Agency: Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission

Subject of possible rule making:

The purpose of this rulemaking is to implement Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill (ESSB) 5939 which was passed and signed into law in the 2017 legislative session. The potential rulemaking would create a new chapter related to community solar companies in Title 480 WAC. The rulemaking would be limited to the provisions of ESSB 5939, including:

- Define "community solar company"
- Licensing, registration, revocation
- Annual reporting
- Record keeping
- Consumer protection
- Fees
- Process to identify entities other than utilities that organize and administer community solar projects and those offered by investor-owned utilities.

This rulemaking has been assigned Docket UE-171033.

Statutes authorizing the agency to adopt rules on this subject:

RCW 80.28, 82.16, and 80.01.040

Reasons why rules on this subject may be needed and what they might accomplish:

The 2017 Legislature passed legislation (ESSB 5939) adding a new section to RCW 80.28 requiring community solar companies to register with the commission before engaging in business in this state or applying for certification from the Washington State University extension energy program. Registrations must be on a form prescribed by the commission and must occur on an annual basis. In addition, the commission is authorized to establish application processing fees and regulatory fees. Additionally, the commission may adopt rules to establish the solar company's responsibility for responding to consumer issues.

Identify other federal and state agencies that regulate this subject and the process coordinating the rule with these agencies:

The Washington State University extension energy program will be issuing community solar project certifications.

Process for developing new rule (check all that apply):

- Negotiated rule making
- Pilot rule making
- Agency study

Other (describe) The Commission will ask for initial written comments by November 20, 2017, schedule a workshop if needed, and provide the opportunity for stakeholders to submit additional written comments on draft rules and proposed CR-102 rules prior to adoption.

Interested parties can participate in the decision to adopt the new rule and formulation of the proposed rule before publication by contacting:
