

October 25, 2017

Dr. Jonathan Moo
10709 N Humboldt Dr
Spokane, WA 99218
jmoo@whitworth.edu

I am writing to urge Avista to take seriously the challenge posed by global warming by (1) stopping as soon as possible purchasing electricity from the Colstrip plant, which is one of the major contributors to greenhouse gas emissions in the USA; and (2) to step up investments into renewable energy and adopt a much more ambitious agenda towards all renewable energy.

Sincerely,
Jonathan Moo