

[Service Date August 3, 2005]

August 3, 2005

NOTICE OF CHANGE IN PROCEDURAL SCHEDULE (Canceling Requirement to File Proposed Interconnection Agreement for Approval on August 18, 2005)

(Canceling Oral Argument scheduled for September 7, 2005)

(Adding Requirement to File Proposed Interconnection Agreement 30 Days After Commission Order on Petitions for Review)

RE: In the Matter of the Petition for Arbitration of an Amendment to Interconnection Agreements of Verizon Northwest Inc. with Competitive Local Exchange Carriers and Commercial Mobile Radio Service Providers in Washington Pursuant to 47 U.S.C. Section 252(b), and the Triennial Review Order, Docket No. UT-043013

TO ALL PARTIES:

On Monday, July 25, 2005, Verizon Northwest Inc. (Verizon) filed with the Commission a Motion for Modification of Procedural Schedule established in Order No. 17. Verizon requests that the Commission retain the due dates for filing petitions for review on August 8, 2005, and responses to petitions on August 18, 2005. Verizon requests that the Commission delay the date for filing a proposed interconnection agreement until 30 days after the date the Commission enters an order on petitions for review, suggesting a filing date of October 8, 2005.

AT&T filed a response to Verizon's motion on Friday, July 29, 2005, supporting Verizon's motion. No other party filed a response.

Verizon's request to delay the date for filing a proposed interconnection agreement until 30 days after the Commission enters an order on petitions for review of the Arbitrator's Report and Decision is granted. The requirement for Verizon to file a proposed interconnection agreement with the Commission on August 18, 2005, is canceled. In addition, the oral argument scheduled for September 7, 2005, is canceled.

Parties may file petitions for review of the Arbitrator's Report and Decision by Monday, August 8, 2005. Parties may file responses to petitions for review by Thursday, August 18, 2005. Verizon must file a proposed interconnection agreement with the Commission within 30 days after the Commission enters an order on petitions for review.

Sincerely

CAROLE J. WASHBURN
Executive Secretary