Re: *CenturyLink Communications, LLC

Dear Mr. Johnson:

I write on behalf of CenturyLink Communications, LLC (“CCLLC”) to provide courtesy notice of a new fictitious or “dba” name used in connection with branding of some of CCLLC’s services:

Current name	New name
CenturyLink Communications, LLC dba CenturyLink	CenturyLink Communications LLC dba Lumen Technologies Group

A copy of the receipt showing the trade name registration that was filed with the Department of Revenue and a copy of the Department of Licensing listing showing the new trade name are attached.

CCLLC will continue to operate both as an interexchange carrier and a competitive local exchange carrier. We have filed appropriate changes to update CCLLC’s intrastate rate schedule.

Apart from this branding change, there is no change to the corporate structure or ownership of CCLLC or its affiliates, and this will not impact the services being offered to CCLLC customers. We have notified our customers of this branding change. You may learn more about the exciting changes at our company at www.lumen.com.

Of note, our affiliate Qwest Corporation dba CenturyLink QC will continue to offer and provide services to residential and small business customers under the CenturyLink brand. Our services to large enterprise customers and governments will be provided under the Lumen brand.

Sincerely,
