ARTICLE 2 TERM OF AGREEMENT

Subject to the provisions of Article 6, this Agreement will remain in effect until the fiftieth (50th) anniversary of the Effective Date. Thereafter, this Agreement will automatically renew for additional one year terms unless either Party provides written termination notice to the other Party at least twelve (12) months prior to the end of the then applicable term.

ARTICLE 3 RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF PUBLISHER

3.1 Publication.

(a) Publisher will, at no charge to QC or its Subscribers, subject to Section 3.13: (1) Publish Primary Directories covering, in the aggregate, the Service Areas in the Publisher Region (including those Service Areas discussed in Section 3.11); (2) Publish Primary Listings in the White Pages; (3) Publish a Courtesy Classified Listing in the applicable Yellow Pages for each of QC’s business Subscribers (unless such Subscriber has indicated to Publisher or QC that it does not want such Courtesy Classified Listing to be Published); (4) as appropriate, co-mingle in such Primary Directories on a non-discriminatory basis QC’s Subscriber List Information with Subscriber List Information received from other CLECs, LECs or Resellers; and (5) comply with any and all Subscriber-requested restrictions that are designated in the Subscriber List Information and are consistent with Publisher’s policies.

(b) Publisher acknowledges that the Publishing Obligation is required by and subject to certain (1) tariffs, (2) laws, rules, regulations and orders of certain Governmental Entities and (3) interconnection agreements with CLECs, LECs and Resellers (collectively, “Legal Requirements”). In discharging its obligations under this Agreement, Publisher, subject to Article 8, (i) will not take any action that will cause QC or Publisher to be in violation of any Legal Requirement, whether in effect now or in the future, and (ii) will treat all Subscribers and Subscriber List Information (regardless of the carrier of such Subscribers) in a non-discriminatory manner. Without limiting the foregoing, the Parties acknowledge that QC’s Directory Products in the metropolitan statistical area of El Paso are Secondary Directories and, therefore, not subject to Legal Requirements.

(c) Without limiting the provisions of Section 3.1(b), Publisher will ensure that (1) the appearance (including font and size) and integration of all Subscriber List Information occurs in a non-discriminatory manner, (2) non-QC Subscriber List Information is included in the Primary Directories using the same methods and procedures, and under the same terms and conditions, as those with respect to QC Subscriber List Information, and (3) non-QC Subscriber List Information is provided with the same accuracy and reliability as QC Subscriber List Information.

(d) QC will not propose, solicit or otherwise encourage any change in any Legal Requirement or any new or additional Legal Requirement, in any such case by any Governmental Entity, in the Publisher Region that would reasonably be expected to increase materially the cost of fulfilling the Publishing Obligation (an “Additional Legal Requirement”). If any applicable Governmental Entity proposes any Additional Legal Requirement in the Publisher Region, QC will, in good faith and using commercially reasonable efforts, object to and attempt to prevent the implementation of any such proposal and will involve and solicit advice from Publisher regarding how to respond to any such proposal. To the extent permitted by applicable law, QC will promptly update Publisher regarding any Additional Legal Requirement and will provide Publisher with prompt notice of any Governmental Entity’s determination that there is a problem with the manner in which Publisher is fulfilling the Publishing Obligation.

(e) QC will not (i) modify or amend its tariffs (except as required pursuant to laws, rules regulations or orders of Governmental Entities), or (ii) change in any material respect the nature or scope of the directory publishing obligations under interconnection agreements with CLECs LECs and Resellers, in either case in the Publisher Region that would reasonably be expected to increase materially the cost of fulfilling the Publishing Obligation.

(f) For purposes of clarification, the Parties acknowledge that (i) where Publisher is QC’s official publisher of a Secondary Directory or otherwise uses the marks, names or logos of QC or one of its Affiliates with respect to a Secondary Directory, Publisher will be subject to the terms of Exhibit C and (ii) except as described in clause (i), this Agreement does not restrict Publisher’s ability to publish, market, sell or distribute Secondary Directories.

3.2 Premium Listings.

(a) Publisher will, at no additional charge to QC or its Subscribers (except as provided below), subject to Section 3.13, Publish the types of Premium Listings listed on Exhibit B, which are the Premium Listings being offered by QC to QC Subscribers in the Service Areas as of the Effective Date. Publisher's obligation to provide such Premium Listings at no charge will be conditioned upon QC offering such Premium Listings to its Subscribers in a manner that is consistent with its past practices as in effect on the Effective Date.

(b) If (i) there is a material incremental increase in Publisher's costs to fulfill the Publishing Obligation directly resulting from an increase in the number of Persons for whom Publisher is obligated to provide Premium Listings at no charge pursuant to clause (a) above, and (ii) such increase is in excess of the growth of basic listings in the applicable Primary Directory (i.e., is unrelated to population growth in the relevant geographic area) ("Excess Premium Listings"), then QC will reimburse Publisher for its direct costs of Publishing the Excess Premium Listings plus ten percent (10%).

(c) Within sixty (60) days after each anniversary of the Effective Date, Publisher may provide QC with a written statement seeking reimbursement with respect to Excess Premium Listings (a "Premium Listings Reimbursement Statement"). Each Premium Listings Reimbursement Statement will specify in reasonable detail the Excess Premium Listings in the prior twelve (12) month period and Publisher's direct costs relating thereto (including itemization). Within sixty (60) days of QC's receipt of an Excess Premium Listings Reimbursement Statement, QC may either (i) pay the reimbursement amount identified therein, or (ii) provide Publisher with written notice stating its dispute with Publisher's assertion that Excess Premium Listings exist and/or Publisher's statement of its direct costs with respect thereto and setting forth in reasonable detail the basis therefore (a "Premium Listings Dispute Notice"). During such sixty (60) day period, Publisher will provide QC with any additional information it reasonably requests to assess such Premium Listings Reimbursement Statement, including access to Publisher's auditors and their work papers.

(d) The Parties will attempt in good faith to resolve any such dispute set forth in a Premium Listings Dispute Notice by referring the dispute to a senior executive officer of each of QC and Publisher for ten (10) business days of the submission of the dispute to them. If such officers cannot resolve such dispute within such period, then the Parties will submit the dispute to arbitration pursuant to Section 9.7.

(e) All other types of Premium Listings offered to QC Subscribers will be Published by Publisher in accordance with then prevailing policies and pricing, as both may be reasonably established by Publisher from time-to-time.

3.3 Foreign Language Directories. Publisher will include QC Subscriber List Information and permit QC Subscribers to advertise in any foreign language directories that Publisher may publish within the Service Areas in accordance with then prevailing policies and pricing, as both may be reasonably established by Publisher from time-to-time.

3.4 Phone Service Pages. Publisher will include phone service pages in the Primary Directories that provide information needed for users to establish, maintain and use local phone service. The content within such phone service pages will not be promotional or advertising. Publisher will have, subject to the terms of this Agreement (including Section 3.1(b)), the right to exercise final editorial control, which will be exercised in a commercially reasonable manner, over the Published version of the content, design, format and location of the phone service pages. The phone service pages in any White Pages will consist of two types:

(a) Generic Phone Service Pages. At no charge to QC, subject to Section 3.13, Publisher will Publish: (1) any information required by any Legal Requirement, such as how to (a) request service, (b) contact repair service, (c) dial directory assistance, (d) reach an account representative, (e) request buried cable locate service, and (f) contact the special needs center for customers with disabilities; (2) information about QC's emergency numbers, consumer tips and local calling area in the phone service pages of the White Pages Published for the Service Areas; (3) non-company specific information, including long distance calling, state and international area codes, and a time zone map of the United States; and (4) an instructional notice directing all Subscribers to contact their local service provider to request any modifications to their existing listing, or to request a new listing. QC will prepare and provide Publisher with this information, with the exception of information about other CLECs or LECs, which must be provided directly to Publisher by the CLEC or LEC. Publisher and QC will cooperate to integrate the content into the appropriate format and design and to ensure compliance with applicable regulations.

(b) Premium Phone Service Pages. QC, and all other CLECs and LECs included within the Scoped Area of a given directory, may elect to purchase premium phone service pages for the purpose of providing specific product and service information that is factual, instructional and/or directional in nature in accordance with the then prevailing policies and pricing, as both may be reasonably established by Publisher from time to time; provided, however, that the prices charged by Publisher to QC for such premium phone service pages will be equal to or less than the lowest prices for comparable premium phone service pages then being charged by Publisher to any Person with respect to the applicable White Pages.

(c) Ordering of Phone Service Pages. The generic phone service pages will appear before the premium phone service pages in each White Pages. Each of the generic phone service pages and the premium phone service pages will be arranged in alphabetical order, except that any LEC having an official publishing agreement with Publisher and sixty percent (60%) or more of the total number of Primary Listings for Subscribers in the relevant White Pages will automatically be placed in first position in the generic phone service pages and the premium phone service pages and the remainder of the LECs will appear in alphabetical order thereafter.

3.5 Editorial Discretion. Subject to Exhibit C and any Legal Requirements, Publisher will have the sole and exclusive right, acting in a commercially reasonable manner, to determine the scope, design, format, content, organization, style, size, and appearance of the Primary Directories, and all other aspects of Publishing the Primary Directories.

3.6 Policies. Subject to Section 3.1(b), Publisher may establish, discontinue, and modify its policies from time to time with regard to any and all aspects of Publishing; provided, however, that Publisher will give QC thirty (30) days prior written notification of any changes in Publisher's policies or products that are reasonably likely to impact materially QC's obligations under this Agreement (other than changes arising from Additional Legal Requirements); and provided further that Publisher may not alter the terms of this Agreement in any material manner by modification of its policies. Publisher's policies will be commercially reasonable. Publisher may not make any commitments on behalf of QC other than those as contemplated by the terms of this Agreement without the prior consent of QC or take any action that would materially impair or affect QC's ability to discharge its Publishing Obligation. If a change in policy by Publisher results in a material increase in QC's costs in meeting its obligations under this Agreement, the Parties agree to negotiate in good faith to establish an appropriate amount to compensate QC for such increased costs; provided, however, that no such policy change will become effective until the Parties have agreed in writing as to the amount of such compensation.

3.7 Length of Issue. Upon sixty (60) days prior written notice to QC (and subject to Section 3.1(b)), Publisher may alter the life of a Primary Directory. If any such voluntary change in a directory issue date requires or is subject to approval by a Governmental Entity, Publisher will bear any and all costs and expenses, including attorney fees, related to obtaining such approval, and QC will have no liability for any such costs and expenses. Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither Publisher (on the one hand) nor QC or Dex (on the other hand) will alter the life or publishing schedule of any Primary Directory during the period that Publisher is providing production services to Dex pursuant to the Professional Services Agreement, except as provided pursuant to Section 10.2 of the Professional Services Agreement.

3.8 Delivery and Distribution.

(a) Initial Delivery. Publisher will timely deliver in accordance with the related Subscriber Delivery Information (i) at least one (1) White Pages and at least one (1) Yellow Pages or (ii) at least one (1) combined White Pages and Yellow Pages to all Subscribers within the Scoped Area covered by the related Primary Directory(s) at no charge to QC or its Subscribers. Subject to Section 3.1(b), Publisher may select the type or medium of delivery of such Primary Directories.

(b) Replacements and New Customers. Subject to available inventory (which Publisher will maintain at reasonable levels consistent with Dex's past practices), subsequent to the initial distribution of Primary Directories, Publisher will timely deliver: (i) replacement Primary Directories to Subscribers within the Scoped Area of such Primary Directory upon any reasonable request from a Subscriber; and (ii) Primary Directories to New Customers within the Scoped Area for such Primary Directory, provided QC delivers timely New Customer information for the Service Areas in the Publisher Region (including those Service Areas discussed in Section 3.11) to Publisher in a mutually agreed to format. Publisher will make the foregoing deliveries at no charge to QC or its Subscribers.

(c) Distribution Coverage and Policies. Publisher will provide to QC, at no charge: (i) one copy of Publisher's distribution policies for the Service Areas describing which Primary Directories Subscribers will receive and other matters relevant to the distribution of Primary Directories in the Service Areas in the Publisher Region (including those Service Areas discussed in Section 3.11); and (ii) one copy of the Primary Directory coverage information, including those geographic areas included in and served by the Primary Directories and government pages, for each of the Service Areas in the Publisher Region (including those Service Areas discussed in Section 3.11). QC may make and retain copies of the information and documents provided pursuant to (i) and (ii) above as necessary to perform its obligations hereunder.

(d) Free Calling Area. In the event a QC local or extended calling area extends beyond the scope of a given White Pages, Publisher's delivery obligation will include only such additional White Pages as may be requested by a Subscriber in such free calling area and required to be provided to such Subscriber by regulatory order or rule.

(e) Secondary Directories. To the extent that Publisher is authorized as the official publisher of a Secondary Directory pursuant to Exhibit C within a Service Area, the obligations of Publisher with respect to delivery and distribution of Primary Directories set forth in this Section 3.8 will, upon request by Subscribers, apply to such Secondary Directories.

3.9 Rights in the Directory Products. The copyrights and other intellectual property rights in each Directory Product covered by this Agreement, and any and all illustrations, artwork, photographs, video, audio, text, maps and other advertising and information content created or procured for such Directory Product or for other Publisher products and services that are not submitted by or for QC or created at the request of QC, will be the sole and exclusive property of Publisher. Without limiting rights under applicable law, QC agrees not to copy the Directory Products or any other Publisher products and services, or any portion thereof, provided, however, that QC may make a reasonable number of copies of limited portions of the Primary Directories for use in performing its obligations under this Agreement and ensuring that its Subscribers are being listed in and receiving copies of the Primary Directories as provided herein.

3.10 Changes in Service Areas.

(a) QC may update Exhibit A on a regular basis by written notice to Publisher, and the rights and obligations of this Agreement will extend to any new, altered or changed local telephone service areas of QC within the Publisher Region, including any such service areas that extend outside the Publisher Region by reason of being located on or near the border of the Publisher Region. Publisher will have fifteen (15) months following written notice from QC regarding the addition of any service area to include QC's listings from such service area in a Primary Directory without being in violation of Section 3.1(a). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the rights and obligations of this Agreement will not, without an amendment to this Agreement, extend to any geographic area (i) that QC expands into as a CLEC or (ii) in which QC becomes the incumbent local exchange carrier (the "ILEC") as a result of an acquisition of the stock or assets of, or via a merger or other business combination transaction with, the Person previously providing local phone service in that geographic area as the ILEC.

(b) If QC intends to cease providing local telephone service in a geographic area within any Service Area, QC will advise Publisher as soon as practicable (and, in any event, no later than the date on which this information may be made public). Upon QC ceasing to provide local telephone service in a geographic area, Publisher will no longer have any obligation under this Agreement to Publish Primary Directories for that geographic area; provided, however, that Publisher will Publish any Primary Directories scheduled to be issued within one year of QC ceasing such service if required by any Legal Requirement.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 3.10(b), if QC exits Service Area(s) in the Publisher Region as a result of (i) a sale, assignment or other transfer of access lines, (ii) a merger or other business combination transaction with a Person in respect of access lines, or (iii) any other agreement with any third party pursuant to which such Person will provide local telephone service in lieu of QC in such Service Area(s), and, in any of the foregoing cases, such event does not constitute a Change of Control: (A) QC will require the acquiring Person to agree in writing (whether as part of the acquisition agreement with QC that provides for Publisher to be a third party beneficiary or in a separate agreement) to assume this Agreement and the Non-Competition Agreement to the extent of the relevant Service Area(s) (i.e., that all references to the Publisher Region will mean the relevant Service Area(s)) on substantially similar terms as are then in effect under the applicable Commercial Agreements (except that Publisher will be required to comply with such Person's reasonable branding requirements as in effect from time to time with respect to such Person's trademarks and other relevant intellectual property); and (B) Publisher will not be released from its obligations under this Agreement, including the obligation to Publish Primary Directories for the relevant Service Area(s).

3.11 Border Service Areas. As reflected in Exhibit A, certain Service Areas include communities located in the Rodney Region by reason of such communities being located on or near the border between the Rodney Region and the Publisher Region. Similarly, certain communities in the Publisher Region are not presently within a Service Area covered by this Agreement because they are located on or near the border between the Rodney Region and the Publisher Region part of a service area (in which Dex is QC's official directory publisher) that extends into the Publisher Region from within the Rodney Region (in either case, a "Border Community"). If the LLC II Purchase Agreement terminates such that the Second Closing does not occur, at any time following the third (3rd) anniversary of the Effective Date and no later than the fifth (5th) anniversary of the Effective Date, either Party may terminate this Agreement with respect to any Border Community located in the Rodney Region by providing the other Party with not less than fifteen (15) months written notice, in which case the Parties will cooperate in good faith to transition the Publishing Obligation to such Person or Persons that QC desires and to ensure that the Publishing Obligation is discharged until such transition is complete, with the Party that requested such termination bearing all costs and expenses related to such transitioning of the Publishing Obligation. If the LLC II Purchase Agreement terminates such that the Second Closing does not occur, at any time following the third (3rd) anniversary of the Effective Date and no later than the fifth (5th) anniversary of the Effective Date, either Party may extend this Agreement to any Border Community located in the Publisher Region by providing the other Party with not less than fifteen (15) months written notice, in which case the Parties will cooperate in good faith to transition the Publishing Obligation to Publisher, with the Party that requested such expansion bearing all costs and expenses related to such transitioning of the Publishing Obligation. If no such notice is given, the Border Communities will continue to be included in (or excluded from, as applicable) the relevant Services Areas for all purposes under this Agreement.

3.12 Open Access Termination.

(a) If federal law no longer requires QC to provide Subscriber List Information and Subscriber Delivery Information under nondiscriminatory and reasonable rates, terms and conditions to any Person requesting such information for the purpose of publishing directories (“Open Access Termination”), QC will continue to license such information to Publisher for the term of this Agreement on terms and conditions at least as favorable as those then being offered by QC to any Person materially doing business in the Publisher Region.

(b) If Open Access Termination occurs, QC will charge Publisher for Subscriber List Information and Subscriber Delivery Information as follows:

(i) If Open Access termination occurs prior to the end of the Regulatory Reimbursement Period, until the end of such period QC will charge Publisher for Subscriber List Information and Subscriber Delivery Information the prices in effect under the List License Agreements at the time of Open Access Termination, provided that QC may, from time to time during the Regulatory Reimbursement Period, increase the prices by a percentage reflecting any percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index for all Urban Consumers (“CPI-U”) published by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, comparing the CPI-U for the month in which the prices were last set to the CPI-U for the month immediately prior to the month in which QC elects to increase the prices.

(ii) After the Regulatory Reimbursement Period, regardless of whether Open Access Termination occurred before or after the end of the Regulatory Reimbursement Period, QC will charge Publisher for Subscriber List Information and Subscriber Delivery Information under the List License Agreements at prices equal to or less than the lowest price then being charged by QC for such information to any Person doing business in the Publisher Region; provided, however, that if QC is not licensing Subscriber List Information and Subscriber Delivery Information to at least two (2) other bona fide purchasers of such information (other than Affiliates of QC) in the Publisher Region, the prices that QC charges Publisher for such information will be equal to the average price that other ILECs of comparable size charge for such information.

3.13 Regulatory Change.

(a) During the Regulatory Reimbursement Period, each Party will provide the other Party with prompt written notice of the announcement by a Governmental Entity of any Additional Legal Requirement that such Party believes is reasonably likely to result in a Material Regulatory Change (a “Regulatory Change Notice”). Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Party’s failure to provide the other Party with a Regulatory Change Notice in a timely manner will not limit a Party’s right to seek reimbursement from the other Party pursuant to this Section 3.13 with respect to such Material Regulatory Change unless and to the extent that such failure prejudices the other Party.

(b) Within sixty (60) days after each anniversary of the Effective Date during the Regulatory Reimbursement Period, Publisher may provide QC with a written statement seeking reimbursement with respect to one or more Material Regulatory Changes (a “Regulatory Change Reimbursement Statement”). Each Regulatory Change Reimbursement Statement will specify in reasonable detail (including itemization) (i) each Material Regulatory Change, (ii) the manner in which Publisher responded to such Material Regulatory Change, (iii) a calculation of the Regulatory Cost Increase, (iv) a calculation of the Net Regulatory Cost Increase, and (v) a calculation of the percentage increase of Publishers direct costs to fulfill the Publishing Obligation that such Net Regulatory Cost Increase represents.

(c) Publisher will exercise reasonably prudent business judgment with respect to the manner that it responds to any Material Regulatory Change and comply with such change as if Publisher was responsible for all compliance costs. If after exercising such reasonable efforts there is Net Regulatory Cost Increase, as finally determined pursuant to this Section 3.13, QC will promptly pay to Publisher the QC Reimbursement Share.

(d) Within sixty (60) days of QC’s receipt of a Regulatory Change Reimbursement Statement, QC may either (i) pay the QC Regulatory Reimbursement Share with respect to such Net Regulatory Cost Increase or (ii) provide Publisher with written notice stating its dispute with Publisher’s assertion that a Material Regulatory Change exists and/or Publishers estimate of the Net Regulatory Cost Increase and setting forth in reasonable detail the basis therefore (a “Regulatory Change Dispute Notice”). During such sixty (60) day period, Publisher will provide QC with any additional information it reasonably requests to assess such Regulatory Change Reimbursement Statement, including access to Publisher’s auditors and their work papers.

(e) The Parties will attempt in good faith to resolve any such dispute set forth in a Regulatory Change Dispute Notice by referring the dispute to a senior executive officer of each of QC and Publisher for ten (10) business days of the submission of the dispute to them. If such officers cannot resolve such dispute within such period, then the Parties will submit the dispute to binding resolution as follows: (i) if the dispute is with respect to whether a Material Regulatory Change has occurred, the dispute will be submitted to arbitration pursuant to Section 9.7 below; and (ii) if the dispute is with respect to the amount of the Net Regulatory Cost Increase, the dispute will be submitted to a mutually-acceptable qualified independent financial expert. If the Parties cannot agree on an expert within a five (5) business day period following notice from either Party of termination of discussions between the officers (as described above), each Party will select its own expert within a further five (5) business day period who will then together select a third qualified independent expert. The Parties will provide such information, including written submissions, as are reasonably requested by the expert(s). The Net Regulatory Cost Increase that is the average of the valuations of the three experts will be binding on the Parties. If the Parties agree on a single expert, they will equally share such expert’s fees and costs. If the Parties cannot agree on a single expert, each Party will pay the fees and costs of the expert it selects and equally share the fees and costs of the expert that the Parties’ experts select. The experts selected pursuant to this clause (iii) will be independent of both Parties and their respective Affiliates and will be qualified with respect to the LEC industry and valuation techniques.

3.14 Publishing Order. If any Governmental Entity having jurisdiction over QC requires QC to Publish a White Pages (and does not allow QC to delegate such requirement to Publisher), or if such an order declares this Agreement null and void with respect to a White Pages (“Publishing Order”), QC will Publish the affected White Pages; provided, however, that, any White Pages that QC Publishes to fulfill the Publishing Obligation will contain only the information required to be in such White Pages (e.g., Primary Listings) and will not include any paid advertising content.

ARTICLE 4 RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF QC

4.1 Delivery of Subscriber List Information and Subscriber Delivery Information.

(a) Pursuant to the List License Agreements and in accordance with Exhibit D, QC will, consistent with past practices, diligence and care, deliver or cause to be delivered Subscriber List Information for Subscribers in the Service Areas, including any and all additions to, deletions from, and changes in such information from time to time so as to enable Publisher to Publish Primary Directories in accordance with Publisher’s publication schedule.

(b) Pursuant to the List License Agreements and in accordance with Exhibit D, QC will, consistent with past practices, diligence and care, deliver or cause to be delivered Subscriber Delivery Information for Subscribers in the Service Areas, including any and all additions to, deletions from, and changes in such information from time to time so as to enable Publisher to deliver Primary Directories to all such Subscribers.

(c) QC and Publisher will use electronic means for the provision of Subscriber List Information and Subscriber Delivery Information and will cooperate in good faith to achieve an efficient and effective provisioning delivery process, including having QC provide such information in a format as Publisher may reasonably request from time to time if Publisher pays all of QC’s one-time and on-going costs to provide the information in such format on a fully burdened cost basis plus ten percent (10%).

(d) If QC elects to use a third party to deliver Subscriber List Information and/or Subscriber Delivery Information to Publisher, then QC will prepare and promptly provide to Publisher and such third party duplicate written authorizations to facilitate such delivery and QC will clearly designate and distinguish its information from all other information delivered by, or through such third party, provided that QC will in any event remain liable for its obligations hereunder. QC will also promptly resolve any problems that may arise with respect to such third party deliveries.

(e) QC will use commercially reasonable efforts to provide mutually agreed upon indicators with all of QC’s Subscriber List Information and QC’s Subscriber Delivery Information in a form that will ensure that such Subscribers’ listings, published advertising, and/or advertisement billings will not be adversely impacted if a Subscriber changes its LEC.

(f) The Parties acknowledge that Publisher requires the Subscriber List Information provided under the List License Agreements to perform its obligations, and enjoy its rights and privileges, under this Agreement. Consequently, the Parties agree that if either of the List License Agreements is terminated due to Publisher’s breach thereof, QC will reinstate such List License Agreement or enter into a new agreement on terms and conditions as set forth in Section 3.12; provided that Publisher has identified the cause of such breach, fully remedied such breach and established reasonable procedures to prevent the recurrence of such breach. If Publisher assigns its rights under this Agreement in accordance with the provisions herein, QC will enter into a list license agreement with such successor entity on the terms and conditions herein.

4.2 Official Directory Publisher Designation. For the term of this Agreement, (i) QC designates Publisher as its exclusive official publisher of all Directory Products consisting principally of listings and classified advertisements for Subscribers in the Publisher Region and directed primarily at end users in the Publisher Region for the Service Areas covered by this Agreement; and (ii) QC grants Publisher the branding rights and Publisher agrees to the obligations and other restrictions set forth in Exhibit C. Either Party may elect, but will not be obligated, to disclose Publisher's official directory publisher status in their public announcements, promotional and advertising materials and sales contacts; provided, however, that the general nature of such disclosure will first be reviewed and approved in writing by the other Party, which approval will not be unreasonably withheld. QC further agrees that any referrals it makes in response to inquiries concerning Yellow Pages advertising from Regional Advertisers with respect to the Service Areas will be made solely to Publisher and that QC may refer any inquiries concerning Yellow Pages advertising from National Advertisers to Publisher concurrently with any referral to any other directory publishing entity.

ARTICLE 5 CLAIMS, LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION

5.1 Listing Claims. Subject to Publisher's indemnification obligations as set forth in Section 5.4(a), Claims regarding the listing of QC's Subscribers in Publisher's Directory Products will be referred to QC. QC will use commercially reasonable efforts to promptly investigate, defend against, and resolve the same.

5.2 Advertising Claims. Subject to QC's indemnification obligations as set forth in Section 5.4(b), Claims regarding advertising in Publisher's Directory Products will be referred to Publisher. Publisher will use commercially reasonable efforts to promptly investigate, defend against and resolve the same.

5.3 Cooperation. The Parties will cooperate in good faith in their investigation, defense, settlement and resolution of Claims arising out of any error or omission in or of any Subscriber listing and/or advertising in the Directory Products. In the event of a demand or complaint asserting that Publisher and QC are jointly liable, Publisher will assume the responsibility for and advance the cost of defending that portion of the Claim relating to any advertising; and QC will assume the responsibility for and advance the cost of defending that portion of the Claim relating to any of QC Subscribers' listings; and the Parties will cooperate, share information and coordinate their efforts in an attempt to eliminate or minimize any liability and their respective attorneys' fees and costs. This assumption of the defense of a Claim, or portion thereof, does not imply or create an assumption of liability for any final settlement or judgment for such Claim, or portion thereof.

5.4 Indemnification.

(a) Subject to Section 6.5, Buyer and Publisher will jointly and severally indemnify and hold harmless QC and its directors, officers, employees, Affiliates, agents and assigns from and against any and all Losses directly or indirectly based upon, arising from or resulting from (i) Publisher's failure to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement (including Sections 3.1(a) and 3.1(b)); (ii) any third party claims arising from any error or omission in or of a QC Subscriber's listing or advertising in a Directory Product caused by Publisher, its employees, agents, representatives or subcontractors and (iii) any claims that the Directory Products or the grants that Publisher makes in Exhibit C violate or infringe the intellectual property rights of any third party or require the consent of any third party.

(b) Subject to Section 6.4, QC will indemnify and hold harmless Publisher and its directors, officers, employees, Affiliates, agents and assigns from and against any and all Losses directly or indirectly based upon, arising from or resulting from (i) its failure to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement; (ii) any third party claims arising from any error or omission in or of a QC Subscriber's listing or advertising in a Directory Product caused by QC, its employees, agents, representatives or subcontractors (in which case QC will not seek indemnification from Publisher under the applicable List License Agreement) and (iii) any claims that the grants that QC or QCII makes in Exhibit C violate or infringe the intellectual property rights of any third party or require the consent of any third party.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 5.4(a), if Publisher's failure to perform, error, omission, violation or infringement is limited in geographic scope to either the Dexter Region or the Rodney Region, the foregoing indemnity will not be deemed to be made jointly and severally by Buyer and Dexter Publisher and Rodney Publisher in their joint capacity as Publisher, but instead will be deemed made jointly and severally by Buyer and Dexter Publisher with respect to the Dexter Region, and jointly and severally by Buyer and Rodney Publisher with respect to the Rodney Region.

5.5 Notice and Procedures. A Party seeking indemnification (the "Indemnified Party") will give prompt written notice in reasonable detail (the "Notice of Claim") to the indemnifying Party (the "Indemnifying Party") stating the basis of any Claim for which indemnification is being sought hereunder within thirty (30) days after its knowledge thereof; provided that the Indemnified Party's failure to provide any such notice to the Indemnifying Party will not relieve the Indemnifying Party of or from any of its obligations hereunder unless and to the extent that the Indemnifying Party suffers prejudice as a result of such failure. If the facts giving rise to such indemnification involve an actual or threatened Claim by or against a third party:

(a) the Parties hereto will cooperate in the prosecution or defense of such Claim in accordance with Section 5.3 above and will furnish such records, information and testimony and attend to such proceedings as may be reasonably requested in connection therewith; and

(b) the Indemnified Party will make no settlement of any Claim that would give rise to liability on the part of the Indemnifying Party without the latter's prior written consent that will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, and the Indemnifying Party will not be liable for the amount of any settlement affected without its prior written consent.

5.6 Time Limitation. Any Notice of Claim as provided hereunder must be made within eighteen (18) months after the publication of the Directory Product giving rise to such Claim.

ARTICLE 6 TERMINATION

6.1 Termination by Publisher.

(a) If QC commits a Material Default, Publisher may provide written notice to QC specifying such Material Default in reasonable detail (a “Default Notice”). Upon receipt of a Default Notice, QC may elect to (i) cure such Material Default (unless such Material Default is not susceptible to cure) and (ii) agree to indemnify Publisher pursuant to Section 5.4(b). If within ninety (90) days of Publisher providing QC with a Default Notice QC has not cured such Material Default (or, if not reasonably curable within such ninety (90) day period, provided Publisher with reasonable assurances that it has diligently commenced all actions necessary to cure such Material Default as soon as reasonably practicable) and given Publisher written notice of its agreement to indemnify Publisher for such Material Default Publisher may terminate this Agreement immediately. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if QC provides Publisher with written notice disputing the existence of a Material Default within ninety (90) days of the delivery of the Default Notice, the Parties will attempt in good faith to resolve such dispute and determine the appropriate remedial action, as follows (such action, “Breach Resolution Process”): (A) the dispute will first be referred to a senior executive officer of each of QC and Publisher for ten (10) business days of the submission of the dispute to them; and (B) if such officers cannot resolve any such dispute within ten (10) business days, then the Parties will submit the dispute to binding arbitration pursuant to Section 9.7 below. If it is then determined via binding arbitration that such Material Default occurred and remains uncured following such binding arbitration, Publisher may terminate this Agreement immediately thereafter.

(b) If Publisher believes that a Terminable Regulatory Change has occurred after the expiration of the Regulatory Reimbursement Period, it may, within one (1) year following the occurrence of such Terminable Regulatory Change, provide QC with written notice of its intent to terminate this Agreement, which written notice will be effective in ninety (90) days unless QC provides written notice to Publisher within such ninety (90) day period of its dispute that a Terminable Regulatory Change has occurred. If QC disputes the occurrence of a Terminable Regulatory Change, the Parties will attempt in good faith to resolve such dispute and determine the appropriate remedial action, as follows: (A) the dispute will first be referred to a senior executive officer of each of QC and Publisher for ten (10) business days of the submission of the dispute to them; and (B) if such officers cannot resolve any such dispute within ten (10) business days, then the Parties will submit the dispute to binding arbitration pursuant to Section 9.7 below. If it is then determined via binding arbitration that a Terminable Regulatory Change has been implemented after the expiration of the Regulatory Reimbursement Period, Publisher may terminate this Agreement immediately thereafter.

(c) If QC (i) breaches Section 3.10(c) of this Agreement or (ii) commits a Material Default with respect to any Service Area as opposed to the Agreement taken as a whole (each of clauses (i) and (ii) a “Service Area Default”), Publisher may provide written notice to QC specifying such Service Area Default in reasonable detail (a “Service Area Default Notice”). Upon receipt of a Service Area Default Notice, QC may elect to (A) cure the Service Area Default (unless such Service Area Default is not susceptible to cure) and (B) agree to indemnify Publisher pursuant to Section 5.4(b). If within ninety (90) days of Publisher providing QC with a Service Area Default Notice QC has not cured such Service Area Default (or, if not reasonably curable within such ninety (90) day period, provided Publisher with reasonable assurances that it has diligently commenced all actions necessary to cure such Service Area Default as soon as reasonably practicable) and given Publisher written notice of its agreement to indemnify Publisher for such Service Area Default, Publisher may terminate this Agreement with respect to Service Area(s) that are the subject of such Service Area Default. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if QC provides Publisher with written notice disputing the existence of a Service Area Default within ninety (90) days of the delivery of a Service Area Default Notice, the Parties will attempt in good faith to resolve such dispute and determine the appropriate remedial action pursuant to a Breach Resolution Process. If it is then determined via binding arbitration that a Service Area Default occurred and remains uncured following such binding arbitration, Publisher may terminate immediately this Agreement with respect to the Service Area(s) that are the subject of such Service Area Default.

6.2 Termination by QC.

(a) If Publisher commits a Material Default, QC may provide Publisher with a Default Notice. Upon receipt of a Default Notice, Publisher may elect to (i) cure such Material Default (unless such Material Default is not susceptible to cure) and (ii) agree to indemnify QC pursuant to Section 5.4(a). If within ninety (90) days of QC providing Publisher with a Default Notice Publisher has not cured such Material Default (or, if not reasonably curable within such ninety (90) day period, provided QC with reasonable assurances that it has diligently commenced all actions necessary to cure such Material Default as soon as reasonably practicable) and given QC written notice of its agreement to indemnify QC for such Material Default, QC may terminate this Agreement (including Publisher’s official directory publisher status) immediately. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Publisher provides QC with written notice disputing the existence of a Material Default within ninety (90) days of the delivery of the Default Notice, the Parties will attempt in good faith to resolve such dispute and determine the appropriate remedial action pursuant to a Breach Resolution Process. If it is then determined via binding arbitration that a Material Default occurred and remains uncured following such binding arbitration, QC may terminate this Agreement (including Publisher’s official directory publisher status) immediately thereafter.

(b) If Publisher breaches this Agreement in a manner that results in a material and continuing failure to discharge the Publishing Obligation with respect to any Primary Directory (a “Primary Directory Default”), QC may provide written notice to Publisher specifying such Primary Directory Default in reasonable detail (a “Directory Default Notice”). Upon receipt of a Directory Default Notice, Publisher may elect to (i) cure the Primary Directory Default (unless such Primary Directory Default is not susceptible to cure) and (ii) agree to indemnify QC pursuant to Section 5.4(a). If within ninety (90) days of QC providing Publisher with a Directory Default Notice Publisher has not cured such Primary Directory Default (or, if not reasonably curable within such ninety (90) day period, provided QC with reasonable assurances that it has diligently commenced all actions necessary to cure such Primary Directory Default as soon as reasonably practicable) and given QC written notice of its agreement to indemnify QC for such Primary Directory Default, QC may terminate this Agreement (including Publisher's official directory publisher status) with respect to the Service Area covered by the affected Primary Directory immediately. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Publisher provides QC with written notice disputing the existence of a Primary Directory Default within ninety (90) days of the delivery of the Directory Default Notice, the Parties will attempt in good faith to resolve such dispute and determine the appropriate remedial action pursuant to a Breach Resolution Process. If it is then determined via binding arbitration that a Primary Directory Default occurred and remains uncured following such binding arbitration, QC may terminate this Agreement (including Publisher's official directory publisher status) immediately with respect to the Service Area covered by the affected Primary Directory.

(c) QC may terminate this Agreement (including Publisher's official directory publisher status) immediately if QC has terminated this Agreement pursuant to Section 6.2(b) above with respect to twenty percent (20%) of QC Subscribers in the Service Areas, such percentage determined by using a numerator of the total number of QC Subscribers in the Service Areas terminated by QC pursuant to Section 6.2(b) above and a denominator of the total number of QC Subscribers in the Service Areas that would have been subject to this Agreement had QC not elected to terminate any such Service Areas pursuant to Section 6.2(b) above.

(d) If Publisher or any of its subsidiaries (i) engages in the marketing, sale or distribution of any telecommunications, internet connectivity, wireless communications or other comparable or successor telephony or data products or services ("Telecommunication Services") in the Qwest Region, (ii) acts as a sales agent for any Person with respect to the marketing, sale or distribution of Telecommunications Services (other than QC or its Affiliates) in the Qwest Region, or (iii) enters into a joint venture, strategic alliance, product bundling, revenue sharing or similar arrangement with any Person (other than QC or its Affiliates) pursuant to which such Person's Telecommunications Services are offered, marketed, sold or priced or otherwise provided in connection with Publisher's Directory Products in the Qwest Region (each of clauses (i), (ii) and (iii), a "Restricted Activity Default"), QC may provide written notice to Publisher specifying such Restricted Activity Default in reasonable detail (an "Activity Default Notice"). For avoidance of doubt, the Parties acknowledge that it will not constitute a Restricted Activity Default if the owner or other Affiliate of Publisher is a provider of Telecommunications Services, so long as the activities set forth in clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) of the preceding sentence are not occurring with respect to Publisher's Directory Products. Upon receipt of an Activity Default Notice, Publisher may elect to (A) discontinue or terminate the activity, agreement or arrangement specified in such Activity Default Notice (the "Specified Restricted Activity") and (B) agree to indemnify QC pursuant to Section 5.4(a). If within ninety (90) days of QC providing Publisher with an Activity Default Notice Publisher has not discontinued or terminated the Specified Restricted Activity (or, if the Specified Restricted Activity cannot reasonably be terminated or discontinued within such ninety (90) day period, provided QC with reasonable assurances that it has diligently commenced all actions necessary to discontinue or terminate such Specified Restricted Activity as soon as reasonably practicable) and given QC written notice of its agreement to indemnify QC for such Restricted Activity Default, QC may terminate this Agreement (including Publisher's official directory publisher status) with respect to the Service Area in which the Specified Restricted Activity occurred. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Publisher provides QC with written notice disputing the existence of a Restricted Activity Default within ninety (90) days of the delivery of the Activity Default Notice, the Parties will attempt in good faith to resolve such dispute and determine the appropriate remedial action pursuant to a Breach Resolution Process. If it is then determined via binding arbitration that a Restricted Activity Default occurred and remains uncured following such binding arbitration, QC may terminate this Agreement (including Publisher's official directory publisher status) immediately with respect to the Service Area in which the Specified Restricted Activity occurred. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Section 6.2(d) will not apply to any Person to whom Publisher has assigned this Agreement (whether with respect to a particular Service Area or Service Areas or the entire Publisher Region) in compliance with subsection (ii) or (iv) of Section 9.6.

(e) For purposes of clarification, the Parties acknowledge that nothing in Section 6.2(d) is intended to restrict Publisher's ability to continue to offer (consistent with Dex's past practices) web hosting services to small business customers or its "Call Management Services" product or any similar product or service designed and implemented principally to measure the usage and effectiveness of advertisements in Publisher's Directory Products.

6.3 Transition upon Termination.

(a) If this Agreement terminates pursuant to Section 6.1(a), the Parties will cooperate in good faith to transition the Publishing Obligation to such Person or Persons that QC desires as soon as reasonably practicable and to ensure that the Publishing Obligation is discharged until such transition is complete, with QC bearing all direct costs and expenses related to such transitioning of the Publishing Obligation (e.g., data migration and third party consents) ("Transition Costs"); provided that in no event will such transition last more than fifteen (15) months from the date of termination.

(b) If Publisher terminates this Agreement with respect to any Service Area pursuant to Section 6.1(c), the Parties will cooperate in good faith to transition the Publishing Obligation with respect to such Service Area to such Person or Persons that QC desires as soon as reasonably practicable and to ensure that the Publishing Obligation is discharged until such transition is complete, with QC bearing all Transition Costs; provided that in no event will such transition last more than fifteen (15) months from the date of termination with respect to such Service Area.

(c) If this Agreement terminates pursuant to Section 6.1(b), Section 6.2(a) or Section 6.2(c), the Parties will cooperate in good faith to transition the Publishing Obligation to such Person or Persons that QC desires as soon as reasonably practicable and to ensure that the Publishing Obligation is discharged until such transition is complete, with Publisher bearing all Transition Costs; provided that in no event will such transition last more than fifteen (15) months from the date of termination.

(d) If QC terminates this Agreement with respect to any Service Area pursuant to Section 6.2(b) or Section 6.2(d), the Parties will cooperate in good faith to transition the Publishing Obligation with respect to such Service Area to such Person or Persons that QC desires as soon as reasonably practicable and to ensure that the Publishing Obligation is discharged until such transition is complete, with Publisher bearing all Transition Costs; provided that in no event will such transition last more than fifteen (15) months from the date of termination with respect to such Service Area.

(e) Nothing contained in this Section 6.3 will be deemed a waiver or release of any rights or remedies that a Party may have on account of any termination of this Agreement (whether in its entirety or only with respect to a particular Service Area or Service Areas), including its rights to Publisher Liquidated Damages, Service Area Default Liquidated Damages or QC Liquidated Damages.

6.4 Publisher's Liquidated Damages.

(a) Publisher's Liquidated Damages. The Parties acknowledge and agree that:

(i) Publisher would not have entered into the LLC Purchase Agreement and the LLC II Purchase Agreement, if QC had not simultaneously agreed to be bound by this Agreement and the Non-Competition Agreement and that QC's performance of this Agreement and the Non-Competition Agreement form a significant part of the benefit that Publisher intends to realize in entering into the LLC Purchase Agreement and the LLC II Purchase Agreement;

(ii) the amount of damages (including direct, indirect and consequential) that Publisher would incur as upon a termination of this Agreement by Publisher pursuant to Section 6.1(a) (a "QC Default Termination") would be substantial and significant, and would likely include, among other things, significant lost profits and opportunity costs; and

(iii) because there are many variables that could affect the amount of such damages, quantifying the amount of such damages would be impossible at this time.

Therefore, in order to reasonably approximate the probable damages to Publisher stemming from a QC Default Termination and to provide certainty to the Parties with respect to such damages, each of the Parties agrees that, in the event of (i) a QC Default Termination or (ii) any formal repudiation or rejection of this Agreement by QC (except, in any of the foregoing cases, to the extent that this Agreement has been terminated or is in the process of being terminated pursuant to Section 6.2), Publisher will be entitled to receive a payment from QC (the "Publisher Liquidated Damages") equal to the following amount: (A) prior to the Second Closing or following the termination of the LLC II Purchase Agreement, thirty percent (30%) of the Closing Purchase Price set forth in the LLC Purchase Agreement (as adjusted by any post-closing adjustment pursuant to the LLC Purchase Agreement) less the amounts, if any, paid to Publisher by or on behalf of QC pursuant to Section 6.4(b); or (B) following the Second Closing, thirty percent (30%) of the sum of the Closing Purchase Price set forth in each of the LLC Purchase Agreement and the LLC II Purchase Agreement (as adjusted by any post-closing adjustment pursuant to the LLC Purchase Agreement and LLC II Purchase Agreement) less the aggregate amount, if any, paid to Publisher by or on behalf of QC pursuant to Section 6.4(b).

(b) Service Area Default Liquidated Damages. In order to reasonably approximate the probable damages to Publisher stemming from a termination of this Agreement by Publisher with respect to one or more Service Areas pursuant to Section 6.1(c) (a “Service Area Default Termination”), each of the Parties agree that, in the event of a Service Area Default Termination with respect to the Service Area(s) that are the subject of a Service Area Default, Publisher will be entitled to receive a payment from QC (the “Service Area Default Liquidated Damages”) equal to the following amount: the product of (i) a fraction, the numerator of which is the population in the Service Area(s) reflected in the most recently completed United States Census, and the denominator of which is the population in the Publisher Region as so reflected, times (ii) thirty percent (30%) of (A) the Closing Purchase Price set forth in the LLC Purchase Agreement (as adjusted by any post-closing adjustment pursuant thereto) if the Service Area Default occurs prior to the Second Closing or following the termination of the LLC II Purchase Agreement or (B) the sum of the Closing Purchase Price set forth in each of the LLC Purchase Agreement and the LLC II Purchase Agreement (each as adjusted by any post-closing adjustment pursuant thereto) if the Service Area Default occurs following the Second Closing.

(c) Additional Acknowledgements. Each Party acknowledges and agrees that:

(i) as set forth in subsections (a) and (b) above, the Publisher Liquidated Damages and the Service Area Default Liquidated Damages are intended to be a reasonable measure of the anticipated probable harm resulting from, respectively, a QC Default Termination and a Service Area Default Termination;

(ii) the Parties acknowledge that the damages actually incurred by Publisher (including actual, direct, indirect, consequential, special and other damages) might exceed or be less than the amount of the Publisher Liquidated Damages or the Service Area Default Liquidated Damages, as applicable;

(iii) neither the Publisher Liquidated Damages nor the Service Area Default Liquidated Damages is a penalty of any kind; and

(iv) the Publisher Liquidated Damages and the Service Area Default Liquidated Damages were negotiated at arms-length between parties of equal bargaining power, both of which were represented by competent counsel.

(d) Waiver. QC hereby waives, to the extent permitted by applicable law, any defense as to the validity of, respectively, the Publisher Liquidated Damages and the Service Area Default Liquidated Damages in this Agreement and the Non-Competition Agreement on the grounds that such Publisher Liquidated Damages or Service Area Default Liquidated Damages are void as penalties.

(e) In Lieu of Actual Damages. Each Party agrees that the Publisher Liquidated Damages and the Service Area Default Liquidated Damages will be lieu of actual, direct, indirect, consequential, special or other damages for, respectively, a QC Default Termination and a Service Area Default Termination and the collection of such Publisher Liquidated Damages or Service Area Default Liquidated Damages, as applicable, is the sole remedy of Publisher in the event of a QC Default Termination or Service Area Default Termination.

(f) In Lieu of Liquidated Damages Under Non-Competition Agreement. The Parties agree that the Publisher Liquidated Damages and Service Area Default Liquidated Damages provided in this Agreement may only be exercised by Publisher in lieu of, and not in addition to, the liquidated damages provisions contained in the Non-Competition Agreement and that such remedies are exclusive of and not cumulative with one another. Under no circumstances will Publisher be entitled to receive Publisher Liquidated Damages or Service Area Default Liquidated Damages, as applicable, under both this Agreement and the Non-Competition Agreement nor will Publisher be entitled to receive Publisher Liquidated Damages on more than one occasion or Service Area Default Liquidated Damages more than one time with respect to the same Service Area.

(g) Enforceability. Notwithstanding (d) above, if any portion of this Section 6.4 is held to be unenforceable for any reason, it will be adjusted rather than voided, if possible, to achieve the intent of the Parties. All other provisions of this Section 6.4 will be deemed valid and enforceable to the extent possible. Moreover, if this Section 6.4 is deemed unenforceable, QC acknowledges that Publisher has in no way waived a right or claim to receive damages resulting from a QC Default Termination or a Service Area Default Termination, as applicable; provided, however, that Publisher will not be entitled to receive damages in the aggregate in excess of the Publisher Liquidated Damages or Service Area Default Liquidated Damages, as applicable, to which Publisher would have been entitled had the provisions of this Section 6.4 been fully enforced.

6.5 QC's Liquidated Damages.

(a) QC's Liquidated Damages. The Parties acknowledge and agree that:

(i) QC would not have entered into the LLC Purchase Agreement and the LLC II Purchase Agreement, if Publisher had not simultaneously agreed to be bound by this Agreement and the Non-Competition Agreement and that Publisher's performance of this Agreement and the Non-Competition Agreement form a significant part of the benefit that QC intends to realize in entering into the LLC Purchase Agreement and the LLC II Purchase Agreement;

(ii) the amount of damages (including direct, indirect and consequential) that QC would incur upon a termination of this Agreement by QC pursuant to Section 6.2(b) with respect to one or more Service Areas (a "Publisher Default Termination") would be substantial and significant, and would include, among other things, the costs of transitioning the Publishing Obligation to another Person; and

(iii) because there are many variables that could affect the amount of such damages, quantifying the amount of such damages would be impossible at this time.

Therefore, in order to reasonably approximate the probable damages to QC stemming from a Publisher Default Termination and to provide certainty to the Parties with respect to such damages, each of the Parties agrees that, subject to Section 5.4(c), in the event of (i) a Publisher Default Termination or (ii) any formal repudiation or rejection of this Agreement by Publisher (except, in any of the foregoing cases, to the extent that this Agreement has been terminated or is in the process of being terminated pursuant to Section 6.1), QC will be entitled to receive a payment from Publisher (the “QC Liquidated Damages”) equal to the following amount: one hundred twenty-five percent (125%) of the net present value of the anticipated costs to QC, through the remaining term of this Agreement, to transition from Publisher and perform, or cause another Person to perform, the Publishing Obligation.

(b) Additional Acknowledgements. Each Party acknowledges and agrees that:

(i) as set forth in subsections (a) and (b) above, the QC Liquidated Damages are intended to be a reasonable measure of the anticipated probable harm resulting from a Publisher Default Termination;

(ii) the Parties acknowledge that the damages actually incurred by QC (including actual, direct, indirect, consequential, special and other damages) might exceed or be less than the amount of the QC Liquidated Damages;

(iii) the QC Liquidated Damages is not a penalty of any kind; and

(iv) the QC Liquidated Damages were negotiated at arms-length between parties of equal bargaining power, both of which were represented by competent counsel.

(c) Waiver. Publisher hereby waives, to the extent permitted by applicable law, any defense as to the validity of the QC Liquidated Damages on the grounds that the QC Liquidated Damages are void as penalties.

(d) In Lieu of Actual Damages. Each Party agrees that the QC Liquidated Damages will be lieu of actual, direct, indirect, consequential, special or other damages for, respectively, a Publisher Default Termination and the collection of such QC Liquidated Damages is the sole remedy of Publisher in the event of a Publisher Default Termination except as expressly provided in this Agreement (e.g., pursuant to Section 6.1(c)).

(e) Enforceability. Notwithstanding (d) above, if any portion of this Section 6.5 is held to be unenforceable for any reason, it will be adjusted rather than voided, if possible, to achieve the intent of the Parties. All other provisions of this Section 6.5 will be deemed valid and enforceable to the extent possible. Moreover, if this Section 6.5 is deemed unenforceable, Publisher acknowledges that QC has in no way waived a right or claim to receive damages resulting from a Publisher Default Termination; provided, however, that QC will not be entitled to receive damages in the aggregate in excess of the QC Liquidated Damages to which QC would have been entitled had the provisions of this Section 6.5 been fully enforced.

6.6 Termination Without Prejudice. No Party will be subject to damages or have any other liability to another solely as a result of such Party's terminating this Agreement in accordance with its terms, and, except as provided in Section 6.4 or Section 6.5, any such termination of this Agreement by a Party will be without prejudice to any other right or remedy of such Party under this Agreement or applicable law.

ARTICLE 7 OTHER DEFAULTS; LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

7.1 Other Defaults. If a Party commits an Other Default, the non-defaulting Party may provide written notice to the defaulting Party specifying such Other Default in reasonable detail (an "Other Default Notice"). Upon receipt of an Other Default Notice, the defaulting Party may elect to (i) cure such Other Default (unless such Other Default is not susceptible to cure) and (ii) agree to indemnify the non-defaulting Party pursuant to Section 5.4. If within thirty (30) days of the defaulting Party providing the non-defaulting Party with an Other Default Notice the non-defaulting Party has not cured such Other Default (or, if not reasonably curable within such thirty (30) day period, provided the non-defaulting Party with reasonable assurances that it has diligently commenced all actions necessary to cure such Other Default as soon as reasonably practicable) and given the non-defaulting party written notice of its agreement to indemnify the non-defaulting Party for Such Other Default, the non-defaulting Party may pursue any remedy available to in pursuant to Section 9.7. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the defaulting Party provides the non-defaulting Party with written notice disputing the existence of an Other Default within thirty (30) days of the delivery of the Other Default Notice, the Parties will attempt in good faith to resolve such dispute and determine the appropriate remedial action pursuant to a Breach Resolution Process.

7.2 Limitation of Liability. Subject to Section 6.4 and Section 6.5, neither Party, or its Affiliates, will be liable to the other Party, or its Affiliates, for any damages other than direct damages, except in the case of fraud or willful misconduct. Each Party agrees that it is not entitled to recover and agrees to waive any claim with respect to, and will not seek, consequential, punitive or any other special damages as to any matter under, relating to or arising out of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, except with respect to such claims and damages arising directly out of a Party's fraud or willful misconduct.

7.3 Determination of Other Default Through Arbitration. If in an arbitration proceeding commenced pursuant to Section 9.7, it is determined that a purported Material Default, Service Area Default, Primary Directory Default or Restricted Activity Default is in actuality an Other Default, the non-defaulting Party will be entitled to seek adjudication of such Other Default pursuant to Section 9.7 without complying with the requirements of Section 7.1.

ARTICLE 8 EXCUSED PERFORMANCE

8.1 General Force Majeure. Neither Party will be in default under this Agreement or liable for any nonperformance that is caused by any occurrence or circumstance beyond such Party's reasonable control (including epidemic, riot, unavailability of resources due to national defense priorities, war, armed hostilities, strike, walkouts, civil disobedience, embargo, fire, flood, drought, storm, pestilence, lightning, explosion, power blackout, earthquake, volcanic eruption or any act, order or requirement of a regulatory body (but without limiting the Parties respective rights and obligations under Sections 3.1(d) and 3.13), court or legislature, civil or military authority, foreseeable or unforeseeable act of God, act of a public enemy, act of terrorism, act of sabotage, act or omission of carriers, or other natural catastrophe or civil disturbance) during the period and to the extent that such extraordinary condition delays, impairs or prevents such Party's performance.

8.2 Obligations with Respect to Regulatory Requirements. With respect to any act, order or requirement of a Governmental Entity that would reasonably be expected to delay, impair or prevent a Party's performance such that it would fall into the scope of Section 8.1, each Party agrees that: (i) it will not propose, solicit or otherwise encourage any such act, order or requirement; and (ii) if any applicable Governmental Entity proposes any such act, order or requirement, such Party will, in good faith and using commercially reasonable efforts (A) object to and attempt to prevent the implementation of any such proposal and (B) involve and solicit advice from the other Party regarding how to respond to any such proposal.

ARTICLE 9 MISCELLANEOUS

9.1 Confidentiality. Each of the Parties agrees that all non-public, confidential information received from the other party is deemed received pursuant to the Confidentiality Agreement, and each Party will, and will cause its representatives (as defined in the Confidentiality Agreement) to, comply with the provisions of the Confidentiality Agreement with respect to such information, and the provisions of the Confidentiality Agreement are hereby incorporated by reference with the same effect as if fully set forth herein. The obligations contained in this Section 9.1 will survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement for a period of one (1) year.

9.2 Further Assurances. Each Party will take such other actions as the other Party may reasonably request or as may be necessary or appropriate to consummate or implement the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or to evidence such events or matters.

9.3 No Agency; Right to Subcontract.

(a) Nothing in this Agreement or in any other document related to this transaction, and no action of or inaction by either of the Parties hereto will be deemed or construed to constitute an agency relationship between the Parties hereto. Each Party is acting independently of the other and neither Party has the authority to act on behalf of or bind the other.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, Publisher will be permitted, at any time and from time to time, to carry out or otherwise fulfill its Publishing Obligations hereunder through one or more agents, subcontractors or other representatives, each engaged with due care and required to be experienced, capable and of similar quality as Publisher, provided that in any event Publisher will remain liable for such obligations hereunder.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Publisher will not have the right to sublicense any marks or other intellectual property granted under this Agreement.

9.4 Governing Laws. This Agreement and the legal relations between the Parties will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York applicable to contracts made and performed in such State and without regard to conflicts of law doctrines unless certain matters are preempted by federal law.

9.5 Amendments; Waivers. Except as expressly provided herein, this Agreement and any attached Exhibit may be amended only by agreement in writing of the Parties. No waiver of any provision nor consent to any exception to the terms of this Agreement or any agreement contemplated hereby will be effective unless in writing and signed by both Parties and then only to the specific purpose, extent and instance so provided. No failure on the part of either Party to exercise or delay in exercising any right hereunder will be deemed a waiver thereof, nor will any single or partial exercise preclude any further or other exercise of such or any other right.

9.6 No Assignment. Neither this Agreement nor any rights or obligations hereunder are assignable by one Party without the express prior written consent of the other Party; provided, however, that: (i) either Party may assign this Agreement upon written notice to the other Party to any of its Affiliates without the consent of the other Party if the assigning Party requires such Affiliate to agree in writing to assume this Agreement and the Non-Competition Agreement on substantially similar terms as are then in effect under the applicable Commercial Agreements and the assigning Party remains liable for its obligations hereunder; (ii) a Change of Control of either Party hereto will not be deemed to be an assignment of this Agreement, provided that if the relevant Party is no longer directly bound as a party to this Agreement (e.g., because the Change of Control is a sale or transfer of assets or is the result of a transaction pursuant to which the successor, surviving or acquiring entity does not automatically succeed to the obligations of such Party by operation of law), the successor, surviving or acquiring entity is required to agree in writing (whether as part of the acquisition agreement that provides for the other Party to be a third party beneficiary or in a separate agreement) to assume this Agreement, except as set forth in the last sentence of Section 6.2(d), and the Non-Competition Agreement on substantially similar terms as are then in effect under the applicable Commercial Agreements; (iii) Publisher may assign this Agreement and the rights and obligations under it to its lenders for collateral security purposes, so long as Publisher remains liable for its obligations hereunder; and (iv) Publisher may assign this Agreement as to the Primary Directories with respect to a particular Service Area(s) to any Person (other than an Affiliate of Publisher) upon written notice to QC so long as Publisher will require the acquiring Person to agree in writing (whether as part of the acquisition agreement with Publisher that provides for QC to be a third party beneficiary or in a separate agreement) to assume this Agreement, except as set forth in the last sentence of Section 6.2(d), and the Non-Competition Agreement to the extent of the relevant Service Area(s) (i.e., that all references to the Publisher Region will mean the relevant Service Area(s)) on substantially similar terms as are then in effect under the applicable Commercial Agreements, with respect to such Service Area(s), and Publisher will have no rights or obligations under this Agreement with respect to such Service Area(s).

9.7 Alternative Dispute Resolution. Any dispute, controversy or claim arising under or related to this Agreement, regardless of the legal theory upon which it is based, will be settled by final, binding arbitration pursuant to the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §. 1 et seq., in accordance with the American Arbitration Association Commercial Arbitration Rules. Nothing herein will, however, prohibit a Party from seeking temporary or preliminary injunctive relief in a court of competent jurisdiction. In any arbitration, the number of arbitrators will be three, QC, on the one hand, and Publisher, on the other hand, each having the right to appoint one arbitrator, who will together appoint a third neutral arbitrator within thirty (30) days after the appointment of the last Party-designated arbitrator. All arbitration proceedings will take place in Denver, Colorado. The arbitrators will be entitled to award monetary and equitable relief, including specific performance and other injunctive relief; provided, however, that only damages allowed pursuant to this Agreement may be awarded (including Publisher Liquidated Damages, Service Area Default Liquidated Damages and QC Liquidated Damages but otherwise excluding consequential, punitive or other special damages pursuant to Section 7.3). Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Section 9.7, each Party will bear the expenses of its own counsel and will jointly bear the expenses of the arbitrators. The arbitrators will allocate the remaining costs of the arbitration proceeding. The Parties agree that the arbitrators will include, as an item of damages, the costs of arbitration, including reasonable legal fees and expenses, incurred by the prevailing party if the arbitrators determine that either (i) the non-prevailing party did not act in good faith when disputing its liability hereunder to the prevailing party or when initiating a claim against the prevailing party, or (ii) the prevailing party has had to resort to arbitration with respect to a substantially similar claim (whether or not with respect to the same Service Area) more than twice in any thirty-six (36) month period. Should it become necessary to resort or respond to court proceedings to enforce a Party's compliance with this Section 9.7, such proceedings will be brought only in the federal or state courts located in the State and County of New York, which will have exclusive jurisdiction to resolve any disputes with respect to this Agreement, with each Party irrevocably consenting to the jurisdiction thereof. If the court directs or otherwise requires compliance herewith, then all costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the Party requesting such compliance, will be reimbursed by the non-complying Party to the requesting Party.

9.8 Notices. All notices, demands and other communications to be given or delivered under or by reason of the provisions of this Agreement will be in writing and will be deemed to have been given: (i) immediately when personally delivered; (ii) when received by first class mail, return receipt requested; (iii) one day after being sent by Federal Express or other overnight delivery service; or (iv) when receipt is acknowledged, either electronically or otherwise, if sent by facsimile, telecopy or other electronic transmission device. 9.9 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, including any exhibits attached hereto, and the Commercial Agreements constitute the entire agreement between the Parties pertaining to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings of the Parties in connection therewith.

9.10 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is held to be unenforceable for any reason, it will be adjusted rather than voided, if possible, to achieve the intent of the Parties. All other provisions of this Agreement will be deemed valid and enforceable to the extent possible.

9.11 Headings. The descriptive headings of the Articles, Sections and subsections of this Agreement are for convenience only and do not constitute a part of this Agreement.

9.12 Counterparts. This Agreement and any amendment hereto or any other agreement delivered pursuant hereto may be executed in one or more counterparts and by different Parties in separate counterparts. All counterparts will constitute one and the same agreement and will become effective when one or more counterparts have been signed by each Party and delivered to the other Party.

9.13 Successors and Assigns; No Third Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement is binding upon and will inure to the benefit of each Party and their respective successors or assigns, and nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to confer upon any other Person or Governmental Entity any rights or remedies of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.

9.14 Interpretation. The Parties each acknowledge that it has been represented by counsel in connection with this Agreement. Accordingly, any rule of law or any legal decision that would require interpretation of any claimed ambiguities in this Agreement against the Party that drafted it has no application and is expressly waived. The provisions of this Agreement will be interpreted in a reasonable manner to effect the intent of the Parties. In the event of an inconsistency between the provisions of this Agreement and the provisions of the List License Agreements, the provisions of this Agreement will be controlling.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, each of the Parties has caused this Agreement to be duly executed for and on its behalf as of the day and year first above written.

PERFORMANCE DESCRIPTIONS FOR LIST LICENSE AGREEMENTS

Daily List Product:

- Data reflects changes and additions from that day's customer listing orders

Timing:

- Subject to increased delays for a reasonable period of time while QC converts to a new software system, QC will deliver updates daily between 10pm and a reasonable time to be agreed on by the parties with ninety-seven percent (97%) on-time delivery.
- QC will use commercially reasonable efforts to cure promptly any non on-time list delivery.
- QC will deliver lists via FTP.
- The cutoff date for changes for print publication purposes is White Pages close date, provided that Publisher will use commercially reasonable efforts to accommodate post White Pages close date changes in print.

Core Process:

- QC will have at least one Publisher Account Manager as a point of contact for Publisher employees to contact regarding file delivery problems, file format/content disputes, error corrections and customer listing issues.
- If Publisher notifies QC of errors in the data, QC will correct the errors in a reasonably timely manner (taking into consideration production schedules).

Format:

- QC will continue to provide subscriber list and delivery information in the fields, format (i.e., lay-out of the fields) and form (i.e., manner that Publisher receives formats) that it provides to all other directory publishers. QC is currently converting to the "Directory Builder" software system licensed by Telcordia.

Notifications:

- QC will provide at least thirty (30) days notice of changes to the fields, format or form.
