Re: Docket No. UT-063038;
Verizon Access Response to Notice of Additions to Schedule

Dear Ms. Washburn:

MCImetro Access Transmission Services LLC d/b/a Verizon Access Transmission Services ("Verizon Access") provides this letter in response to the Notice of Additions to Schedule filed in this docket on April 4, 2007. With agreement of the other parties in this docket, Verizon Access plans to put up its witness in this matter a single time for both the evidentiary hearings on the case-in-chief (in which the witness will support the Response Testimony of Don Price, including Exhibit No. DP-2), and for the hearing on the settlement agreement entered into between Verizon Access and Qwest Corporation. Thus, the Verizon Access witness will testify on April 27, or whatever ends up being the last day of the hearings.

Verizon Access has no plans to cross-examine any witness of any party during the evidentiary hearings on the case-in-chief. Verizon Access, however, will likely cross-examine the witness of the Commission Staff that will testify during the hearing addressing the settlement agreement. It estimates that the cross-examination will not exceed twenty (20) minutes. In that cross-examination, Verizon Access may introduce the following cross-examination exhibit: Response of Commission Staff to Qwest and Verizon's Proposed Partial Settlement dated March 19, 2007. Although the document has already been filed in the docket, Verizon Access encloses an original and three (3) copies of the document because of its planned use as a cross-examination exhibit.

Sincerely,
