RULES AND REGULATIONS

C. General Regulations (Continued)

11. Lifeline/Washington Telephone Assistance Program (WTAP) (Continued)

b. Washington Telephone Assistance Program (WTAP) (Continued)

The Washington Telephone Assistance Program (WTAP) is applicable only to the customer's principal residence line.

The normal service request or change charge which would apply when changing to a different type, class, or grade of service will not apply when changing to WTAP.

Deposit requirements do not apply to WTAP customers if call restriction (toll blocking) is employed. See Lifeline Toll Restriction Service in Section 2, 11, a.

(D)
(D)

Tribal Land residents who qualify for Lifeline/Washington Telephone Assistance Program (WTAP) also qualify for an additional discount on nonrecurring service installation charges under Tribal Link Up (Section 5).

c. Eligibility Requirements

Lifeline Service/Washington Telephone Assistance Program (WTAP) are only available to low income residential customers who meet the following criteria:

SERVICE CHARGES

D. Tribal Link Up

1. General

Tribal Link Up helps low-income Tribal Land subscribers initiate telephone service by providing to qualifying residential subscribers a 100% reduction, up to $100.00 in Tribal Link Up installation credits to establish telephone service.

Tribal Link Up can only be associated with the primary residential connection.

Funding is obtained from a universal service support mechanism to which all telecommunications carriers, that provide interstate telecommunications services, contribute to on an equitable and nondiscriminatory basis.

2. Eligibility Requirements

In order to qualify for Tribal Link Up, the applicant must meet the income test for a general low income assistance program listed below or shown in the Native American Lifeline section of the tariff, Section 2, Sheet 44:

- (a) Medicaid
- (b) Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program
- (c) Supplemental Security Income
- (d) Federal Public Housing Assistance (Section 8)
- (e) Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program
- (f) National School Lunch Program's free lunch program
- (g) Temporary Assistance for Needy Families

Applicants may be certified eligible by the Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS).
