Qualifications of Sarah E. Laycock on Behalf of Public Counsel

September 20, 2019

1 Q. Ms. Laycock, please provide information pertaining to your educational background
2 and professional experience.

3 A. My name is Sarah Laycock, and I am employed as a Regulatory Analyst with Public 4 Counsel Unit of the Washington State Office of the Attorney General (Public Counsel).
5 Public Counsel is a statutory party to proceedings before the Washington Utilities and 6 Transportation Commission (Commission) under RCW 80.01.100, RCW 80.04.510, and 7 RCW 81.04.500.

8 I earned a B.A. in English Literature from Sewanee: The University of the South,
9 as well as a Master of International Relations from Webster University. Currently, I am 10 pursuing a J.D. at Seattle University School of Law. Additionally, I completed The 11 Basics Practical Regulatory Training for the Electric Industry in May 2018 through the 12 Center for Public Utilities at New Mexico State University, and completed the Public
13 Utilities Reports Guide Principles of Public Utilities Operations and Management course
14 in May 2018.

15 My current employment as a Regulatory Analyst with Public Counsel began in 16 November 2017. Since joining the Attorney General's Office, I have worked on a variety
17 of energy and telecommunications matters, including Cascade's 2017 General Rate Case
18 (UG-170929), the CenturyLink Line Extension Complaint (UT-171082), the Avista/Hydro
19 One Merger (U-170970), Pacific Power's EV Pilot Program (UE-180757), the Community
20 Solar Rulemaking (UE-171033), the PSE Macquarie Transaction (U-180680), and 21 Northwest Natural 2018 GRC (UG-181053). Additionally, I have worked on energy 22 conservation, and integrated resource planning issues. In particular, I participate in the 23 conservation advisory group for Pacific Power, the Pacific Power IRP, and the Statewide 24 Advisory Group (SWAG).
