RE: Certificate Authority: withdrawal of earlier filing and resubmittal of new Restatement Request for G-64

Ms. Washburn:

University Place Refuse Service Inc. is withdrawing the restatement request dated August 24, 2006 and resubmitting it's request for a restatement of current certificate authority as a result of the GIS mapping project. In working with the GIS Staff we are adopting the following descriptions as proposed by the Staff:

SOLID WASTE COLLECTION SERVICE in Fircrest, University Place and from within an area in Pierce County described as follows: Beginning at the northernmost tip of Day Island and including all of Day Island; thence east following S.19th Street to it's intersection with S. Orchard Street; thence south following S. Orchard Street to it's intersection with 40th Street W.(Emerson St.); thence west following 40th Street W. (Emerson St.) to it's intersection with Leach Creek; thence southerly following Leach Creek to it's intersection with 48th Street W. extended; thence west following 48th Street W. extended to it's intersection with Alameda Avenue W.; thence south on Alameda Avenue W. to it's intersection with Cirque Drive W.; thence on a line due south to Leach Creek; thence southerly following Leach Creek to the point where it empties into Chambers Creek; thence westerly following Chambers Creek to the point where it empties into Puget Sound; thence northerly following the shoreline of Puget Sound to the northernmost tip of Day Island, the point of beginning.
