

Gentlemen:

I am writing in regards to your plan to create an overlay area code for western Washington. I urge you to reconsider this plan and instead create new distinct area codes that will preserve the ability to dial local 7-digit calls. This is a much better long-term solution.

Please do not move forward with the 10-digit dialing.

Sincerely,
Donna Snow
1250 Devon Loop NE
Olympia, WA 98506