

Exh. CN-2
Docket TP-220513
Witness: Christopher Noble

BEFORE THE STATE OF WASHINGTON
UTILITIES AND TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION

WASHINGTON UTILITIES AND TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION,

Complainant,

v.

PUGET SOUND PILOTS,

Respondent.

Docket No. TP-220513

EXHIBIT TO TESTIMONY OF Christopher Noble
ON BEHALF OF
PACIFIC MERCHANT SHIPPING ASSOCIATION

Christopher Noble Curriculum Vitae

FEBRUARY 10, 2023

Christopher F. Noble

Noble Actuarial Consulting LLC

Actuarial Experience

1997 - 2020

Consulting Actuary, Willis Towers Watson

- Provide actuarial services, including funding, accounting, compliance, administration, and design, for private sector tax-qualified defined benefit pension programs ranging in size from 50 to 200,000 participants
- Provide design, accounting, and administration services for non-qualified, executive defined benefit pension plans
- Provide valuation services for postretirement medical plans
- Advise colleagues on technical valuation and compliance issues as office resource actuary (2011 – 2020)

Professional Activities

2022 – Present

Member, Actuarial Standards Board

- Participate in final decisions on direction and language of Actuarial Standards of Practice
- Appointed by selection committee consisting of presidents and presidents-elect of the American Academy of Actuaries, Society of Actuaries, and Casualty Actuarial Society
- Board consists of nine actuaries, two of whom represent pension practice

2017 - 2019

Chair, Pension Committee of Actuarial Standards Board

- Preside at meetings of committee drafting standards for pension actuaries
- Present drafts to Actuarial Standards Board

2012 - 2016

Member, Pension Committee of Actuarial Standards Board

- Participate in drafting of pension standards

Professional Designations

Member of American Academy of Actuaries
Fellow of Society of Actuaries
Enrolled Actuary (2001 – 2021)

Education

Ph.D., Mathematics, Cornell University

B.S., Mathematics, University of Washington