Re: Docket UE-190760—Stakeholder work group to examine efficiencies of Clean Energy Transformation Act implementation and transactions with carbon and electricity markets, and the compatibility of the Clean Energy Transformation Act linked with a cap and trade program.

As directed by Executive Director Johnson and Assistant Director Furze’s October 28, 2019 Notice of Opportunity to Submit Nominations and File Written Comments, Pacific Power and Light Company (Pacific Power), a division of PacifiCorp, nominates for membership in the Carbon and Electricity Markets Working Group as follows:

1. Mary Wiencke – Pacific Power Vice President of Transmission Regulation and Market Policy. Ms. Wiencke leads the development of Pacific Power’s market, transmission and environmental policy and programs as well as ensuring compliance for company-wide renewable portfolio standards and reporting of greenhouse gas emissions.

Pacific Power respectfully suggests the following as potential educational topics for future workgroup meetings:

- Western Energy Market Basics: Bilateral Markets, Energy Imbalance Market, and CAISO
- Basics of Environmental Policy Compliance, including Renewable Portfolio Standards, Fuel Mix Reporting, and California cap-and-trade

Mary Wiencke is Pacific Power’s suggested presenter for either/both of those topics.

It is respectfully requested that all communications related to this proceeding be sent to the following:
