

WASHINGTON UTILITIES AND TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION

NOTICE OF PENALTIES INCURRED AND DUE FOR VIOLATIONS OF LAWS AND RULES

PENALTY ASSESSMENT NO: TE-081085

PENALTY AMOUNT: $200

Seattle Portland Express Co.
9530 Aurora Avenue North #205
Seattle, Washington 98103

The Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) believes that you have committed a violation of Washington Administrative Code (WAC) 480-30-071 which requires auto transportation carriers to file annual reports with the Commission by May 1 each year. You are classified as such a company. Commission records show that you did not make the filing by the required date of May 1, 2008. Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 81.04.405 allows penalties of $100 for every such violation. Each and every such violation shall be a separate and distinct offense and, in the case of a continuing violation, every day's continuance shall be and be deemed to be a separate and distinct violation.

As a result, the Commission hereby notifies you that it has assessed penalties against you in the amount $200, as follows:

On February 29, 2008, the Commission mailed 2007 Annual Report forms and 2008 Regulatory Fee packets to auto transportation providers registered in Washington State. A letter from Executive Secretary Carole Washburn instructed companies to file annual reports and pay regulatory fees by May 1, 2008. Further, the letter stated failure to file the annual report by May 1 would result in a penalty and possible cancellation of the company's permit to operate in Washington.

On April 1, 2008, the Commission mailed a notice to all auto transportation providers reminding them that 2007 annual reports and 2008 regulatory fees were due by May 1, 2008.

On May 1, 2008, the Commission received a request from Seattle Portland Express Co. for an extension to file its 2007 annual report. The company did not request a specific date it wished to file the report. At its May 15, 2008, open meeting the Commission approved the extension request and granted the company until May 30, 2008, to file the report.

As of June 12, 2008, Seattle Portland Express Co. failed to file the 2007 annual report.

This information, if proved at a hearing and not rebutted or explained, is sufficient to support the penalty assessment.

Your penalty is due and payable now. If you believe the violation did not occur, you may request a hearing to contest the penalty assessment. If there is a reason for the violation that you think should excuse you from the penalty, you may ask for mitigation (reduction) of this penalty. See RCW 81.04.405.

You have the right to present your request for review or mitigation at a hearing, but you are not required to do so. If you do, the Commission will review the evidence supporting your request in an informal hearing, called a Brief Adjudicative Proceeding, before an administrative law judge. The administrative law judge will consider your plea and notify you of his or her decision.

You must act within 15 days after receiving this notice to do one of the following:

- Pay the amount due.
- Request a hearing to contest the occurrence of the violations.
- Request mitigation to contest the amount of the penalty.

Please indicate your selection on the enclosed form and send it to the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission, Post Office Box 47250, Olympia, Washington 98504-7250, within FIFTEEN (15) days after you receive this notice.

If you do not act within 15 days, the Commission may refer this matter to the Office of the Attorney General for collection. The Commission may then sue you to collect the penalty.

DATED at Olympia, Washington, and effective June 25, 2008.

ANN E. RENDAHL
Administrative Law Judge
