2.3 If the Publishing Agreement terminates, either Party may terminate this Agreement immediately.

2.4 If the Publishing Agreement terminates with respect to any Service Area(s), either Party may terminate this Agreement immediately with respect to such Service Area(s).

ARTICLE III SPACE PROVIDED

QC will provide space to Publisher on an exclusive basis and at no charge to Publisher for the placement of Primary Directories within all the Pay Stations available for directory placement (subject to Section 2.1), except for space in the Pay Stations in Durango and Cortez, Colorado and in Farmington and Aztec, New Mexico that will be provided on a non-exclusive basis and at the cost set forth on Appendix A.

ARTICLE IV DIRECTORY PLACEMENT AND DELIVERY

4.1 In those geographic areas in which Publisher hand delivers, either itself or through an agent, Primary Directories to subscribers, Publisher will place the proper Primary Directories in each Pay Station then available for directory placement, at no cost to QC, reasonably promptly after the publication of such Primary Directories and remove the old version(s) thereof. For purposes of this Agreement, "Primary Directories" will be deemed to be the printed paper version of such directories until such time as the Parties agree, pursuant to Section 4.3 below, to the placement of alternative forms of such directories in applicable Pay Stations. If Publisher does not complete the initial delivery and placement of such Primary Directories in a Pay Station before QC's next visit to such Pay Station, then QC will notify Publisher, in writing, of the specific non-performance. If a directory binder in a Pay Station is damaged such that it cannot properly hold the Primary Directories, Publisher may fulfill its obligations under this Article IV by leaving such Primary Directories on a shelf or other place in the Pay Station that Publisher deems appropriate in its reasonable good faith judgment. In those geographic areas in which Publisher delivers Primary Directories to subscribers using the mail, Publisher will provide a sufficient number of Primary Directories to QC, and QC will place the proper Primary Directories in each Pay Station then available for directory placement reasonably promptly after receipt of such Primary Directories from Publisher, but in no event sooner than QC's next scheduled visit to a Pay Station in the ordinary course of maintaining and servicing such Pay Station, and remove the old version(s) thereof.

4.2 On a regular basis, QC will submit in writing to Publisher its reasonable estimate of the then existing and anticipated need for excess Primary Directories to be used in connection with QC's performance under Article VI. Publisher will promptly review each such estimate and, upon approval (which will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), arrange for delivery of the estimated quantity of Primary Directories to QC in a timely manner, and at no cost to QC. Such deliveries will be made to the location(s) within the Publisher Region specified by QC in its reasonable good faith judgment from time to time. If Publisher and QC disagree about any such estimate, they will cooperate in good faith to negotiate an acceptable quantity of Primary Directories to be delivered to QC.

4.3 If QC intends to require that Publisher deliver to QC or place in one or more Pay Stations any Primary Directory in a form other than the printed paper form of such Primary Directory (including as a result of any change in the configuration or functionality of the Pay Stations) or Publisher intends to cease publishing the printed paper form of any Primary Directory in any area in which Pay Stations are located, the applicable Party will notify the other Party at least one (1) full publishing cycle for the applicable Primary Directory in advance of any such change and the Parties will use commercially reasonable efforts to agree on: (i) the functionality of the new form of Primary Directory to be placed in the applicable Pay Stations following such event; (ii) the binder or other equipment necessary to permit the use of such new form of Primary Directory in the applicable Pay Stations; and (iii) the allocation between the Parties of one-time and recurring costs and responsibilities with respect to the initial placement, continuing replacement and repair of such new form of Primary Directory and associated equipment in the applicable Pay Stations. If the Parties are unable to agree on the foregoing, then QC will no longer be obligated to provide space to Publisher on an exclusive basis for placement of, and Publisher will no longer be obligated to supply, Primary Directories in the applicable Pay Stations and either Party may terminate this Agreement with respect to the applicable Pay Stations.

ARTICLE V PURCHASING AND INSTALLATION OF BINDER EQUIPMENT

5.1 Publisher will purchase, at its own cost, all binders and related hardware, including any such equipment that is necessary to replace existing binders and/or related hardware or to place additional Primary Directories in additional Pay Stations, provided that Publisher will not be responsible for purchasing the tools that QC uses to install the binders and related hardware. Publisher may purchase such binders and related hardware from the supplier of its choice, subject to maintaining reasonable and consistent quality levels. Subject to Section 5.4, the Trademark License Agreement, Exhibit C of the Publishing Agreement and any other applicable rules, regulations and/or requirements pertaining to any of the Pay Stations, after consulting with QC, Publisher will have final approval (such approval to be exercised in its reasonable discretion) over the design and style of the binders. For clarification purposes, the execution of this Agreement in and of itself will not create an obligation for Publisher to replace all of the currently existing binders and hardware, and Publisher will be entitled to continue to use such existing binders and hardware subject to the other terms and conditions of this Agreement.

5.2 On a regular basis, QC will submit in writing to Publisher its reasonable estimate of the then existing and anticipated need for binders and related hardware, which for replacement binders and related hardware will be consistent with the QC's and Dex's past practices with respect to the frequency of binder replacement pursuant to Section 6.2. Publisher will promptly review each such estimate and, upon approval (which will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), purchase such equipment and arrange for its delivery to QC in a timely manner, and at no cost to QC. Such deliveries will be made to the location(s) reasonably specified by QC from time to time. If Publisher and QC disagree about any such estimate, they will cooperate in good faith to negotiate an acceptable quantity of binders and related hardware to be delivered to QC.

5.3 On each visit to a Pay Station, QC will ensure that all such Pay Stations have binders and related hardware installed (if necessary); provided, however, that QC's binder and/or hardware installation and replacement obligations under this Agreement are contingent upon Publisher supplying QC with the required binders and related hardware pursuant to Section 5.2.

5.4 If the provider of a Pay Station site objects to the directory binder color or style, QC and Publisher will cooperate in good faith to negotiate an acceptable arrangement with the site provider to replace such binder with a binder that is less conspicuously branded or that is a non-branded generic, or for another type of enclosure that will adequately protect the Primary Directories.

ARTICLE VI INCIDENTAL DIRECTORY AND BINDER PLACEMENT

6.1 On each visit to a Pay Station, QC will, at its own expense, inspect and determine whether Publisher's Primary Directories remain in directory binder(s), and place such Primary Directories in directory binder(s) where necessary. QC will, at its own expense, further inspect Publisher's Primary Directories at a Pay Station on every visit to such Pay Station and promptly replace (from the inventory provided by Publisher) any and all Primary Directories that it determines are: (a) faded due to exposure to sun, rain or humidity; (b) stolen or missing; (c) torn (i.e., missing front or back covers or pages, or any significant portions of any of the foregoing); (d) unable to be easily used by a Pay Station customer (i.e. excessively soiled, swollen due to moisture, or having a substantial number of crumpled pages); or (e) otherwise unsightly or in poor condition or disrepair, as QC reasonably determines in its good faith judgment from the circumstances.

6.2 QC will also, at its own expense, inspect Publisher's directory binders and directory hardware at a Pay Station on every visit to such Pay Station and use reasonable efforts to promptly remove any and all graffiti, stickers or other foreign objects or writing placed on the binders or the hardware and promptly replace (from equipment provided by Publisher) any and all: (a) binders that are damaged or missing, faded or weather worn, excessively soiled, cracked or broken, or incorrectly sized for the then current edition of the directory; and (b) directory hardware that is broken, severely bent, missing or otherwise in poor condition.

6.3 QC's Primary Directory installation and replacement obligations under this Agreement are contingent upon Publisher supplying QC with an adequate amount of Primary Directories pursuant to Section 4.2.

6.4 QC will, at its own expense, discard old Primary Directories that it removes from Pay Stations.

6.5 Publisher will be responsible for, and bear all reasonable costs and expenses (including installation costs) related to, replacing any binders and related hardware as a result of Publisher re-branding its Primary Directories or redesigning its binders.

6.6 QC will be responsible for, and bear all reasonable costs and expenses (including installation costs) related to, replacing any binders and related hardware as a result of QC unilaterally re-branding its local exchange carrier service in a manner that requires Publisher to redesign its binders.

ARTICLE VII MATERIAL OWNERSHIP

Publisher has, and will obtain and retain, title to all of the binders and replacement binders associated with the Primary Directories in the Pay Stations.

ARTICLE VIII INFORMATION/REPORTS

8.1 QC will, at no cost to Publisher, provide Publisher with a master list of all Pay Stations on or about January 30th of each year during the term of the Agreement. This master list will include for each Pay Station: (a) the complete address and telephone number of the Pay Station; (b) a designation of whether it is an indoor or an outdoor payphone; (c) the type of Primary Directory to be supplied by Publisher (i.e. white pages, yellow pages, combined or both); and (d) a designation of whether or not a directory binder is or will be in place. When available, QC will also, at no cost to Publisher, provide Publisher with placement comments, such as "book at front desk" or "site provider does not want directory binders." QC will also, at no cost to Publisher, provide an updated list to Publisher thirty (30) days prior to scheduled directory delivery in a city or state (pursuant to Section 8.2) so Publisher can use such updated list for initial directory placement in Pay Stations in such city or state. Publisher will treat these master lists and updated lists as the confidential and proprietary information of QC and will not disclose or copy these lists except as may be reasonably necessary for Publisher to perform its obligations hereunder and as is consistent with Section 11.1.

8.2 Publisher will, at no cost to QC, provide QC with the following: (a) a master schedule of directory delivery dates by city and state, including sizes of the books (length and width of the directory) and whether the directory will be split or combined, with updates thereto as and when the schedule/size of directory is changed during the year; (b) a copy of any and all reports that Publisher prepares, or receives from its agents or subcontractors, concerning any inability to install a directory or any other problem(s) identified at any Pay Station, with the address and telephone number of such Pay Station identified; (c) the total number of Primary Directories supplied by Publisher to QC for Pay Stations (by delivery sites) as soon as such information can reasonably be captured in Publisher's database and made available for reporting; and (d) information about the availability of Publisher's Primary Directories so as to enable QC employees working on Pay Stations to ration or limit the number of such Primary Directories replaced to critical locations, if necessary.

ARTICLE IX LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary elsewhere in this Agreement, neither Party, nor its respective Affiliates, will be liable to the other Party or its Affiliates for any damages other than direct damages, except in the case of fraud or willful misconduct. Each Party agrees that it is not entitled to recover, and agrees to waive any claim with respect to and will not seek, consequential, punitive or any other special damages as to any matter under, relating to or arising out of the Parties' respective obligations contemplated by this Agreement, except with respect to such claims and damages arising directly out of a Party's fraud or willful misconduct.

ARTICLE X INDEMNIFICATION

10.1 Buyer and Publisher will jointly and severally indemnify and hold harmless QC and its directors, officers, employees, Affiliates, agents and assigns from and against any and all Losses directly or indirectly based upon, arising from or resulting from Publisher's failure to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement. If Publisher's failure to perform is limited in geographic scope to either the Dexter Region or the Rodney Region, the foregoing indemnity will not be deemed to be made jointly and severally by Buyer and Dexter Publisher and Rodney Publisher in their joint capacity as Publisher, but instead will be deemed made jointly and severally by Buyer and Dexter Publisher with respect to the Dexter Region, and jointly severally by Buyer and Rodney Publisher with respect to the Rodney Region.

10.2 QC will jointly and severally indemnify and hold harmless Publisher and its directors, officers, employees, Affiliates, agents and assigns from and against any and all Losses directly or indirectly based upon, arising from or resulting from QC's failure to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement.

ARTICLE XI MISCELLANEOUS

11.1 Confidentiality. Each of the Parties agrees that all non-public, confidential information so received from the other Party or in the course of performing its obligations hereunder (including the location of the Pay Stations), is deemed subject and received pursuant to Section 5.9 of the LLC Purchase Agreement.

11.2 Further Assurances. Each Party will take such other actions as the other Party may reasonably request or as may be necessary or appropriate to consummate or implement the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or to evidence such events or matters.

11.3 No Agency; Right to Subcontract.

(a) Nothing in this Agreement and no action of or inaction by either of the Parties hereto will be deemed or construed to constitute an agency relationship between the Parties hereto. Each Party is acting independently of the other and neither Party has the authority to act on behalf of or bind the other Party.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, Publisher will be permitted, at any time and from time to time, to carry out or otherwise fulfill its obligations hereunder through one or more agents, subcontractors or other representatives, each engaged with due care and required to be experienced, capable and of similar quality as Publisher, provided that in any event Publisher will remain liable for such obligations hereunder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Publisher will not have the right to sublicense any marks or other intellectual property granted under this Agreement.

11.4 Governing Laws; Compliance with Law. This Agreement and the legal relations between the Parties will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York applicable to contracts made and performed in such State and without regard to conflicts of law doctrines unless certain matters are preempted by federal law.

11.5 Amendments; Waivers. Except as expressly provided herein, this Agreement and any attached Appendix may be amended only by agreement in writing of all Parties. No waiver of any provision nor consent to any exception to the terms of this Agreement or any agreement contemplated hereby will be effective unless in writing and signed by both Parties and then only to the specific purpose, extent and instance so provided. No failure on the part of either Party to exercise or delay in exercising any right hereunder will be deemed a waiver thereof, nor will any single or partial exercise preclude any further or other exercise of such or any other right.

11.6 No Assignment. Neither this Agreement nor any rights or obligations hereunder are assignable by one Party without the express prior written consent of the other Party; provided, however, that: (i) either Party may assign this Agreement upon written notice to the other Party to any of its Affiliates without the consent of the other Party if the assigning Party requires such Affiliate to acknowledge in writing that it has assumed this Agreement and the assigning Party remains liable for its obligations hereunder; and (ii) a Change of Control of either Party hereto will not be deemed to be an assignment of this Agreement, provided that if the relevant Party is no longer directly bound as a party to this Agreement (e.g., because the Change of Control is a sale or transfer of assets or is the result of a transaction pursuant to which the successor, surviving or acquiring entity does not automatically succeed to the obligations of such Party by operation of law), the successor, surviving or acquiring entity is required to agree in writing (whether as part of the acquisition agreement that provides for the other Party to be a third party beneficiary or in a separate agreement) to assume this Agreement.

11.7 Alternative Dispute Resolution. Any dispute, controversy or claim arising under or related to this Agreement, regardless of the legal theory upon which it is based, will be settled by final, binding arbitration pursuant to the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §. 1 et seq., in accordance with the American Arbitration Association Commercial Arbitration Rules. Nothing herein will, however, prohibit a Party from seeking temporary or preliminary injunctive relief in a court of competent jurisdiction. In any arbitration, the number of arbitrators will be three, QC, on the one hand, and Publisher, on the other hand, each having the right to appoint one arbitrator, who will together appoint a third neutral arbitrator within thirty (30) days after the appointment of the last Party-designated arbitrator. All arbitration proceedings will take place in Denver, Colorado. The arbitrators will be entitled to award monetary and equitable relief, including specific performance and other injunctive relief; provided, however, that only damages allowed pursuant to this Agreement may be awarded (excluding consequential, punitive or other special damages pursuant to Article IX). Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Section 11.7, each Party will bear the expenses of its own counsel and will jointly bear the expenses of the arbitrators. The arbitrators will allocate the remaining costs of the arbitration proceeding. The Parties agree that the arbitrators will include, as an item of damages, the costs of arbitration, including reasonable legal fees and expenses, incurred by the prevailing party if the arbitrators determine that either (i) the non-prevailing party did not act in good faith when disputing its liability hereunder to the prevailing party or when initiating a claim against the prevailing party, or (ii) the prevailing party has had to resort to arbitration with respect to a substantially similar claim (whether or not with respect to the same Service Area) more than twice in any thirty-six

(36) month period. Should it become necessary to resort or respond to court proceedings to enforce a Party's compliance with this Section 11.7, such proceedings will be brought only in the federal or state courts located in the State and County of New York, which will have exclusive jurisdiction to resolve any disputes with respect to this Agreement, with each Party irrevocably consenting to the jurisdiction thereof. If the court directs or otherwise requires compliance herewith, then all costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the Party requesting such compliance, will be reimbursed by the non-complying Party to the requesting Party.

11.8 Notices. All notices, demands and other communications to be given or delivered under or by reason of the provisions of this Agreement will be in writing and will be deemed to have been given: (i) immediately when personally delivered; (ii) when received by first class mail, return receipt requested; (iii) one day after being sent by Federal Express or other overnight delivery service; or (iv) when receipt is acknowledged, either electronically or otherwise, if sent by facsimile, telecopy or other electronic transmission device. APPENDIX A

During the term of this Agreement, space in the Pay Stations in Durango and Cortez, Colorado, and in Farmington and Aztec, New Mexico, will be leased by QC to Publisher on a non-exclusive basis for a charge of $24.00 per year, per station. This charge may be increased by QC, from time to time during the term of the Agreement, by an amount reflecting any increase in the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers ("CPI-U") published by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, comparing the CPI-U for the month in which the charge was set last to the CPI-U for the month immediately prior to the month in which QC elects to increase the charge.
