Just an FYI, there may be a company doing business as All Star Movers down in the South Sound area trading on your good reputation. They had an ad in the "resident" advertising mail delivered to our UP house. The telephone number shown was 253-255-1216.

Good Morning!

This morning I called the following phone #: (866) 394-8795. After a couple of rings, a message was given for an All Star Movers. I didn't leave a message, however, a few minutes later I received a phone call from someone who introduced herself as Julie from All Star Movers. I assume she received my number from her caller ID.

I told her my name was Kristine and I was wondering if her company was the same company that had helped me move several years ago. Her response was that her company had not been in business for more than a couple of years so her company couldn't have been the one who serviced my move several years ago.

I then asked her if she knew of any other company besides hers that was named 'All Star Movers'. She responded by telling me that she did not know of any other business with the name 'All Star Movers'.

I didn't ask any further questions. However, she ended our conversation by giving me a (253) 255-1216 phone # and letting me know that she'd be interested in giving me a quote for moving services should I need them.

*Regards,
Kristine Rancich*

Dear Laron:

As you know, I've been a loyal customer of you and All Star Movers for over 15 years. You have conducted both business and residential moves for me and the Medic One Foundation on many occasions. Because of All Star's excellent customer service and timely deliveries, I have promoted you to my business associates, clients, family and friends.

I wanted to make you aware that recently, while in south King County, I passed a moving truck with All Star Movers on the side. At first, I thought you had changed the designs of your trucks, but after closer examination I noticed the phone number was not the same. The number listed on the truck was 253-255-1216. I wanted to bring this to your attention because I'm concerned others might make the same mistake and assume that they are the same company. I would hate for a business associate, client or friend be misled into believing they are receiving services from you when they are not. I wish you the best of luck in resolving this issue.

Sincerely,

Director of Finance
Medic One Foundation

Testimonials

Listen to what customers are saying about Allstar Movers. The satisfaction of our we've experienced such tremendous growth.

From Jane in Tacoma, Wa 10/23/2007

To Whom It May Concern:

I recently purchased a large bedroom set of 'Intercon' mission style side table dresser from you (I love them) when I made the order, you recommended AllStar Movers to deliver them to me at my home. Not only are the pieces v alone weighed in excess of 400 pounds. In addition, I live down a long, s consisting of about 120 steps. And if that wasn't bad enough, it was very windy come delivery day. Anyway, I just wanted to comment on their exp staff. They were very polite, couteous, thorough, and did a great job. I apc for the 'hill of death', but they just laughed and made it look easy. Needless arrived in perfect condition, and they helped me to assemble it and placed it You should recommend that they do all of your deliveries. I will certainly u future for any of my moving needs.

Sincerely,
Jane

Att: Steve McLellan,

I was recently contacted by Mr. Bruce Grimm of the W.U.T.C. regarding a complaint about the similarities of our name and a company in Spokane. Their name is ALL STAR MOVING INC. and ours is NORTHWEST ALL-STAR MOVERS.

Last July 15 we started proceedings to merge with an unlicensed moving company, who used to be named Mike the Mover Eastside Inc. operated by Laron Williams. (Not to be confused with Mike the Mover.)

After a great deal of thought we came up with a name we were comfortable with and also described best what our movers were all about. The name is Northwest Cartage Inc. D.B.A. NORTHWEST ALL-STAR MOVERS.

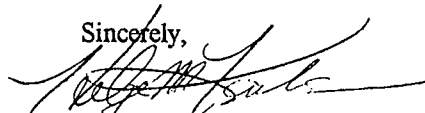

For the following reasons I feel we have the right to use the name NORTHWEST ALL STAR MOVERS:

- At this point in time we have registered and we have been issued a master licence by the D.O.L. with the name NORTHWEST ALL STAR MOVERS U.B.I. # 034003849
- We have full advertising on 11 trucks.
- We have signed contracts with 3 different area yellow pages.
- We do not feel that the name is deceptively similar (Ours starts with Northwest and ends with Movers)
- We do not advertise in Spokane
- We do not have an office in Spokane.
- We are located in Edmonds Washington
- If we were ever confused with them it would only enhance their image
- If given the opportunity we will refer business to them.
- After consulting our attorneys we found out that no one has exclusive rights to the word ALL STAR because it is too commonly used. (like ALL STAR TRANSPOTATION of Seattle)

Mr. Mc Lellan, when I look back on what has happened I now know that I should of contacted the W.U.T.C. first. Now I wish to correct the situation. I did not intentionally try to hurt anyone's business and I don't feel that I have.

It is very important at this point to keep our name as it is and we wish to have our new name added to our CC#5724. If you have any questions please contact me at (206) 774-8128. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Helge Karlsen: NORTHWEST ALL STAR MOVERS

BEFORE THE WASHINGTON UTILITIES AND TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION

In re Application P-78664 of)
)	Order M. V. NO. 149391
NORTHWEST ALL-STAR MOVERS,)
INC., d/b/a Laron Williams All-Star)
Moving and Storage)	ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION
)	TO OPERATE AS A TEMPORARY
for a permit to operate as a)	COMMON CARRIER, AND
TEMPORARY COMMON CARRIER)	SETTING FORTH CONDITIONS
under the provisions of chapter)	RELATING TO THAT GRANT
81.80 RCW)

On August 12, 1997, application P-78664 was filed by Northwest All-Star Movers, Inc., d/b/a Laron Williams All-Star Moving and Storage, under the provisions of chapter 81.80 RCW, for temporary authority to operate the rights under Common Carrier Permit No. CC-5724, standing in the name of Northwest Cartage Co., pending transfer under application P-78665.

The Commission having considered the application for temporary permit authority finds that it meets the requirements for grant of a temporary permit to operate the rights of an existing permit, pending decision on a transfer of that authority, under the provisions of WAC 480-12-033. The applicant has demonstrated in conversations and meetings with Commission staff that he has both the ability and commitment to work within the regulatory framework to supply service to those members of the public wishing to employ the services of a transporter of household goods. In addition, the current holder of the permit has provided statements to the Commission indicating that the value of the permit would be adversely impacted were the applicant not allowed to operate it during the period until a decision can be rendered in the application for permanent transfer of the authority.

However, the Commission also finds it appropriate that this grant of temporary common carrier authority be subject to special terms and conditions. Imposition of special terms and conditions in the granting of temporary permits is authorized by WAC 480-12-033(5). The Commission imposes these conditions because:

- (1) the applicant has in the past operated as an illegal carrier, transporting household goods without having first obtained authority from the Commission to do so;
- (2) the applicant has operated the permit of another carrier without having first obtained Commission approval of that transaction; and
- (3) the application for temporary authority was protested by All Star Moving, Inc. of Veradale, Washington, because of potential confusion of the part of the shipping public due to the similarity in the names of the two companies.
