BACKGROUND

Synopsis. This is an Administrative Law Judge's Initial Order that is not effective unless approved or allowed to become effective as described in the notice at the end of this Order. This Initial Order is based upon a stipulation presented by the parties. If this Initial Order becomes final, Jake Theis d/b/a Royal Moving (Royal Moving or Company) will be assessed a financial penalty in the amount of $5,000 for two (2) violations of RCW 81.80.075(1). A $4,000 portion of the penalty will be suspended for a period of two years from the date of this order, then waived, subject to the condition that Royal Moving refrains from further operations as a household goods carrier without first obtaining the required permit from the Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission). In addition, if this Initial Order becomes final, Royal Moving will be classified as a household goods carrier and required to permanently cease and desist from operating as a household goods carrier without first obtaining and maintaining a permit from the Commission.

1 Nature of Proceeding. The Commission initiated this special proceeding to determine if Royal Moving has engaged, and continues to engage, in business as a common carrier for transportation of household goods for compensation within the state of Washington without possessing the permit required for such operations.

2 Procedural History. On January 16, 2019, the Commission entered Order 01, Order Instituting Special Proceeding; Complaint Seeking to Impose Penalties; and Notice of Mandatory Appearance at Hearing, pursuant to RCW 81.04.510, initiating this docket on its own motion. The Complaint alleges that Royal Moving violated RCW 81.80.075(1) by:

Pursuant to RCW 80.01.060(3)
This packet is the final Order in this docket.

- (1) offering on at least one occasion to transport household goods within the state of Washington;
- (2) advertising household goods moving services within the state of Washington on at least one occasion;

without the necessary permit required for such operations. On the same date, the Commission issued a Subpoena and Subpoena Duces Tecum For Production of Documents (Subpoenas) to the Company commanding Jake Theis, Company owner, to appear before the Commission at a special proceeding scheduled to convene at 9 a.m. on February 12, 2019, in the Commission's offices at 1300 S. Evergreen Park Drive S.W., Olympia, Washington, and to bring the documents specified in the Subpoenas.

3 On February 7, 2019, the Commission rescheduled the proceeding to February 25, 2019 because of predicted bad weather.

4 Hearing. On February 25, 2019, the hearing convened as scheduled in Olympia, Washington, before Administrative Law Judge Laura Chartoff.

5 Appearances. Brian Braun, Compliance Investigator, Olympia, Washington, represents the Commission's regulatory staff (Commission Staff).¹ Jake Theis, Brier, WA, represents the Company, pro se.

DISCUSSION

6 Applicable Law. RCW 81.80.010(5) defines "household goods carrier" as a person who transports for compensation, by motor vehicle within this state, or who advertises, solicits, offers, or enters into an agreement to transport household goods.

¹ In adjudications the Commission's regulatory staff participates like any other party, while an administrative law judge or the Commissioners make the decision. To assure fairness, the Commissioners and the presiding administrative law judge do not discuss the merits of the proceeding with regulatory staff or any other party without giving notice and opportunity for all parties to participate. See RCW 34.05.455.

RCW 81.80.075 prohibits household goods carriers from operating for compensation in Washington without first obtaining the required permit from the Commission. Upon proof of unauthorized operations, RCW 81.04.510 authorizes the Commission to order the unpermitted company to cease and desist its activities. Additionally, RCW 81.04.110 authorizes the Commission to file a complaint on its own motion setting forth any act or omission by a company that violates any law, or any order or rule of the Commission.

7 RCW 81.80.075(4) subjects persons who engage in business as a household goods carrier in the state of Washington without the required permit to a penalty of up to $5,000 for each violation. In deciding the penalty amount to be imposed per violation, RCW 81.80.075(4)(b) requires the Commission to consider two factors: (i) willingness to comply with the provisions of RCW 81.80.070 and the rules governing household goods carriers contained in WAC 480-15 and (ii) compliance history.

8 Stipulation Presented by Parties. At hearing, Jake Theis agreed that Royal Moving has been operating as a household goods carrier in the state of Washington without the required permit. The Company offered to transport household goods on at least one occasion and also advertised to transport household goods on at least one occasion.

9 On February 20, 2019, Jake Theis d/b/a Royal Moving received from the Commission temporary authority to operate as a household goods carrier in the state of Washington (THG-067933).

10 Jake Theis has agreed to permanently shut down and cease operations as a household goods carrier, as defined by WAC 480-15, until the Commission should he lose his permit.

11 Under RCW 81.04.075(4), Commission Staff is authorized to seek a penalty of up to $10,000 against the Company. Based upon the above-noted stipulation, Staff now seeks a lesser penalty of $5,000 and, on the condition that the Company honors its pledge of compliance by maintaining a permit from the Commission, seeks to have $4,000 of the penalty suspended for two years, then waived.

12 The parties agree that the Company's expressed willingness to attain a permit is a positive factor, mitigating in favor of a lowered penalty amount to be paid now. The parties also agree that the Company's compliance history is a negative factor, making a suspended penalty appropriate as a tool to ensure Jake Theis remains compliant with Commission regulations.
