

ANN ENGLISH GRAVATT
917 S.W. Oak Street, Suite 303
Portland, OR 97205 (office)
503.223.4544
ann@rnp.org

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

RENEWABLE NORTHWEST PROJECT

Policy Director, June 2002 – present

Senior policy staff with nonprofit advocacy organization promoting renewable energy resources in the Pacific Northwest. Charged with advancing policy in Oregon, Washington and Montana that reduces barriers to new renewable development in the region. Position involves legislative advocacy, regularly appearing before state public utility commissions to advocate the fair regulatory treatment for renewable resources, and working with regional utilities to encourage direct procurement of renewables. Responsible for hiring and managing consultants and contract employees in Washington and Montana. Position involves extensive public speaking and written advocacy.

BRAGDON FOR METRO PRESIDENT CAMPAIGN

January-June 2002

Finance director for contested region-wide political campaign. Responsible for raising $150,000 in three months. Other duties included house party and event coordination and planning, as well as managing the candidate's schedule.

STOEL RIVES LLP

Associate; December 1999 – December 2001

Associate attorney practicing in federal and state natural resources law. Areas of experience include: permitting for major energy utility facilities, Endangered Species Act compliance, relicensing of federal hydropower projects, state water rights regulation and permitting, and analysis of existing state water rights. Served as pro bono counsel to applicant for political asylum in the U.S.

VAN NESS FELDMAN, P.C., Washington, D.C.

Associate, 1999; Summer Associate, May – August 1998

Conducted research and analysis for regulatory and legislative practices in energy, natural resources, environmental, and Indian law.

WINNER/WAGNER & ASSOCIATES, Washington, D.C.

Staff Associate; 1993-1997

Associate in Washington, D.C. office of national public affairs and campaign consulting firm. Worked full-time while attending law school part-time. Duties included working with senior management on issue analysis and the development of political and communication strategies. Assisted in drafting public opinion research instruments, writing advocacy materials, organizing training programs, and developing new business. Involved regular contact with political leaders, corporate clients and Capitol Hill staff.

U.S. Department of the Interior, Office of the Solicitor, Law Clerk, May-Aug.1997, Jan.–April 1998

National Trust for Historic Preservation, Law Clerk, Fall 1998

EDUCATION

GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY LAW SCHOOL, Washington, D.C.

J.D., January 1999

Member, Moot Court Board

Summer Law Institute at the University of Nairobi, Kenya, 1996

UNIVERSITY OF RICHMOND, Richmond, VA

B.A. in Political Science with English Minor, Cum Laude, 1992