Re: In the Matter of a Complaint by the Joint CLECs Against the Joint Applicants Regarding
OSS For Maintenance and Repair
Docket No. UT-111254

Dear Mr. Danner:

Enclosed for filing in this matter is a revised Confidential Exhibit DD-2 to the responsive testimony of Douglas Denney of Integra. The enclosed exhibit replaces Confidential Exhibit DD-2 as it was filed on December 15, 2011. The replacement exhibit has been updated to add 13 pages to the end of the exhibit. These pages are excerpts from CenturyLink/Qwest discovery responses that were due on December 9, 2011 but not provided until December 20, 2011, after the filing of the responsive testimony on December 15, 2011. Mr. Denney addressed the fact that these responses had not been received at the time of the filing of testimony in footnote 133 on page 38 of his responsive testimony.

Counsel for CenturyLink/Qwest has indicated that missing the discovery deadline was inadvertent and that CenturyLink and Qwest do not object to this filing or to replacing the previous version of the exhibit with the enclosed Confidential Exhibit DD-2.

Sincerely,

Gregory Merz
