjudicative Proceeding before an administrative law judge. The administrative law judge will consider the evidence and will notify you of their decision.

You must act within 15 days after receiving this notice to do one of the following:

- Pay the amount due.
- Contest the occurrence of the violation(s).
- Admit the violations but request mitigation of the penalty amount.

Please indicate your selection on the enclosed form and submit it electronically through the Commission's web portal within FIFTEEN (15) days after you receive this notice. If you are unable to use the web portal, you may submit it via email to records@utc.wa.gov. If you are
