

To Steve King:

I would like to respectfully state that we need to move to renewable energy now.

With the Trump adm. doubling down on fossil fuels, WA state needs to lead the way. It is our moral obligation to not contribute to climate change due to its catastrophic human and environmental costs.

Mary Russell

teacher

Give me something positive to tell →

my students when they ask me what are we doing to save their
future.