Dear Commission Members:

I have a request for you in relation to Puget Sound Energy's two latest rate increases. I am 76 years old (will be 77 in August) and receive $470 per month Social Security. Please communicate with Medicare for me to explain to them what looks like increases in my cost of living expenses. They think that seniors don't have any increases in cost of living expenses.

My latest Puget Sound Energy monthly "Budget" payments

April 2017 -- $ 96.00

May 2017 -- $254.00

June 2017 -- $254.00

July 2017 -- $363.40

43 years of good projects in Olympia, including co-founding the first school-community garden group should be worth recognition of value.

Following an automobile accident in which I was injured (rear-end collision), Senator Patty Murray and her staff provided much appreciated help (along with AARP) after the IRS notified me of their intention to seize my house because I was late in filing income tax forms (though NO TAX was due).

Thank you for your attention, and hopefully, your help.

Very sincerely,

Ellen Schug
