NOTICE SUSPENDING PROCEDURAL SCHEDULE

RE: In re Application of Man and a Van, Inc. for a permit to operate as a motor carrier of household goods
Docket TV-170284

TO ALL PARTIES:

On April 20, 2017, Man and a Van Inc. (Man and a Van or Applicant) filed an application with the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) for authority to operate as a household goods carrier in the state of Washington (Application). Anthony Wright, the company's owner, submitted and signed the Application.

On June 29, 2017, the Commission issued a Notice of Intent to Deny Application for Permanent Authority; Notice of Opportunity for Hearing. On June 30, 2017, Mr. Wright contacted the Commission and requested a hearing.

On July 6, 2017, the Commission issued a Notice of Brief Adjudicate Proceeding; Setting Time for Oral Statements. The Notice scheduled a brief adjudicative proceeding (BAP) for August 2, 2017. The BAP was later rescheduled for August 8, 2017, at Commission staff's (Staff) request.

On August 7, 2017, Mr. Wright contacted the Commission and requested the BAP be continued for another 30 days. Staff supports the Applicant's request, but is unable to propose a new date due to the unavailability of key personnel. Staff agreed to confer with the Applicant and submit proposed dates to the presiding administrative law judge later this week.

The Commission finds good cause to cancel the BAP scheduled for August 8, 2017, and to suspend the procedural schedule until such time the parties are able to confer and propose a new date and time.

THE COMMISSION GIVES NOTICE That the brief adjudicative proceeding set for August 8, 2017, at 9:30 a.m. in Docket TV-170284 is cancelled, and the procedural schedule is suspended until further notice.
