Re: – Name Change: Telecom Pacific LLC to Telecom Pacific Inc. to Callerid4u Inc.

Dear Mr. Santos: Telecom Pacific LLC. , discovered in May of 2010, that unbeknown to us several of our WA phone numbers were being used in an unauthorized manner by Mr. Steve Hamilton (previously a member of Telecom Pacific LLC) and his own conveniently named company, Pacific Telecom Communications Group Inc. In June 2010, we came to a settlement agreement with Hamilton and his company and due to that, we cannot elaborate on the details of how we were compensated for the misuse of our numbers, but we can tell you that Mr. Hamilton resigned from Telecom Pacific LLC (see enclosed letter) and turned over his interest over to the partnership, but we were unable to get him to change his company name so as to minimize the unavoidable confusion that was to follow. Since then, to further complicate matters, we understand that Pacific is now providing its own phone numbers to telemarketers. This has created a rash of misdirected complaints to us when they really should be going to Pacific, therefore have had to change the name of the company to avoid further confusion.

In order to do so, per Delaware regulations, we had to first change it from a Telecom Pacific LLC. to a Telecom Pacific Inc. and then change the name of the corporation to Callerid4u Inc.

Please effect the name change to Callerid4u Inc. We have enclosed all the relevant paperwork, If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to call me.
