This Public Notice establishes certain procedural requirements relating to consideration of Qwest's application. Availability of Information. A wide range of information relating to Qwest's multiple state section 271 application for Montana, Utah, Washington, and Wyoming may be retrieved from the Commission's website at <http://www.fcc.gov>.⁷ Specific information, such as comments and ex parte submissions, may be obtained from the Electronic Comment Filing System (ECFS), which is accessible through the Commission's website. Moreover, Qwest has voluntarily agreed to post several documents, including its application and supporting affidavits and substantive ex parte submissions, on the World Wide Web at: <http://www.qwest.com/about/policy/ldReentry/Fed271/index.html>.

The application will be available for public inspection during regular business hours in the Reference Information Center of the Federal Communications Commission, Room CY-A257, 445 12th Street, S.W., Washington, DC, 20554. Paper copies of the application, and the record generated in response thereto, may be obtained from the Commission's copy contractor.

Ex Parte Rules - Permit-but-Disclose Proceeding. Because of the broad policy issues involved, section 271 application proceedings initially are classified as permit-but-disclose proceedings.⁸ Accordingly, ex parte presentations will be permitted, provided they are disclosed in conformance with the Commission's ex parte rules.⁹ Because of the 90-day statutory timeframe for decision, the Commission strongly encourages parties to set forth their views comprehensively in the formal filings specified above (e.g., written consultations, oppositions, supporting comments, etc.) and not to rely on subsequent ex parte presentations. In any event, parties may file no more than a total of 20 pages of written ex parte submissions. This 20-page limit does not include: (1) written ex parte submissions made solely to disclose an oral ex parte contact; (2) written material submitted at the time of an oral presentation to Commission staff that provides a brief outline of the presentation; (3) written material filed in response to direct requests from Commission staff; or (4) written factual exhibits. Ex parte submissions in excess of the 20-page limit will not be considered part of the record of this proceeding. In light of the statutory deadline for decision, parties are hereby requested to provide courtesy copies of any ex parte presentations made to any member of the Commission to Janice Myles, Wireline Competition Bureau, Wireline Competition Bureau (WCB), Federal Communications Commission, 445 12th Street, S.W., Room 5-C327, Washington D.C. 20554.

Parties are also requested to send a courtesy copy of any ex parte submissions via email to: jmyles@fcc.gov, gremondi@fcc.gov, eyockus@fcc.gov, ryan.harsch@usdoj.gov, svick@state.mt.us, jorchard@utah.gov, records@wuic.wa.gov, soxley@state.wy.us.

In recognition of the burden placed on all parties by the 90-day statutory timeframe, Qwest has voluntarily agreed to post (within 24 hours of filing) a copy of each ex parte submission it files with the Commission in this docket at its website:

<http://www.qwest.com/about/policy/ldReentry/Fed271/index.html>

⁷ The rules relating to public information and the inspection of records are set forth at sections 0.441 through 0.470 of the Commission's Rules. 47 C.F.R. §§ 0.441-0.470.

⁸ See 47 C.F.R. § 1.1206(a)(13) (added by 64 FR 68946, 68946 (1999) (effective Jan. 10, 2000)); e.g., Comments Requested on Application by Bell Atlantic for Authorization under Section 271 of the Communications Act to Provide In-Region, InterLATA Service in the State of New York (CC Docket No. 99-295), Public Notice, DA 99-2014, 1999 WL 770903 (CCB rel. Sept. 29, 1999).

⁹ See 47 C.F.R. §§ 1.1202, 1.1206(b).

Likewise, parties filing ex parte submissions are requested to provide Qwest with a copy of each ex parte submission within 24 hours by fax, messenger, or overnight delivery.¹⁰

For purposes of this proceeding, any oral ex parte presentations from the Department of Justice and of the State Commissions are deemed to be exempt ex parte presentations.¹¹ To the extent that the Commission obtains through such oral ex parte presentations new factual information on which the Commission may rely in its decision-making process, the party submitting the information – either the Department of Justice or the State Commissions– shall prepare a summary for inclusion in the record in accordance with Commission rules, unless such a summary is being prepared by Commission staff.¹² We also waive any page limits for written ex parte submissions by the Department of Justice or the State Commissions.

Notwithstanding the above, the Commission may, by subsequent public notice, prohibit all presentations to its decision-making personnel regarding the application during a seven-day period preceding the anticipated release date of the Commission’s Order regarding the application.¹³

Ex Parte Meeting Schedule. The Wireline Competition Bureau (WCB) staff will be available for meetings on July 26, 2002, July 30, 2002, August 21, 2002 and August 22, 2002, in case interested parties wish to discuss any issues that they intend to raise in comments or reply comments, as applicable, in support of or in opposition to Qwest’s application.

The purpose of these meetings is to give interested parties an opportunity to inform Bureau staff of such issues prior to filing their written comments or reply comments.
