Hi,

I'm writing this mail to request you that please sell the domain www.seattle7dayslimo.com to me or please stop that domain to use my company name. I've been requesting you this from last year, but you never did any of these things. I'm facing problem due to this, UTC of Washington state think's that my company is controlling that website and want me to pay penalty because of that. Please sell this domain to me so that we can have a control on it and update it. Also please provide me some proof so that i'can show them that this domain is not under my control and not owned by me anymore.

Thanks,

Hi Jagdip,

We are sorry, to know about the problems you are facing due to the domain. Although, we have explained you earlier too. Let us explain again, that one of our Web Developer who built website at the domain www.seattle7dayslimo.com, has left the job after updating the website (for year 2017) on 2nd Dec 2016. Later when you contacted us to make changes in the website, we get to know that he mistakenly erased the data from his system containing the access credentials for the domain. Let me clear it that no one can access the domain, without having login information.

We already contacted the domain registrar Godaddy for this issue, and got informed that there is no way without the verification of the account to access the domain and only the owner of the domain can access it. But, the good news is that the domain www.seattle7dayslimo.com is getting expired with in this month (Nov 2018). Once it get expired the website will stop working automatically, and the domain register will make it available for the public to buy it after few day of expiration. So, either you or we can buy the domain and access it to upload the website with a fresh start as you want from last 2 years.

Mistake is from our end, and we apologize for it. That period was the early phase of our startup, and we accept our mistake. We will keep an eye, and let you know as soon as the domain will be available to buy after it get expired with in this month. Until that we are sending you the attachment of the records as a evidence that shows the domain is not owned by you or us, and it can't be accessed.

Let us know, if you need any other information from our side. Also, we want to give you an offer that we'll build your website for no cost once the domain will become available. Please let us know, if you are interested.

Best Regards,

Rinku Dhillon,
