

Dear Judge Rendahl:

Verizon's brief addressing disputed contract language is due to be filed tomorrow, as is a version of the ICA amendment reflecting the parties' disputes. Verizon and the other remaining parties have continued to negotiate in an effort to narrow disagreements submitted to the Commission. Those continued negotiations complicate the process of preparing the documents for filing.

I therefore request that Verizon be permitted to serve and file its brief and the proposed amendment electronically, with hard copies to be sent out by overnight mail.

Thank you in advance for your assistance.

Tim
