The Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) believes that you have committed violations of Washington Administrative Code (WAC) 480-15-187, which requires you to file an application with the commission prior to transferring or acquiring control of an existing household goods permit.

Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 81.04.405 allows penalties of $100 for every such violation. Under this statute, each and every violation is considered a separate and distinct offense and, in the case of a continuing violation, each day the violation continues is considered a separate and distinct violation.

Commission staff obtained evidence that Kris and/or Lauri O'Bannon, owners of Northwest Movers Central, LLC and Northwest Movers, LLC, d/b/a Bekins Northwest, et. al, failed to file an application with the Commission before acquiring two locations formerly operated by Action Moving Services, Inc., d/b/a Accountable Moving & Storage, on November 22, 2013, in violation of WAC 480-15-187.

As a result, the Commission hereby notifies you that it has assessed penalties against you in the amount of $100 per day from November 22, 2013, to January 31, 2014, resulting in a total penalty of $7,000 for the following violations:

- Failure to file an application to acquire control of authority for Action Moving Services, Inc., d/b/a Accountable Moving & Storage, located in Spokane, WA and Seattle, WA.
70 VIOLATIONS: WAC 480-15-187

This information, if proved at a hearing and not rebutted or explained, is sufficient to support the penalty assessment.

Your penalty is due and payable now. If you believe the violations did not occur, you may request a hearing to contest the penalty assessment. If there is a reason for the violations that you think should excuse you from the penalty, you may ask for mitigation (reduction) of this penalty. See RCW 81.04.405.

You have the right to present your request for review or mitigation at a hearing, but you are not required to do so. If you do, the Commission will review the evidence supporting your request in an informal hearing, called a Brief Adjudicative Proceeding, before an administrative law judge. The administrative law judge will consider your plea and notify you of his or her decision.

You must act within 15 days after receiving this notice to do one of the following:

- Pay the amount due.
- Request a hearing to contest the occurrence of the violations.
- Request mitigation to contest the amount of the penalty.

Please indicate your selection on the enclosed form and send it to the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission, Post Office Box 47250, Olympia, Washington 98504-7250, within FIFTEEN (15) days after you receive this notice.

If you do not act within 15 days, the Commission may refer this matter to the Office of the Attorney General for collection. The Commission may then sue you to collect the penalty.

DATED at Olympia, Washington, and effective February 3, 2014.
