Do you currently need the services of a residential household goods moving company?

No Yes If yes, please describe your current moving needs:

I do not have a lot of stuff at the moment so I can do moving on my own.

Do you anticipate a future need for the services of a residential household goods moving company?

No Yes If yes, please describe your future moving needs:

Hiring a moving company might be a challenge as I discovered since alto of them are busy and don't want to give prices upfront, and I am looking for a company that can do that for me.

Briefly describe how granting this company a permit to provide household goods moving services in Washington State will benefit you, your business, and/or your community:

It would benefit me by giving me more options for picking a company that will be able to provide these services safely and with great communication at a reasonable price.

Is there anything else the commission should consider when making a determination about this company's application for a household goods permit?

I have live with Mike he is a respectable person that values great customer service what I can tell from the other businesses he has, he is also very hardworking and really goes out of his way for people and volunteers quite often.

I certify (or declare) under penalty of perjury under the laws of the state of Washington that the foregoing is true and correct.

Do you currently need the services of a residential household goods moving company?
 No Yes If yes, please describe your current moving needs:
Yes, I plan to move to Renton from my place and I have a large dresser, standing desk and lots of stuff in the garage. It won't fit into my Honda Odyssey

Do you anticipate a future need for the services of a residential household goods moving company?
 No Yes If yes, please describe your future moving needs:
I used moving companies in the past and it definitely was helpful. When I have heavy or large things I need moved I will definitely use one. Moving furniture isn't possible if you don't have a large truck

Briefly describe how granting this company a permit to provide household goods moving services in Washington State will benefit you, your business, and/or your community:
Main problem was they do not want to do a small job if it's a big and established company. People who live in small studios or rent rooms have hard time finding a company that is willing to help them. So having another moving company will be helpful.

Is there anything else the commission should consider when making a determination about this company's application for a household goods permit?
I worked with Mykhaylo on a construction job in Olympia. It's where we met. He is organised and the job site was always clean. I think he has a good work ethic

Do you currently need the services of a residential household goods moving company? <input type="checkbox"/> No <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes If yes, please describe your current moving needs: Our family plans on moving from Federal Way to Seattle. Our 2 bedroom apartment furniture is too big to fit into my van so I will have to hire a moving company or rent a box truck. But I have an aquarium, so I will need help lifting it.
Do you anticipate a future need for the services of a residential household goods moving company? <input type="checkbox"/> No <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes If yes, please describe your future moving needs: Will need to move to Seattle when our lease expires
Briefly describe how granting this company a permit to provide household goods moving services in Washington State will benefit you, your business, and/or your community: From my experience, it's sometimes hard to find a moving company that is available for the same day move. And many people need this. Also, competition is good for the economy.
Is there anything else the commission should consider when making a determination about this company's application for a household goods permit? I'm sure Mikes moving business will be beneficial for the residents of Seattle
