

WASHINGTON UTILITIES AND TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION

NOTICE OF PENALTIES INCURRED AND DUE FOR VIOLATIONS OF LAWS AND RULES

PENALTY ASSESSMENT: UT-081115
PENALTY AMOUNT: $100

Grande Communications Networks, Inc.
401 Carlson Circle
San Marcos, Texas 78666

The Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) believes that you have committed a violation of Washington Administrative Code 480-120-382 which requires competitive telecommunications companies to file annual reports with the Commission by May 1 each year. You are classified as such a company. Commission records show that you did not make the filing by the required date of May 1, 2008. Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 80.04.405 allows penalties of $100 for every such violation. Each and every such violation shall be a separate and distinct offense and, in the case of a continuing violation, every day's continuance shall be and be deemed to be a separate and distinct violation.

As a result, the Commission hereby notifies you that it has assessed penalties against you in the amount $100, as follows:

On February 29, 2008, the Commission mailed 2007 Annual Report forms and 2008 Regulatory Fee packets to competitive telecommunications companies registered in Washington State. A letter from Executive Secretary Carole Washburn instructed companies to file annual reports and pay regulatory fees by May 1, 2008. Further, the letter stated failure to file the annual report by May 1 would result in a penalty and possible revocation of the company's registration to operate in Washington.

On April 1, 2008, the Commission mailed a notice to all telecommunications companies reminding them that 2007 annual reports and 2008 regulatory fees were due by May 1, 2008.

On May 15, 2008, the Commission sent letters to those companies that had not yet filed their reports. The letter, signed by Carole Washburn, gave an extension to companies to file their reports by May 30, 2008. In the letter, Ms. Washburn stated the Commission would not seek a fine or move to revoke the registration of any company with a report received by the Commission postmarked no later than May 30.

The Commission received Grande Communications Networks, Inc.'s 2007 annual report on June 16, 2008.

In addition, it should also be noted that on December 6, 2005, Grande Communications Networks, Inc., received a $100 penalty assessment in docket UT-051701 for failure to file its 2004 annual report timely. Despite repeated collection attempts the company has not responded to Commission or Attorney General staff and the penalty assessment remains due and payable.

This information, if proved at a hearing and not rebutted or explained, is sufficient to support the penalty assessment.

Your penalty is due and payable now. If you believe the violation did not occur, you may request a hearing to contest the penalty assessment. If there is a reason for the violation that you think should excuse you from the penalty, you may ask for mitigation (reduction) of this penalty. See RCW 80.04.405.

You have the right to present your request for review or mitigation at a hearing, but you are not required to do so. If you do, the Commission will review the evidence supporting your request in an informal hearing, called a Brief Adjudicative Proceeding, before an administrative law judge. The administrative law judge will consider your plea and notify you of his or her decision.

You must act within 15 days after receiving this notice to do one of the following:

- Pay the amount due.
- Request a hearing to contest the occurrence of the violations.
- Request mitigation to contest the amount of the penalty.

Please indicate your selection on the enclosed form and send it to the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission, Post Office Box 47250, Olympia, Washington 98504-7250, within FIFTEEN (15) days after you receive this notice.

If you do not act within 15 days, the Commission may refer this matter to the Office of the Attorney General for collection. The Commission may then sue you to collect the penalty.

DATED at Olympia, Washington, and effective June 30, 2008.

ANN E. RENDAHL
Administrative Law Judge
