RE: *Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission v. Lifestyle LLC
d/b/a Lifestyle Shuttles & Tours; Lifestyle Valet*
Commission Staff's Response to Proposed Payment Schedule
Docket TE-171115

Dear Mr. King:

On December 1, 2017, the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) issued an administrative penalty against Lifestyle LLC (Lifestyle LLC or Company) in the amount of $1,300 for violations of Washington Administrative Code (WAC) 480-30-221 Vehicle and Driver Safety Requirements. The Company applied for mitigation of the penalty amount on December 19, 2017. The Commission responded by reducing the penalty amount to $600 in Order 01 on January 29, 2018.

On March 13, 2018 Lifestyle LLC submitted its proposed payment plan, consisting of four monthly installments, one each in the amounts of $100, $125, $150, and $225, due on the sixth day of each month, beginning in April 2018.

Staff takes notice that Order 01 required Lifestyle LLC to either pay the remaining $600 penalty or file its proposed payment plan by February 8, 2018. The Company's proposed payment plan arrived 33 days late. Staff also takes notice that the proposed monthly installments are not of a consistent amount.

Nevertheless, staff appreciates the Company's willingness to address this penalty, remain in compliance, and avoid the collection process. Staff supports the proposed payment plan under the following conditions:

1. The company will make four monthly installments, one each in the amounts of $100, $125, $150, and $225.
2. Each installment will be due and payable on the 6th day of each month, or the regular business day nearest the 6th day of each month.
3. The first payment will be due April 6, 2018.
4. If the carrier fails to pay any installment by the due date, or fails to pay at least the minimum amount due, the entire remaining balance of payments will become immediately due and payable.

The proposed payment scheduled is depicted below:

April 6, 2018	$100
May 7, 2018	$125
June 6, 2018	$150
July 6, 2018	$225
