Re: Rulemaking to consider amending WAC 480-75-250, increasing the maximum civil penalty for violations involving gas pipeline operators, Docket PL-140104

TO ALL INTERESTED PERSONS:

On February 19, 2014, the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) filed with the Code Reviser a Preproposal Statement of Inquiry (CR-101) to consider amending WAC 480-75-250, a rule relating to “Hazardous Liquids Companies – Safety”. Specifically to increase the maximum civil penalty for violations involving gas pipeline operators, in an effort to adopt the more stringent administrative civil penalties set in federal pipeline safety rules. The Commission filed the CR-101 under Docket PL-140104.

Effective on January 3, 2012, the Pipeline Safety, Regulatory Certainty, and Job Creation Act of 2011 (Pub. L. 112-90) (the Act) increased the maximum administrative civil penalties for violation of the pipeline safety laws and regulations from $100,000 to $200,000 for each violation, and the maximum penalty for a related series of violations from $1,000,000 to $2,000,000 in conformance with the 2011 Act.

STATE PROGRAM CERTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

The rules of the State agency must provide for the enforcement of pipeline safety standards by injunctive and monetary sanctions that are at a minimum, as stringent as those set out at the federal level under the Code of Federal Regulations. State agency participation in the federal pipeline safety program requires the agency to adopt each federal safety standard applicable to intrastate pipelines under its jurisdiction.

The CR-101, as filed with the Code Reviser, is available for inspection on the Commission's website at <http://www.utc.wa.gov/140104>. If you are unable to access the Commission's web page and would like a copy of the CR-101 mailed to you, please contact the Records Center at (360) 664-1234.
