Hey Mike,

I decided to just pay the fee but I need payment plan as I already have another payment and this is making it difficult even more than I could. Please consider making $50 monthly payment plan.

Cheers,

Dear Mr. Fikre,

In my email dated March 7, 2018 I provided you with a link to WAC 480-07-610 on Brief Adjudicative Proceedings. Please see section 7, Review of Initial Orders. This covers the procedure for seeking review of (disputing) an initial order.

For your convenience I have copied and pasted the section here:

(7) Review of initial orders.

(a) Timing. Any party may file a written petition for review of an initial order in a brief adjudication within twenty-one days after service of the initial order and the commission will review the initial order. The commission may review an initial order on its own motion.

(b) Format for petition for review. The commission encourages written petitions for review so parties will have the greatest opportunity to state reasons for their views. A written request for review of an initial order must contain an explanation of the party's view of the matter, with a statement of reasons why the initial order is incorrect, and a certificate of service. Oral petitions for review are permitted under RCW 34.05.488.

(c) Response. The commission encourages written responses. Any written response to a petition for review must be filed with the commission and served to the other parties within

How do I go about appealing/disputing the order order. I might have to hire an attorney so I might need extra time to find a decent attorney as well.
