

[Service Date December 30, 2010]

WASHINGTON UTILITIES AND TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION

NOTICE OF PENALTIES INCURRED AND DUE FOR VIOLATIONS OF LAWS AND RULES

PENALTY ASSESSMENT: TV-101791

PENALTY AMOUNT: $1,500

METROPOLITAN MOVERS, INC. D/B/A
THE FAMILY MOVERS
10303 PORTLAND AVENUE
TACOMA, WA 98445

The Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) believes that you have committed violations of Washington Administrative Code (WAC) 480-15, which specify how household goods moving companies must issue and complete bills of lading, and what rates companies may charge for specified materials and services. The Commission also believes you have committed a number of violations of Tariff 15-C, which identifies the rates and charges household goods moving companies may charge their customers, as well as the items a company must include on its bills of lading.

Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 81.04.405 allows penalties of $100 for every such violation. Under this statute, each and every violation is considered a separate and distinct offense and, in the case of a continuing violation, each day the violation continues is considered a separate and distinct violation.

As a part of a routine investigation of the company's business records from 50 moves performed between April and October 2010, Commission staff identified a number of violations of WAC 480-15 and Tariff 15-C. As a result, the Commission hereby notifies you that it has assessed penalties against you in the amount $1,500 for the following 15 violations.

- Failure to properly complete bills of lading.
2 VIOLATIONS: WAC 480-15-710
- Failure to follow the terms, conditions, rates, and all other requirements imposed by Tariff 15-C.
13 VIOLATIONS: WAC 480-15-490(3)

This information, if proved at a hearing and not rebutted or explained, is sufficient to support the penalty assessment.

Your penalty is due and payable now. If you believe the violations did not occur, you may request a hearing to contest the penalty assessment. If there is a reason for the violations that you think should excuse you from the penalty, you may ask for mitigation (reduction) of this penalty. See RCW 81.04.405.

You have the right to present your request for review or mitigation at a hearing, but you are not required to do so. If you do, the Commission will review the evidence supporting your request in an informal hearing, called a Brief Adjudicative Proceeding, before an administrative law judge. The administrative law judge will consider your plea and notify you of his or her decision.

You must act within 15 days after receiving this notice to do one of the following:

- Pay the amount due.
- Request a hearing to contest the occurrence of the violations.
- Request mitigation to contest the amount of the penalty.

Please indicate your selection on the enclosed form and send it to the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission, Post Office Box 47250, Olympia, Washington 98504-7250, within FIFTEEN (15) days after you receive this notice.

If you do not act within 15 days, the Commission may refer this matter to the Office of the Attorney General for collection. The Commission may then sue you to collect the penalty.

DATED at Olympia, Washington, and effective December 30, 2010.

RCW 9A.72.020:

“Perjury in the first degree. (1) A person is guilty of perjury in the first degree if in any official proceeding he makes a materially false statement which he knows to be false under an oath required or authorized by law. (2) Knowledge of the materiality of the statement is not an element of this crime, and the actor’s mistaken belief that his statement was not material is not a defense to a prosecution under this section. (3) Perjury in the first degree is a class B felony.”
