Re: Ivan Ingram – Docket No. TV – 120721

Dear Mr. Danner:

I am filing a Motion and Declaration to Continue the Brief hearing with the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission. The document will be filed along with this letter.

Very truly yours,

Matthew J. Bellmer
Attorney for Ivan Ingram
cc Motion: Jennifer Cameron-Rulkowski, AAG
Judge Adam Torem

Before the Washington State
Utilities and Transportation Commission

In the Matter of the Application of:

Ivan Ingram d/b/a AA Eagle Relocation Service

For a Permit to Operate as a Motor
Carrier of Household Goods

Docket No. TV-120721

Motion and Declaration to Continue Brief Adjudicative
Hearing and To Set New Hearing Date

I. Motion to Continue Brief Adjudicative Hearing

COMES NOW the Applicant, Ivan Ingram, by and through his attorney of record, Matthew J. Bellmer, and moves for an Order continuing the Brief Adjudicative Hearing originally scheduled for Thursday, November 8, 2012 at 1:30 p.m. and setting a new future hearing.

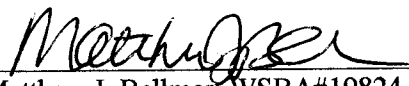

II. Declaration of Matthew J. Bellmer in Support of Motion to Continue

I have recently been retained by Ivan Ingram, the Applicant seeking a permit to operate a motor carrier of household goods. I filed a Notice of Appearance on or about November 2, 2012. On that same date, I provided a copy of my Notice of Appearance to Judge Torem and Ms. Cameron-Rulkowski, attorney for the State of Washington. I have not been able to file a formal request for a continuance until November 7, 2012. The parties have agreed to continue the hearing to December 12, 2012.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the state of Washington that the foregoing is true and correct.

DATED this 7th day of November, 2012 at Olympia, Washington.

Matthew J. Bellmer, WSBA#19824
Declarant/Attorney for Applicant
Ivan Ingram
