RE: Notice of Intent to Send to Collections, Penalty Assessment No. TV-131599

Dear Mr. Clasablanca:

As you are aware, on October 8, 2013, the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission issued Order 02, Stipulated Initial Order, assessing a financial penalty against you doing business as Right Choice Movers in the amount of $5,000 for two violations of RCW 81.80.075(1), offering to transport household goods in the state of Washington and advertising to transport household goods without first obtaining the required permit from the Commission. The Commission suspended all but $500 of the penalty on condition that you refrain from further operations as a household goods carrier without the required permit from the Commission. The remaining $500 penalty was ordered by the Commission to be due and payable in installments due October 8, 2013 ($50), November 8, 2013 ($225), and December 8, 2013 ($225). Order 02 became final on November 4, 2013. The Commission sent you a Final Notice on March 11, 2014, and a Corrected Final Notice on March 17, 2014.

The Commission has not received the $450 payment due and owing.

This is to notify you that the Commission intends to forward your outstanding debt to a collection agency for collection. You likely will incur additional expenses and fees, including costs of collection, attorney's fees, and interest. These expenses and fees will be added to your outstanding $450 balance.

If you have any questions about this letter or about the company's obligations under Commission rules, you may contact Sondra Walsh at (360) 664-1286.

Very truly yours,

ROBERT D. CEDARBAUM
Assistant Attorney General
