Respondents.

1 SYNOPSIS: The Commission revokes the registration of 103 registered telecommunications companies for failure to pay regulatory fees and file annual reports.

2 NATURE OF PROCEEDING: On June 6, 2002, Commission Staff initiated action against 123 registered telecommunications companies for failure to pay regulatory fees and file annual reports. In this Order the Commission reviews a default order that proposes to revoke the registration of 110 companies as registered telecommunication company's in the state of Washington for failure to pay regulatory fees and file annual reports.

3 DEFAULT ORDER: On August 2, 2002, Administrative Law Judge Lawrence J. Berg entered a Default Order proposing that the registration of the 110 companies identified in paragraph 17 of the order be revoked because of the failure to file annual reports and pay regulatory fees. The Default Order noted that – of the 123 registered companies named as parties – four companies had complied with their obligations to file reports and pay fees, and nine companies filed requests to cease doing business that were subsequently allowed to become effective by the Commission. The other 110 parties were found to be in default. The Default Order provided notice regarding statutory provisions allowing parties that disagree to file a written motion requesting that the Default Order be vacated.

4 MOTIONS TO VACATE DEFAULT ORDER: On August 9, 2002, AccessLine
Communications Corporation timely filed its motion to vacate the default order. On August 15, 2002, Direct Connect Communications, Inc., late-filed its motion to vacate the default order.

5 COMMISSION STAFF MOTION TO DISMISS PARTIES FROM PROCEEDING.
On October 4, 2002, Commission Staff filed a motion to dismiss AccessLine Communications Corporation and Direct Connect Communications, Inc., and represented that those companies had fully complied with their obligations. Staff's motion also sought to dismiss five other companies that had subsequently complied with their obligations to file reports and pay fees, but failed to file a motion to vacate the Default Order: Corporate Services Telecom, Inc.; Maxxis Communications, Inc.; Pro Plus Communications Corp.; ServiSense.com, Inc.; and Western CLEC Corp (also known as Eclipse Communications Corp.). Commission Staff argues that all other parties found to be in default should have their registration revoked.

6 The Commission finds that the parties named in paragraphs 5 and 6 above subsequently complied with their obligations to file reports and pay fees. Accordingly, Commission Staff's motion to dismiss those parties is granted. Additionally, the parties identified in the Default Order as either having complied or having been allowed to cease doing business in Washington also are dismissed from this proceeding.

7 The Commission has reviewed the Default Order, and the Commission accepts the findings of fact and conclusions of law, and adopts the Default Order as its own for purposes of this proceeding. In accordance with RCW 34.05.440 and WAC 480-121-060, the registration of each of the 103 companies identified in Appendix A as a telecommunications company in the state of Washington should be revoked.

ORDER

THE COMMISSION ORDERS That:

8 The Commission affirms and adopts the Default Order in this docket for purposes of this proceeding. The parties identified in paragraphs 5 and 6 above have complied with their obligations to file reports and pay fees. Parties identified in the Default Order and in this Order as having complied with their obligations to file reports and pay fees or that have been allowed to cease doing business are dismissed from this proceeding. In so doing,

THE COMMISSION FURTHER ORDERS That:

9 The registration of each of the 103 telecommunications companies in the state of Washington identified in Appendix A is revoked for failure to file annual reports and to pay regulatory fees as required by RCW 80.04.080, WAC 480-120-033, and RCW 80-24.010.

DATED at Olympia, Washington, and effective this ____ day of October, 2002.
