To whom it may concern:

On February 9, 2021, the City of Moses Lake adopted Ordinance No. 2965 which provided for the annexation of approximately 60.70 acres of property. The property is contiguous to the City of Moses Lake's corporate limits. The ordinance became effective on April 16, 2021. Enclosed is a copy of the City's annexation ordinance that includes the legal description and location map.

With this letter, the City provides notice to the WUTC and the solid waste provider, Consolidated Disposal, Inc., of its decision to contract for solid waste collection in the "Good Faith 4 All Annexation". By law, RCW 35A.14.900, with the City's decision to contract for solid waste collection in the "Good Faith 4 All Annexation" area, the City grants a statutory franchise to the state's certificate holder in the annexation area, Consolidated Disposal Service, Inc., to continue its solid waste collection business in the annexation area for 10 years from the effective date of the annexation.

Sincerely,

Allison Williams
City Manager
