- 1 Cascade Natural Gas Corporation (Cascade) filed on February 14, 2006, certain tariff revisions to its currently effective Tariff WN U-3, which would increase charges and rates for service provided by Cascade by approximately 4.5 percent, and a total revenue increase of $11.7 million per year. By order of the Commission, the operation of the tariff revisions have been suspended pending hearing or hearings concerning all such changes and the justness and reasonableness thereof.

reasonable, and sufficient. These issues include consideration of alternative rate design or structure. In accordance with the provisions of RCW 80.04.130 the burden of proof to show that the proposed general tariff revisions are just and reasonable shall be upon the respondent.
