

WASHINGTON UTILITIES AND TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION

NOTICE OF PENALTIES INCURRED AND DUE FOR VIOLATIONS OF LAWS AND RULES

PENALTY ASSESSMENT: TV-081223
PENALTY AMOUNT: $200

Star Moving & Storage, Inc.
Post Office Box 11068
Tacoma, Washington 98411

The Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) believes that you have committed a violation of Washington Administrative Code 480-15-480 which requires household goods carriers to file annual reports with the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) by May 1 each year. You are classified as such a company. Commission records show that you did not make the filing by the required date of May 1, 2008. Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 81.04.405 allows penalties of $100 for every such violation. Each and every such violation shall be a separate and distinct offense and, in the case of a continuing violation, every day's continuance shall be and be deemed to be a separate and distinct violation.

As a result, the Commission hereby notifies you that it has assessed penalties against you in the amount $200, as follows:

On February 29, 2008, the commission mailed 2007 Annual Report forms and 2008 Regulatory Fee packets to household goods carriers registered with it. A letter from Executive Secretary Carole Washburn instructed companies to file annual reports and pay regulatory fees by May 1, 2008. Further, the letter stated failure to file the annual report by May 1 could result in a penalty. Those companies wishing to request an extension to file the annual report were asked to do so prior to May 1, providing a reason for the requested extension.

On April 1, 2008, the commission mailed a notice to all household goods carriers reminding them that 2007 annual reports and 2008 regulatory fees were due by May 1, 2008.

On May 1, 2008, Star Moving & Storage, Inc., filed with the commission a petition requesting an extension of time to file its 2007 annual report as required by WAC 480-15-480. According to Star Moving & Storage, Inc., it was unable to prepare the report due to implementation of new accounting software. On May 15, 2008, the commission granted Star Moving & Storage, Inc.'s petition and allowed the company additional time to file its 2007 annual report. Star Moving & Storage, Inc., was given until July 1, 2008, to file the report.

A review of the commission's Annual Report Tracking System on July 2, 2008, revealed the company has not filed the report.

Star Moving & Storage, Inc., also failed to file its 2006 annual reports timely and, as a result, received a $100 penalty assessment in 2007. This penalty amount of $200 is for two consecutive years of non-compliance.

This information, if proved at a hearing and not rebutted or explained, is sufficient to support the penalty assessment.

Your penalty is due and payable now. If you believe the violation did not occur, you may request a hearing to contest the penalty assessment. If there is a reason for the violation that you think should excuse you from the penalty, you may ask for mitigation (reduction) of this penalty. See RCW 81.04.405.

You have the right to present your request for review or mitigation at a hearing, but you are not required to do so. If you do, the Commission will review the evidence supporting your request in an informal hearing, called a Brief Adjudicative Proceeding, before an administrative law judge. The administrative law judge will consider your plea and notify you of his or her decision.

You must act within 15 days after receiving this notice to do one of the following:

- Pay the amount due.
- Request a hearing to contest the occurrence of the violations.
- Request mitigation to contest the amount of the penalty.

Please indicate your selection on the enclosed form and send it to the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission, Post Office Box 47250, Olympia, Washington 98504-7250, within FIFTEEN (15) days after you receive this notice.

If you do not act within 15 days, the Commission may refer this matter to the Office of the Attorney General for collection. The Commission may then sue you to collect the penalty.

DATED at Olympia, Washington, and effective July 7, 2008.

ANN E. RENDAHL
Administrative Law Judge
