We have not authorized anyone to give you any information other than this pricing supplement and the accompanying prospectus supplement and prospectus. You should not assume that the information contained or incorporated in this pricing supplement and the accompanying prospectus supplement and prospectus is accurate as of any date after August 23, 2000, which is the date of this pricing supplement. We are not offering to sell the Notes and we are not soliciting offers to buy the Notes in any jurisdiction in which offers are not permitted.

USE OF PROCEEDS

Avista Corp. intends to use the net proceeds from the issuance and sale of the Notes for the following purposes: (a) to pay short-term debt of Avista Corp. issued to fund a portion of its construction, improvement and maintenance programs, (b) to reimburse Avista Corp.'s treasury for funds previously expended for any of these purposes and (c) for other corporate purposes. At August 23, 2000, Avista Corp. had $201.5 million of short-term debt outstanding, which bears interest at a weighted average rate of 8.66% per annum.

DESCRIPTION OF THE NOTES

The following description of certain terms of the Notes supplements and supersedes (to the extent inconsistent) the description of the Notes set forth in the accompanying prospectus supplement and the general terms and provisions of the Debt Securities set forth under "Description of the Debt Securities" in the accompanying prospectus, to which description reference is hereby made. Certain capitalized terms used and not defined herein shall have the meanings given to them in the accompanying prospectus supplement or prospectus, the Notes or the Indenture, as the case may be.

General

The Notes will be issued as a separate tranche of Avista Corp.'s Medium-Term Notes, Series D, under the Indenture between Avista Corp. and The Chase Manhattan Bank, as trustee, which is more fully described in the accompanying prospectus supplement and prospectus.

The Notes will be unsecured and will rank pari passu with all other Indenture Securities, except as otherwise provided in the Indenture, and with all other unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness of Avista Corp. Avista Corp.'s subsidiaries are separate and distinct legal entities and will have no obligation to pay any amounts due on the Notes. Many of these subsidiaries have indebtedness outstanding, some of which is secured, and the ability of these subsidiaries to pay dividends or make other distributions may be subject to limitations in the agreements relating to this indebtedness or otherwise provided by law. As a result, the Notes will be effectively subordinated to all indebtedness and other liabilities of Avista Corp.'s subsidiaries.

Maturity; Interest

The Notes will mature on September 1, 2003, and will be issued as Fixed Rate Notes bearing interest at a rate of 8⁵/₈% per annum from the date of issuance, unless and until adjusted as described below. Interest on the Notes will be payable on each March 1 and September 1, commencing March 1, 2001. The Regular Record Date with respect to any Interest Payment Date will be the February 15 or August 15, as the case may be, immediately preceding that Interest Payment Date (whether or not such Regular Record Date is also a Business Day).

The interest rate on the Notes will be subject to adjustment in the event that Moody's Investors Service, Inc. ("Moody's") and/or Standard & Poor's Ratings Services ("S&P") change their ratings on the Notes to be below investment grade (below Baa3 for Moody's or below BBB- for S&P). Avista Corp.'s current senior unsecured debt rating is Baa2 by Moody's, and BBB by S&P.

If only one of Moody's and S&P announces such a negative rating change, the initial interest rate on the Notes will be permanently increased by 25 basis points, to 8⁷/₈%, commencing with the first Interest Payment Date following such announcement. If the other rating agency subsequently also announces such a negative rating change, the interest rate on the Notes will be permanently increased by an additional 25 basis points, to 9¹/₈% per annum, commencing with the first Interest Payment Date following the date the second downgrade is announced.

As described in the accompanying prospectus, the principal of and premium, if any, and interest, if any, on the Notes will be payable at the corporate trust office of The Chase Manhattan Bank in New York, New York, as Paying Agent for the Notes, and the Notes may be presented for registration of transfer or exchange at the corporate trust office of The Chase Manhattan Bank in New York, New York, as Security Registrar for the Notes. Notices and demands to or upon Avista Corp. in respect of the Notes or the Indenture may be made to Avista Corp., 1411 East Mission Avenue, Spokane, Washington 99202.

UNDERWRITERS

Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in a terms agreement, dated August 23, 2000 (including certain sections of the Distribution Agreement dated August 19, 1999 incorporated therein by reference, the "Terms Agreement"), among Avista Corp., Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated, Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated and Salomon Smith Barney Inc. (the "Underwriters"), Avista Corp. has agreed to sell to the Underwriters, and the Underwriters have severally agreed to purchase, the Notes in the respective principal amounts set forth after their names below.

Name	Principal Amount of Notes
Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated.....	$122,500,000
Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated.....	26,250,000
Salomon Smith Barney Inc.	26,250,000
Total.....	$175,000,000

The Terms Agreement provides that the obligations of the Underwriters to pay for and accept delivery of the Notes are subject to the approval certain conditions. The Underwriters are committed to take and pay for all of the Notes if any are taken.

The Underwriters have advised Avista Corp. that they propose initially to offer part of the Notes directly to the public at the public offering price set forth on the cover page of this pricing supplement, and part to certain dealers at a price which represents a concession not in excess of .20% of the principal amount of the Notes. The Underwriters may allow, and such dealers may reallow, a concession not in excess of .10% of the principal amount of the Notes to certain other dealers. After the initial offering of the Notes, the offering price and other selling terms may from time to time be varied by the Underwriters.

Avista Corp. has agreed to indemnify the Underwriters against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

Avista Corp. does not intend to apply for listing of the Notes on a national securities exchange, but has been advised by the Underwriters that they currently intend to make a market in the Notes, as permitted by applicable laws and regulations. The Underwriters are not obligated, however, to make a market in the Notes and any such market making may be discontinued at any time at the sole discretion of the Underwriters. Accordingly, no assurance can be given as to the liquidity of any trading in the Notes.

In order to facilitate the offering of the Notes, the Underwriters may engage in transactions that stabilize, maintain or otherwise affect the price of the Notes. Specifically, the Underwriters may over-allot in connection with the offering, creating a short position in the Notes for their own account. In addition, to cover over-allotments or to stabilize the price of the Notes, the Underwriters may bid for, and purchase, the Notes in the open market. Finally, the Underwriters may reclaim selling concessions allowed to a dealer for distributing the Notes in the offering, if the Underwriters repurchase previously distributed Notes in transactions to cover syndicate short positions, in stabilization transactions or otherwise. Any of these activities may stabilize or maintain the market price of the Notes above independent market levels. The Underwriters are not required to engage in any of these activities and may end any of these activities at any time.

Avista Corp. intends to use the net proceeds from the issuance and sale of its Medium Term Notes, Series D (the "Notes") for any or all of the following purposes: (a) to fund a portion of Avista Corp.'s construction, facility improvement and maintenance programs (estimated to require $290 million over the period 1999-2001), (b) to retire or exchange one or more outstanding series of its preferred stock, bonds or long-term notes (estimated to require $114 million over such period), (c) to reduce or eliminate short-term debt issued for any of these purposes ($151 million at August 13, 1999), (d) to reimburse Avista Corp.'s treasury for funds previously expended for any of these purposes and (e) for other corporate purposes. The pricing supplement relating to each Note will indicate the expected use of the proceeds of such Note.

DESCRIPTION OF THE NOTES

The following description of the particular terms of the Notes supplements and supersedes (to the extent inconsistent) the description of the general terms and provisions of the Debt Securities set forth under "DESCRIPTION OF THE DEBT SECURITIES" in the accompanying prospectus, to which description reference is hereby made. Certain capitalized terms used and not defined in this prospectus supplement are defined under "DESCRIPTION OF THE DEBT SECURITIES" in the accompanying prospectus. The particular terms and conditions of the Notes sold pursuant to any pricing supplement to this prospectus supplement will be described therein. The terms and conditions set forth in this "DESCRIPTION OF NOTES" will apply to each Note unless otherwise specified in the pricing supplement and in such Note.

The Notes will be issued in fully registered form only, without coupons. Each Note will be issued initially as either a Book-Entry Note or a Certificated Note. Except as set forth herein under "- Book-Entry Only Issuance - The Depository Trust Company" or in any pricing supplement relating to specific Notes, the Notes will not be issuable as Certificated Notes. The authorized denominations of the Notes will be $1,000 and any larger amount that is an integral multiple of $1,000.

Each Note will mature from nine months to forty years from its date of issue, as selected by the purchaser and agreed to by Avista Corp.. Each Note may also be subject to redemption at the option of Avista Corp. or to redemption or purchase by Avista Corp. at the option of the Holder before its Stated Maturity (as defined below). Each Floating Rate Note will mature on an Interest Payment Date (as defined below) for such Note.

The pricing supplement relating to each Note will describe the following terms:

- (a) the date or dates on which the principal of such Note is payable or the method of determination thereof and the right, if any, to extend such date or dates;

- (b) whether the Note is a Fixed Rate Note or a Floating Rate Note;
- (c) if the Note is a Fixed Rate Note, the rate per annum at which the Note will bear interest;

- (e) the date or dates from which such interest will accrue on the Note, the Interest Payment Dates on which such interest shall be payable, the right, if any, of Avista Corp. to defer or extend an Interest Payment Date, and the Regular Record Date for any interest payable on any Interest Payment Date and the person or persons to whom interest on the Notes shall be payable on any Interest Payment Date, if other than the person in whose name the Note is registered at the close of business on the Regular Record Date for such interest;
- (f) the place or places where, subject to the terms of the Indenture as described in the accompanying Prospectus under “DESCRIPTION OF THE DEBT SECURITIES — Payment and Paying Agents,” the principal of and premium, if any, and interest, if any, on the Note will be payable and where, subject to the terms of the Indenture as described in the accompanying Prospectus under “DESCRIPTION OF THE DEBT SECURITIES — Registration and Transfer,” the Note may be presented for registration of transfer or exchange and the place or places where notices and demands to or upon Avista Corp. in respect of the Note and the Indenture may be served; the Security Registrar and Paying Agents for the Note; and, if such is the case, that the principal of the Note shall be payable without presentation or surrender thereof;
- (g) any period or periods within which, or date or dates on which, the price or prices at which and the terms and conditions upon which the Note may be redeemed, in whole or in part, at the option of Avista Corp.;
- (h) the obligation or obligations, if any, of Avista Corp. to redeem or purchase the Note or any portion thereof pursuant to any sinking fund or other mandatory redemption provisions or at the option of the holder thereof, and the period or periods within which, or date or dates on which, the price or prices at which, and the terms and conditions upon which the Note shall be redeemed or purchased, in whole or in part, pursuant to such obligation, and applicable exceptions to the requirements of a notice of redemption in the case of mandatory redemption or redemption at the option of the holder;
- (i) the denominations in which the Note shall be issuable if other than denominations of $1,000 and any larger amount that is an integral multiple of $1,000; and
- (j) any other terms of the Note.

“Business Day” with respect to any Note means any day, other than Saturday or Sunday, which is (a) not a day on which banking institutions or trust companies in The City of New York, New York or other city in which is located any office or agency maintained for the payment of principal of or premium, if any, or interest on such Note, are authorized or required by law, regulation or executive order to remain closed and (b) if such Note is a LIBOR Note (as defined below), a London Banking Day. "London Banking Day" with respect to any Note means any day on which dealings in deposits in U.S. dollars are transacted in the London Interbank market.

Payment of Principal and Interest

The interest payable on the Notes on any Interest Payment Date (other than interest payable at Maturity) will be paid to the Holders in whose names the Notes are registered as of the Regular Record Date immediately preceding such Interest Payment Date, such payment to be made by check mailed to the addresses appearing in the Note register. Notwithstanding the foregoing,

(a) if the Original Interest Accrual Date of a Note is after a Regular Record Date and before the corresponding Interest Payment Date, interest so payable for the period from and including the Original Interest Accrual Date to but excluding such Interest Payment Date will be paid on the next succeeding Interest Payment Date to the Holder of such Note on the related Regular Record Date;

(b) interest payable at Maturity will be paid to the Person to whom principal is paid;

(c) defaulted interest will be payable as described under "DESCRIPTION OF THE DEBT SECURITIES - Payment and Paying Agents" in the accompanying Prospectus;

(d) if such Holder is a securities depository, payment may be made by such other means in lieu of check, as shall be agreed upon by Avista Corp., the Trustee and such Holder; and

(e) upon the written request of a Holder of not less than $10 million in aggregate principal amount of Notes of the same tranche delivered to Avista Corp. and the Paying Agent at least 10 days before any Interest Payment Date, payment of interest on such Notes to such Holder on such Interest Payment Date will be made by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account maintained within the continental United States specified by the Holder or, if the Holder maintains an account with the entity acting as Paying Agent, by deposit into such account.

The principal of and premium, if any, and interest on the Notes at Maturity will be made upon presentation at the corporate trust office of the Paying Agent.

The "Regular Record Date" with respect to any Interest Payment Date for a Fixed Rate Note will be the December 15 or June 15 (whether or not a Business Day) immediately preceding such Interest Payment Date; and the "Record Date" with respect to any Interest Payment Date for a Floating Rate Note will be the date (whether or not a Business Day) fifteen calendar days immediately preceding such Interest Payment Date.

Interest rates offered by Avista Corp. with respect to the Notes may differ depending upon, among other things, the aggregate principal amount of Notes purchased in any transaction. Notes with similar variable terms but different interest rates may be offered concurrently at any time. Avista

Corp. may also concurrently offer Notes having different variable terms (as are described herein or in the pricing supplement and Note).

Fixed Rate Notes

Each Fixed Rate Note will bear interest from its Original Interest Accrual Date at the rate per annum stated on its face until the principal amount of the Note is paid or duly provided for. Unless otherwise set forth in the pricing supplement, interest on each Fixed Rate Note will be payable semi-annually in arrears on each Interest Payment Date and at Maturity. Each payment of interest in respect of an Interest Payment Date will include interest accrued through the day before such Interest Payment Date. Interest on Fixed Rate Notes will be computed on the basis of a 360-day year of twelve 30-day months.

If, with respect to any Fixed Rate Note, any Interest Payment Date, any redemption date or the Stated Maturity is not a Business Day, payment of the amounts due on the Note on such date may be made on the next Business Day; and, if such payment is made or duly provided for on such Business Day, no interest will accrue on such amounts for the period from and after such Interest Payment Date, redemption date or Stated Maturity, as the case may be, to such Business Day.

Floating Rate Notes

General

Each Floating Rate Note will bear interest from its Original Interest Accrual Date to the first Interest Reset Date for the Note at the Initial Interest Rate set forth on the face of the Note and in the pricing supplement. Thereafter, the interest rate on the Note for each Interest Reset Period will be determined by reference to an interest rate basis (the “Base Rate”), plus or minus the Spread, if any, and/or multiplied by the Spread Multiplier, if any. The “Spread” is the number of basis points (one basis point being equal to one one-hundredth of a percentage point) that may be specified in the pricing supplement as being applicable to the Note, and the “Spread Multiplier” is the percentage that may be specified in the pricing supplement as being applicable to the Note. The pricing supplement will designate one of the following Base Rates as applicable to a Floating Rate Note:

- (a) the CD Rate (a “CD Rate Note”);
- (b) the Constant-Maturity Treasury Rate (a “CMT Rate Note”);
- (c) the Commercial Paper Rate (a “Commercial Paper Rate Note”);
- (d) the Federal Funds Rate (a “Federal Funds Rate Note”),
- (e) LIBOR (a “LIBOR Note”);
- (f) the Prime Rate (a “Prime Rate Note”);
- (g) the Treasury Rate (a “Treasury Rate Note”), or
- (h) such other Base Rate as is set forth in the pricing supplement and in the Note.

As used herein, "H.15(519)" means the publication entitled "Statistical Release H.15(519)," Selected Interest Rates, or any successor publication, published by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System; "H.15 Daily Update" means the daily update of H.15(519), so published; and "Calculation Date," with respect to an interest determination date for any Note, means the earlier of (x) the tenth calendar day after such interest determination date, or, if such day is not a Business Day, the next succeeding Business Day and (y) the Business Day immediately preceding the related Interest Payment Date or the Maturity of that Note, as the case may be. H.15(519) and H.15 Daily Update are available through the Internet site maintained by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System at <http://www.bog.frb.fed.us/releases/H15/>.

Maximum Rate; Minimum Rate

As specified in the pricing supplement, a Floating Rate Note may also have either or both of the following (in each case expressed as a rate per annum on a simple interest basis):

- (a) a maximum limitation, or ceiling, on the rate at which interest may accrue during any interest period ("Maximum Interest Rate") and
- (b) a minimum limitation, or floor, on the rate at which interest may accrue during any interest period ("Minimum Interest Rate").

In addition to any Maximum Interest Rate that may be applicable to any Floating Rate Note, the interest rate on a Floating Rate Note will in no event be higher than the maximum rate permitted by New York law, as the same may be modified by U.S. law of general application. Under New York law currently in effect, a business corporation may not use usury or the taking of more than the lawful interest rate as a defense to any proceeding to recover damages on, or enforce payment of, any obligation executed or effected by such corporation.

Calculation Agent

Avista Corp. will appoint, and enter into an agreement with, an agent (the "Calculation Agent") to calculate interest rates on Floating Rate Notes. Unless otherwise specified in the pricing supplement, The Chase Manhattan Bank will be the Calculation Agent. All determinations of interest rates by the Calculation Agent will, in the absence of manifest error, be conclusive for all purposes and binding on the Holders of the Floating Rate Notes.

Interest Rate Reset

The interest rate on each Floating Rate Note will be reset daily, weekly, monthly, quarterly, semi-annually or annually (such period being the "Interest Reset Period" for the Note, and the first day of each Interest Reset Period being an "Interest Reset Date"), as specified in the pricing supplement; and such interest rate, as so reset, will be effective as of and for the related Interest Reset Date and for the balance of the Interest Reset Period to, but excluding, the next succeeding Interest Reset Date. Unless otherwise specified in the pricing supplement, the Interest Reset Dates will be:

- in the case of Floating Rate Notes that reset daily, each Business Day;

- in the case of Floating Rate Notes (other than Treasury Rate Notes) that reset weekly, Wednesday of each week;
- in the case of Treasury Rate Notes that reset weekly, Tuesday of each week (except as provided below under “Treasury Rate Notes”);
- in the case of Floating Rate Notes that reset monthly, the third Wednesday of each month;
- in the case of Floating Rate Notes that reset quarterly, the third Wednesday of March, June, September and December of each year;
- in the case of Floating Rate Notes that reset semi-annually, the third Wednesday of the two months of each year specified in the pricing supplement; and
- in the case of Floating Rate Notes that reset annually, the third Wednesday of the month of each year specified in the pricing supplement; provided, however, that the interest rate in effect for the ten days immediately before Maturity will be that rate in effect on the tenth day preceding Maturity. If an Interest Reset Date for any Floating Rate Note would otherwise be a day that is not a Business Day, such Interest Reset Date will be postponed to the next succeeding Business Day, except that, in the case of a LIBOR Note, if such Business Day is in the next succeeding calendar month, the Interest Reset Date shall be the immediately preceding Business Day.

Accrual of Interest

Unless otherwise specified in the pricing supplement, interest payments on Floating Rate Notes will be the amount of interest accrued from and including the last date to which interest has been paid or duly provided for, or, if no interest has been paid or duly provided for, from and including the Original Interest Accrual Date, to but excluding the next succeeding Interest Payment Date; provided, however, that in the case of a Floating Rate Note that resets daily or weekly, interest payments will be the amount of interest accrued from and including the most recent date to which interest has been paid or duly provided for, or if no interest has been paid, from the Original Interest Accrual Date, to, but excluding, the Regular Record Date immediately preceding such Interest Payment Date, except that, at Maturity, interest payable will include interest accrued to but excluding the date of Maturity.

Accrued interest for each Floating Rate Note will be calculated by multiplying the principal amount of the Note by an accrued interest factor. Such accrued interest factor will be computed by adding the interest factors calculated for each day in the Interest Payment Period for which accrued interest is being calculated. The interest factor (expressed as a decimal calculated to seven decimal places without rounding) for each such day is computed by dividing the interest rate applicable to such day by 360, in the case of CD Rate Notes, Commercial Paper Rate Notes, Federal Fund Rate Notes, LIBOR Notes and Prime Rate Notes or by the actual number of days in the year, in the case of CMT Rate Notes and Treasury Rate Notes. For purposes of making the foregoing calculation, the interest rate in effect on any Interest Reset Date will be the applicable rate as reset on such date. Unless otherwise specified in the pricing supplement, all percentages resulting from any calculation of the rate of interest on a Floating Rate Note will be rounded, if necessary, to the nearest 1/100,000 of 1% (.0000001), with five one-millionths of a percentage point rounded upward, and all dollar amounts used in or resulting from such calculation will be rounded to the nearest one-hundredth of a cent (with .005 of a cent being rounded upward).

Interest Payment Dates

Unless otherwise indicated in the pricing supplement and except as provided below, interest will be payable, in the case of Floating Rate Notes that reset daily, weekly or monthly, on the third Wednesday of each month or on the third Wednesday of March, June, September and December of each year, as specified in the pricing supplement; in the case of Floating Rate Notes that reset quarterly, on the third Wednesday of March, June, September and December of each year; in the case of Floating Rate Notes that reset semi-annually, on the third Wednesday of the two months of each year specified in the pricing supplement; and in the case of Floating Rate Notes that reset annually, on the third Wednesday of the month of each year specified in the pricing supplement (each such day being an "Interest Payment Date").

If, with respect to any Floating Rate Note, any Interest Payment Date other than a redemption date or the Stated Maturity is not a Business Day, such Interest Payment Date will be postponed to the next Business Day, except that, if such Note is a LIBOR Note and such next Business Day is in the next calendar month, such Interest Payment Date will be the immediately preceding Business Day. If a redemption date or the Stated Maturity is not a Business Day, payment of the amounts due on the Note on such date in respect of principal, premium, if any, and/or interest, if any, may be made on the next Business Day; and if payment is made or duly provided for on such Business Day, no interest shall accrue on such amounts for the period from and after such redemption date or Stated Maturity, as the case may be, to such Business Day.

CD Rate Notes

Each CD Rate Note will bear interest for each Interest Reset Period at an interest rate calculated with reference to the CD Rate and the Spread or Spread Multiplier, if any, and subject to the Maximum Interest Rate, if any, and the Minimum Interest Rate, if any, specified in the CD Rate Note and the pricing supplement.

Unless otherwise specified in the pricing supplement, the "CD Rate" for each Interest Reset Period in respect of each CD Rate Note will be determined by the Calculation Agent on the Calculation Date and will be

(a) the rate (expressed as a percentage per annum) as of the second Business Day before the related Interest Reset Date (a "CD Rate Determination Date") for negotiable certificates of deposit having the Index Maturity specified in the CD Rate Note and the pricing supplement as published in H.15(519) under the heading "CDs (Secondary Market)", or

(b) that such rate is not so published by 9:00 A.M., New York City time, on the Calculation Date, the rate as of the CD Rate Determination Date for negotiable certificates of deposit of such Index Maturity as published in H.15 Daily Update under the heading "CDs (Secondary Market)", or

(c) if neither of such rates is published by 3:00 P.M., New York City time, on the Calculation Date, the arithmetic mean of the secondary market offered rates as of 10:00 A.M., New York City time, on the CD Rate Determination Date for certificates of deposit in an amount that is representative of a single transaction at that time with a remaining maturity closest to such Index Maturity of three leading nonbank dealers in negotiable U.S. dollar certificates of deposit in The City of New York selected by the Calculation Agent, in its discretion (after consultation with Avista Corp.); provided, however, that if the dealers selected as aforesaid by the Calculation Agent are not quoting as described above, the CD Rate for such Interest Reset Period will be the same as the CD Rate for the immediately preceding Interest Reset Period (or, if there was no previous Interest Reset Period in respect of the CD Rate Note, the rate of interest on the Note for such Interest Reset Period shall be the Initial Interest Rate).

CMT Rate Notes

Each CMT Rate Note will bear interest for each Interest Reset Period at a rate calculated with reference to the CMT Rate and the Spread or Spread Multiplier, if any, and subject to the Maximum Interest Rate, if any, and the Minimum Interest Rate, if any, specified in the CMT Rate Note and the pricing supplement.

Unless otherwise specified in the pricing supplement, the "CMT Rate" for each Interest Reset Period in respect of each CMT Rate Note will be determined by the Calculation Agent on the Calculation Date and will be the rate (expressed as a percentage per annum) displayed on the Designated CMT Telerate Page (as defined below) under the caption "...Treasury Constant Maturities... Federal Reserve Board Release H.15...Mondays Approximately 3:45 p.m." under the column for the Designated CMT Maturity Index (as defined below) for

(a)(1) if the Designated CMT Telerate Page is 7051, the second Business Day before the related Interest Reset Date (a "CMT Rate Determination Date") or (2) if the Designated CMT Telerate Page is 7052, the week or the month, as applicable, ended immediately preceding the week in which such CMT Rate Determination Date occurs, or

(b) if that rate is no longer displayed on the relevant page, or if not displayed by 3:00 P.M., New York City time on the Calculation Date, the Treasury Constant Maturity rate for the Designated CMT Maturity Index as published in H.15(519), or

(c) if that rate is no longer published or, if not published by 3:00 P.M., New York City time, on the Calculation Date, the Treasury Constant Maturity rate for the Designated CMT Maturity Index (or other United States Treasury rate for the Designated CMT Maturity Index) for the CMT Rate Determination Date as may then be published by either the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System or the United States Department of the Treasury that the Calculation Agent determines to be comparable to the rate formerly displayed on the Designated CMT Telerate Page and published in H.15(519), or

(d) if that information is not provided by 3:00 P.M., New York City time, on the Calculation Date, then the CMT Rate for the CMT Rate Determination Date shall be a yield to maturity, based on the arithmetic mean of the secondary market closing offer side prices as of approximately 3:30 P.M., New York City time, on the CMT Rate Determination Date reported, according to their written records, by three leading primary United States government securities dealers (each, a “Reference Dealer”) in The City of New York selected by the Calculation Agent (from five such Reference Dealers selected by the Calculation Agent, in its discretion (after consultation with Avista Corp.), and eliminating the highest quotation (or, in the event of equality, one of the highest) and the lowest quotation (or, in the event of equality, one of the lowest)), for the most recently issued direct noncallable fixed rate obligations of the United States (“Treasury notes”) with an original maturity of approximately the Designated CMT Maturity Index and a remaining term to maturity of not less than such Designated CMT Maturity Index minus one year, or

(e) if the Calculation Agent cannot obtain three such Treasury notes quotations, a yield to maturity based on the arithmetic mean of the secondary market offer side prices as of approximately 3:30 P.M., New York City time, on the CMT Rate Determination Date of three Reference Dealers in The City of New York (from five such Reference Dealers selected by the Calculation Agent, in its discretion (after consultation with Avista Corp.), and eliminating the highest quotation (or, in the event of equality, one of the highest) and the lowest quotation (or, in the event of equality, one of the lowest)), for Treasury notes with an original maturity of the number of years that is the next highest to the Designated CMT Maturity Index and a remaining term to maturity closest to the Designated CMT Maturity Index and in an amount of at least $100 million, or

(f) if three or four (and not five) of such Reference dealers are quoting as described in clause (e) above, the arithmetic mean of the offer prices obtained without the elimination of either the highest or the lowest of such quotes; provided, however, that if fewer than three Reference Dealers selected by the Calculation Agent are quoting as described in this clause (f), the CMT Rate for such Interest Reset Period will be the same as the CMT Rate for the immediately preceding Interest Reset Period (or, if there was no such previous Interest Reset Period in respect of such CMT Rate Note, the rate of interest on such Note for such Interest Reset Period shall be the Initial Interest Rate).

For purposes of clause (e) above, if two Treasury notes have remaining terms to maturity equally close to the Designated CMT Maturity Index, the quotes for the Treasury note with the shorter remaining term to maturity shall be used.

“Designated CMT Maturity Index”, with respect to any CMT Rate Note, will be the original period to maturity of the U.S. Treasury securities (either 1, 2, 3, 5, 7, 10, 20 or 30 years) specified in such CMT Rate Note and the pricing supplement with respect to which the CMT Rate will be calculated. If no such maturity is so specified, the Designated CMT Maturity Index will be 2 years.

“Designated CMT Telerate Page”, with respect to any CMT Rate Note, means the display on Bridge Telerate, Inc. on the page specified in the CMT Rate Note and the pricing supplement, for the purpose of displaying Treasury Constant Maturities as reported in H.15(519) (or any other page that may replace such page on that service, or any successor service, for the purpose of displaying Treasury Constant Maturities as reported in H.15(519)). If no such page is so specified, the page shall be 7052, for the most recent week.

Commercial Paper Rate Notes

Each Commercial Paper Rate Note will bear interest for each Interest Reset Period at a rate calculated with reference to the Commercial Paper Rate and the Spread or Spread Multiplier, if any, and subject to the Maximum Interest Rate, if any, and the Minimum Interest Rate, if any, specified in the Commercial Paper Rate Note and the pricing supplement.

Unless otherwise specified in the pricing supplement, the “Commercial Paper Rate” for each Interest Reset Period in respect of each Commercial Paper Rate Note will be determined by the Calculation Agent on the Calculation Date and will be

(a) the Money Market Yield (as hereinafter defined) as of the second Business Day before the related Interest Reset Date (a “Commercial Paper Rate Determination Date”) of the rate (expressed as a percentage per annum) for commercial paper having the Index Maturity specified in such Commercial Paper Rate Note and the pricing supplement, as such rate shall be published in H.15(519) (as hereinafter defined) under the heading “Commercial Paper - Nonfinancial”, or

(b) if that rate is not so published before 9:00 A.M., New York City time, on the Calculation Date, the Money Market Yield as of the Commercial Paper Rate Determination Date of the rate for commercial paper of the Index Maturity specified in the Commercial Paper Rate Note and in the pricing supplement, as published in H.15 Daily Update under the heading “Commercial Paper-Nonfinancial”, or

(c) if none of those rates is published by 3:00 P.M., New York City time, on the Calculation Date, the Money Market Yield of the arithmetic mean of the offered rates, as of 11:00 A.M., New York City time, on such Commercial Paper Rate Determination Date, of three leading dealers in commercial paper in The City of New York selected by the Calculation Agent, in its discretion (after consultation with Avista Corp.), for commercial paper of the Index Maturity specified in the Commercial Paper Rate Note and in the pricing supplement placed for an industrial issuer whose bond rating is “AA,” or the equivalent, from a nationally recognized statistical rating organization; provided, however, that if the dealers selected are not quoting offered rates as described above, the Commercial Paper Rate for the Interest Reset Period will be deemed to be the same as the Commercial Paper Rate for the preceding Interest Reset Period (or, if there was no such previous Interest Reset Period in respect of such Commercial Paper Rate Note, the rate of interest on the Note for such Interest Reset Period shall be the Initial Interest Rate).

“Money Market Yield” is a yield calculated in accordance with the following formula and expressed as a percentage:

$$\text{Money Market Yield} = \frac{D \times 360}{360 - (D \times M)} \times 100$$

where “D” refers to the applicable per annum rate for commercial paper quoted on a bank discount basis and expressed as a decimal, and “M” refers to the actual number of days in the Index Maturity specified in the Commercial Paper Rate Note and the pricing supplement.

Federal Funds Rate Notes

Each Federal Funds Rate Note will bear interest for each Interest Reset Period at a rate calculated with reference to the Federal Funds Rate and the Spread or Spread Multiplier, if any, and subject to the Maximum Interest Rate, if any, and the Minimum Interest Rate, if any, specified in the Federal Funds Rate Note and the pricing supplement.

Unless otherwise specified in the pricing supplement, the “Federal Funds Rate” for each Interest Reset Period in respect of each Federal Funds Rate Note will be determined by the Calculation Agent on the Calculation Date and will be

(a) the rate (expressed as a percentage per annum) as of the second Business Day before the related Interest Reset Date (a “Federal Funds Rate Determination Date”) for Federal funds as published in H.15(519) under the heading “Federal Funds (Effective)”, or

(b) if that rate is not so published by 9:00 A.M., New York City time, on the Calculation Date, the rate on the Federal Funds Rate Determination Date as published in H.15 Daily Update under the heading “Federal Funds (Effective)”, or

(c) if neither of those rates is published by 3:00 P.M., New York City time, on the Calculation Date, the arithmetic mean of the rates for the last transaction in overnight Federal funds as of 9:00 A.M., New York City time, on such Federal Funds Rate Determination Date arranged by three leading brokers in Federal Funds transactions in The City of New York selected by the Calculation Agent, in its discretion (after consultation with Avista Corp.); provided, however, that if the brokers selected by the Calculation Agent are not quoting as described above, the Federal Funds Rate for the Interest Reset Period will be the same as the Federal Funds Rate for the immediately preceding Interest Reset Period (or, if there was no such previous Interest Reset Period in respect of such Federal Funds Rate Note, the rate of interest on the Note for such Interest Reset Period will be the Initial Interest Rate).

LIBOR Notes

Each LIBOR Note will bear interest for each Interest Reset Period at a rate calculated with reference to LIBOR and the Spread or Spread Multiplier, if any, and subject to the Maximum Interest Rate, if any, and the Minimum Interest Rate, if any, specified in the LIBOR Note and the pricing supplement.

Unless otherwise specified in the pricing supplement, “LIBOR” for each Interest Reset Period will be determined by the Calculation Agent and will be:

(a)(1) if “LIBOR Reuters” is specified in the Note and the pricing supplement as the Reporting Service, the arithmetic mean of the offered rates (unless the specified Designated LIBOR Page (as hereinafter defined) by its terms provides only for a single rate, in which case the single rate will be used) for deposits in the Index Currency specified in the LIBOR Note and the pricing supplement in the London interbank market, for the period of the Index Maturity so specified commencing on the related Interest Reset Date for the Interest Reset Period, which appear or appears on the Designated LIBOR Page at approximately 11:00 A.M., London time, on the second London Banking Day (as defined above) before such Interest Reset

Date (a “LIBOR Determination Date”), or (2) if “LIBOR Telerate” is specified in the Note and the pricing supplement as the Reporting Service, the rate for deposits in the Index Currency, for the period of such Index Maturity commencing on the Interest Reset Date (or, if the pound sterling is the Index Currency, commencing on the LIBOR Determination Date), that appears on the Designated LIBOR Page at approximately 11:00 A.M., London time, on the LIBOR Determination Date;

(b) with respect to a LIBOR Determination Date on which fewer than two offered rates appear (if “LIBOR Reuters” is specified in the Note as the Reporting Service and calculation of LIBOR is based on the arithmetic mean of the offered rates) or on which no rate appears (if the Reporting Service specified in the Note and the pricing supplement is either (1) “LIBOR Reuters” and the Designated LIBOR Page by its terms provides only for a single rate or (2) “LIBOR Telerate”), the Calculation Agent will request the principal London office of each of four major reference banks in the London interbank market selected by the Calculation Agent, in its discretion (after consultation with Avista Corp.), to provide the Calculation Agent with its offered quotations for deposits in the Index Currency, for the period of the Index Maturity commencing on the Interest Reset Date (or, if the pound sterling is the Index Currency, commencing on the LIBOR Determination Date) for such Interest Reset Period and in a principal amount equal to an amount of not less than U.S.$1 million (or the equivalent amount in the Index Currency) that is representative of a single transaction in the Index Currency in the market at such time, to prime banks in the London interbank market at approximately 11:00 A.M., London time, on the LIBOR Determination Date; if at least two such quotations are provided, LIBOR, in respect of the LIBOR Determination Date, shall be the arithmetic mean of such quotations;

(c) if fewer than two quotations are so provided, LIBOR in respect of the LIBOR Determination Date will be the arithmetic mean of the rates quoted by three major banks in the applicable Principal Financial Center for the country of the Index Currency on the LIBOR Determination Date selected by the Calculation Agent, in its discretion (after consultation with Avista Corp.), at approximately 11:00 A.M. on the LIBOR Determination Date, for loans in the Index Currency to leading European banks, for the period of the Index Maturity commencing on the Interest Reset Date (or, if the pound sterling is the Index Currency, commencing on the LIBOR Determination Date) for the Interest Reset Period and in a principal amount of not less than U.S.$1 million (or the equivalent amount in the Index Currency) that is representative of a single transaction in the Index Currency in the market at such time; provided, however, that if fewer than three banks selected by the Calculation Agent are quoting rates described above, LIBOR for such Interest Reset Period shall be the same as LIBOR for the immediately preceding Interest Reset Period (or, if there was no such previous Interest Reset Period, the rate of interest on the Note for the Interest Reset Period shall be the Initial Interest Rate).

“Designated LIBOR Page” means (x) if “LIBOR Reuters” is specified in a LIBOR Note and the pricing supplement as the Reporting Service, the display on the Reuters monitor money rates service (or any successor service) for the purpose of displaying the London interbank rates of major banks for the Index Currency, or (y) if “LIBOR Telerate” is so specified as the Reporting Service, the display on Bridge Telerate, Inc., or any successor service, for the purpose of displaying the London interbank rates of major banks for the Index Currency.

“Index Currency”, with respect to any LIBOR Note, means the currency (including any composite currency) so specified in the LIBOR Note and the pricing supplement. If no currency is so specified, “Index Currency” means U.S. dollars.

“Principal Financial Center” will be, for purposes of clause (c) above, the principal financial center of the country of the specified Index Currency, which generally will be the capital city of such country, except that with respect to U.S. Dollars, Deutsche Marks and Euros, the Principal Financial Center will be the City of New York, Frankfurt or Brussels, as the case may be.

Prime Rate Notes

Each Prime Rate Note will bear interest for each Interest Reset Period at a rate calculated with reference to the Prime Rate and the Spread or Spread Multiplier, if any, and subject to the Maximum Interest Rate, if any, and the Minimum Interest Rate, if any, specified in the Prime Rate Note and the pricing supplement.

Unless otherwise specified in the pricing supplement, the “Prime Rate” for each Interest Reset Period in respect of each Prime Rate Note will be determined by the Calculation Agent on the Calculation Date and will be

(a) the rate (expressed as a percentage per annum) as of the second Business Day before the related Interest Reset Date (a “Prime Rate Determination Date”) as published in H.15(519) opposite the heading “Bank Prime Loan”, or

(b) if that rate is not so published prior to 9:00 A.M., New York City time, on the Calculation Date, the rate as of such Prime Rate Determination Date as published in H.15 Daily Update under the heading “Bank Prime Loan”, or

(c) if that rate is not so published before 3:00 P.M., New York City time, on the Calculation Date, the arithmetic mean of the rates publicly announced by each bank named on the Reuters Screen USPRIME1 Page (as defined below) as the bank’s prime rate or base lending rate as in effect on such Prime Rate Determination Date as quoted on the Reuters Screen USPRIME1 Page on such Prime Rate Determination Date or

(d) if fewer than four such rates appear on the Reuters Screen USPRIME1 Page for the Prime Rate Determination Date, the arithmetic mean of the prime rates quoted on the basis of the actual number of days in the year divided by 360 as of the close of business on the Prime Rate Determination Date by at least two of three major money center banks in The City of New York selected by the Calculation Agent, in its discretion (after consultation with Avista Corp.), from which quotations are requested; provided, however, that if fewer than two prime rates are quoted by major money center banks as described above, there shall be included in the group of rates whose arithmetic mean is to be so determined the prime rates or base lending rates, as of such Prime Rate Determination Date, of that number of substitute banks or trust companies organized and doing business under the laws of the United States, or any State thereof, in each case having total equity capital of at least U.S. $500 million and being subject to supervision or examination by Federal or State authority, selected by the Calculation Agent, in its discretion (after consultation with Avista Corp.), which, when added to the number of rates provided by major money center banks as aforesaid, shall equal two.

If in any calendar month the Prime Rate is not published in H.15(519) or H.15 Daily Update and the banks or trust companies selected are not quoting as described in the preceding paragraph, the "Prime Rate" for the Interest Reset Period will be Prime Rate for the immediately preceding Interest Reset Period (or, if there was no such previous Interest Reset Period in respect of such Prime Rate Note, the rate of interest on the Prime Rate Note for the Interest Reset Period shall be the Initial Interest Rate).

"Reuters Screen USPRIME1 Page" means the display designated as Page "USPRIME1" on the Reuters monitor money rates service (or such other page as may replace the USPRIME1 Page on that service for the purpose of displaying prime rates or base lending rates of major United States banks).

Treasury Rate Notes

Each Treasury Rate Note will bear interest for each Interest Reset Period at a rate calculated with reference to the Treasury Rate and the Spread or Spread Multiplier, if any, and subject to the maximum Interest Rate, if any, and the minimum Interest Rate, if any, specified in the Treasury Rate Note and the pricing supplement.

Unless otherwise specified in the pricing supplement, the "Treasury Rate" for each Interest Reset Period in respect of each Treasury Rate Note will be determined by the Calculation Agent on the Calculation Date and will be

(a) the rate (expressed as a percentage per annum) for the auction held on the Treasury Rate Determination Date (as hereinafter defined) for the Interest Reset Period of direct obligations of the United States ("Treasury bills") having the Index Maturity specified in the Treasury Rate Note and the pricing supplement, as such rate shall appear under the heading "Investment Rate" on the display on Bridge Telerate, Inc., or any successor service, on page 56 or page 57, or any other page that may replace either thereof on that service, or

(b) if that rate is not published by 3:00 P.M., New York City time, on the Calculation Date, the Bond Equivalent Yield of the rate on Treasury Bills having the Index Maturity specified in the Treasury Rate Note and in the pricing supplement as of such Treasury Rate Determination Date, as such rate shall be published in H.15 Daily Update under the heading "U.S. Government Securities/Treasury Bills/Auction High", or

(c) if that rate is not so published by 3:00 P.M., New York City time, on the Calculation Date, the Bond Equivalent Yield of the auction rate of Treasury Bills having the Index Maturity specified above, as otherwise announced by the United States Department of the Treasury; or

(d) if that rate is not so announced by the United States Department of the Treasury, or if that auction is not held, the Bond Equivalent Yield of the rate as of such Treasury Rate Determination Date of Treasury Bills having the Index Maturity specified above, as such rate shall be published in H.15 (519) under the heading "U.S. Government Securities/Treasury Bills/Secondary Market"; or

(e) if that rate is not so published by 3:00 P.M., New York City time, on the Calculation Date, the rate as of such Treasury Rate Determination Date of Treasury Bills having the Index Maturity specified above, as that rate shall be published in H.15 Daily Update under the heading “U.S. Government Securities/Treasury Bills/Secondary Market”; or

(f) if that rate is not so published by 3:00 P.M., New York City time, on the Calculation Date, the Bond Equivalent Yield of the arithmetic mean of the secondary market bid rates, as of approximately 3:30 P.M., New York City time, on the Treasury Rate Determination Date, of three leading primary United States government securities dealers selected by the Calculation Agent, in its discretion (after consultations with Avista Corp.), for the issue of Treasury Bills with a remaining maturity closest to the Index Maturity specified in the Treasury Rate Note and in the pricing supplement; provided, however, that if the dealers selected as aforesaid by the Calculation Agent are not quoting bid rates as described above, then the “Treasury Rate” for such Interest Reset Period will be deemed to be the same as the Treasury Rate for the immediately preceding Interest Reset Period (or, if there was no such previous Interest Reset Period in respect of such Treasury Rate Note, the rate of interest on the Note for the Interest Reset Period shall be the Initial Interest Rate).

The “Treasury Rate Determination Date” for each Interest Reset Period is the day of the week in which the Interest Reset Date for the Interest Reset Period falls on which Treasury bills would normally be auctioned. (As of the date of this Prospectus Supplement, Treasury bills are normally sold at auction on Monday of each week, unless that day is a legal holiday, in which case the auction is normally held on the following Tuesday, except that such auction may be held on the preceding Friday.) If, as the result of a legal holiday, an auction is held on the preceding Friday, such Friday is the Treasury Rate Determination Date pertaining to the Interest Reset Period commencing in the next week. If an auction date falls on any day that would otherwise be an Interest Reset Date for a Treasury Rate Note, then the Interest Reset Date is instead the Business Day immediately following such auction date.

“Bond Equivalent Yield” shall be calculated in accordance with the following formula and expressed as a percentage:

$$\text{Bond Equivalent Yield} = \frac{D \times N}{360 - (D \times M)}$$

where “D” refers to the applicable rate per annum for Treasury Bills quoted on a bank discount basis, “N” refers to 365 or 366, as the case may be, and “M” refers to the actual number of days in the interest period for which the interest rate is being calculated.

Redemption

The pricing supplement relating to each Note will indicate either that such Note cannot be redeemed at the election of Avista Corp. before Stated Maturity or that the Note will be redeemable, at the election of Avista Corp., in whole or in part, on any date on or after the date designated as the “Initial Redemption Date” in the pricing supplement, at the applicable redemption price plus accrued interest to the date fixed for redemption. If the Note is so redeemable, the redemption price will initially be a percentage of the principal amount of the Note to be redeemed equal to the “Initial Redemption Price” specified in the pricing supplement for the twelve-month period commencing on the Initial Redemption Date and will decline for the twelve-month period commencing on each anniversary of the Initial Redemption Date by a percentage of principal amount equal to the "Reduction Percentage" specified in the pricing supplement until the redemption price is 100% of the principal amount of the Note. The pricing supplement may specify a "Redemption Limitation Date" before which Avista Corp. may not redeem a Note as contemplated above as a part of, or in anticipation of, any refunding operation by the application, directly or indirectly, of moneys borrowed having an effective interest cost to Avista Corp. (calculated in accordance with generally accepted financial practice) less than the effective interest cost to Avista Corp. (similarly calculated) of such Note.

The pricing supplement relating to each Note will also specify any sinking fund or other mandatory redemption provisions applicable to the Note, and any provisions for the redemption or purchase by Avista Corp. of the Note at the option of the Holder.

Reference is made to the information contained under "DESCRIPTION OF THE DEBT SECURITIES — REDEMPTION" in the accompanying Prospectus.

“Purchase Money Lien” means, with respect to any property being acquired by Avista Corp., a Lien on such property which

(a) is taken or retained by the transferor of the property to secure all or part of the purchase price thereof;

(b) is granted to one or more Persons other than the transferor which, by making advances or incurring an obligation, give value to enable the grantor of such Lien to acquire rights in or the use of the property;

DTC is a limited-purpose trust company organized under the New York Banking Law, a “banking organization” within the meaning of the New York Banking Law, a member of the Federal Reserve System, a “clearing corporation” within the meaning of the New York Uniform Commercial Code and a “clearing agency” registered pursuant to the provisions of Section 17A of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. DTC holds securities that its participants (“Participants”) deposit with DTC. DTC also facilitates the settlement among Participants of securities transactions, such as transfers and pledges, in deposited securities through electronic computerized book-entry changes in Participants’ accounts, thereby eliminating the need for physical movement of securities certificates. “Direct Participants” in DTC include securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies, clearing corporations and certain other organizations. DTC is owned by a number of its Direct Participants and by the NYSE, the American Stock Exchange, Inc., and the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. Access to the DTC system is also available to others, such as securities brokers and dealers, banks and trust companies that clear transactions through or maintain a custodial relationship with a Direct Participant either directly or indirectly (“Indirect Participants”). The rules applicable to DTC and its Participants are on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Purchases of Notes within the DTC system must be made by or through Direct Participants, which will receive a credit for the Notes on DTC’s records. The ownership interest of each actual purchaser of each Note (“Beneficial Owner”) is in turn to be recorded on the Direct and Indirect Participants’ records. Beneficial Owners will not receive written confirmation from DTC of their purchase, but Beneficial Owners are expected to receive written confirmation providing details of the transaction, as well as periodic statements of their holdings, from the Direct or Indirect Participants through which the Beneficial Owners entered into the transaction. Transfers of ownership interests in the Notes are to be accomplished by entries made on the books of Participants acting on behalf of Beneficial Owners. Beneficial Owners will not receive certificates representing their ownership interests in the Notes, except in the event that use of the book-entry system for the Notes is discontinued, as discussed below.

To facilitate subsequent transfers, all Notes deposited by Participants with DTC are registered in the name of DTC's partnership nominee, Cede & Co. The deposit of Notes with DTC and their registration in the name of Cede & Co. effect no change in beneficial ownership. DTC has no knowledge of the actual Beneficial Owners of the Notes; DTC's records reflect only the identity of the Direct Participants to whose accounts such Notes are credited, which may or may not be the Beneficial Owners. The Participants will remain responsible for keeping account of their holdings on behalf of their customers.

The delivery of notices and other communications by DTC to Direct Participants, by Direct Participants to Indirect Participants, and by Direct Participants and Indirect Participants to Beneficial Owners will be governed by arrangements among them, subject to any statutory or regulatory requirements as may be in effect from time to time.

Redemption notices will be sent to Cede & Co., as registered Holder of the Notes. If less than all of the Notes are being redeemed, DTC's practice is to determine by lot the amount of the interest of each Direct Participant to be redeemed.

Neither DTC nor Cede & Co. will itself consent or vote with respect to Notes. Under its usual procedures, DTC mails an Omnibus Proxy to Avista Corp. as soon as possible after the record date. The Omnibus Proxy assigns Cede & Co.'s consenting or voting rights to those Direct Participants to whose accounts the Notes are credited on the record date (identified in a listing attached to the Omnibus Proxy).

Payments on the Notes will be made to DTC. DTC's practice is to credit Direct Participants' accounts on the relevant payment date in accordance with their respective holdings shown on DTC's records unless DTC has reason to believe that it will not receive payment on such payment date. Payments by Participants to Beneficial Owners will be governed by standing instructions and customary practices, as is the case with securities held for the accounts of customers in bearer form or registered in "street name", and will be the responsibility of such Participants and not of DTC or Avista Corp., subject to any statutory or regulatory requirements as may be in effect from time to time. Payment to DTC will be the responsibility of Avista Corp., disbursement of payments to Direct Participants will be the responsibility of DTC, and further disbursement of payments to the Beneficial Owners will be the responsibility of Direct Participants and Indirect Participants.

Management of DTC is aware that some computer applications, systems and the like for processing data ("Systems") that are dependent upon calendar dates, including dates before, on, and after January 1, 2000, may encounter "Year 2000 problems."

DTC has informed Direct Participants and Indirect Participants and other members of the financial community (the "Industry") that it has developed and is implementing a program so that its Systems, as the same relate to the timely payment of distributions (including principal and interest payments) to securityholders, book-entry deliveries, and settlement of trades within DTC ("Depository Services"), continue to function appropriately. This program includes a technical assessment and a remediation plan, each of which is complete. Additionally, DTC's plan includes a testing phase, which is expected to be completed within appropriate time frames.

However, DTC's ability to perform its services properly is also dependent upon other parties, including, but not limited to, issuers and their agents, as well as DTC's Direct Participants and Indirect Participants, third party vendors from whom DTC licenses software and hardware, and third party vendors on whom DTC relies for information or the provision of services, including telecommunication and electrical utility service providers, among others. DTC has informed the Industry that it is contacting (and will continue to contact) third party vendors from whom DTC acquires services to: (1) impress upon them the importance of such services being Year 2000 compliant; and (2) determine the extent of their efforts for Year 2000 remediation (and, as appropriate, testing) of their services. In addition, DTC is in the process of developing such contingency plans as it deems appropriate.

According to DTC, the information in the preceding two paragraphs with respect to DTC has been provided to the Industry for informational purposes only and is not intended to serve as a representation, warranty, or contract modification of any kind.

DTC may discontinue providing its services as securities depository for the Notes at any time by giving notice to Avista Corp. Under such circumstances, in the event that a successor securities depository is not obtained, Note certificates will be delivered to the Beneficial Owners. Additionally, Avista Corp. may decide to discontinue use of the system of book-entry transfers through DTC (or a successor depository). In that event, certificates for the Notes will be delivered.

The information in this section concerning DTC and DTC's book-entry system and procedures has been obtained from sources that Avista Corp. believes to be reliable, but Avista Corp. takes no responsibility for the accuracy thereof. Neither Avista Corp., the Trustee nor the Agents will have any responsibility or liability for any aspect of the records relating to or payments made on account of beneficial ownership interests in the Notes or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating thereto.

Except as provided herein, a Beneficial Owner of an interest in a global Note certificate may not receive physical delivery of Notes. Accordingly, each Beneficial Owner must rely on the procedures of DTC to exercise any rights under the Notes.

CERTAIN UNITED STATES TAX CONSIDERATIONS

The following is a discussion of certain U.S. income tax considerations based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), existing and proposed Treasury regulations (the "Regulations"), published rulings, and judicial decisions, all as currently in effect. This discussion deals only with Notes held as capital assets (within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code) by U.S. Holders (as defined below) that are initial purchasers, and not with special classes of holders such as banks, insurance companies, dealers in securities or currencies, traders in securities that elect to mark to market, tax-exempt organizations, persons holding Notes as part of a straddle, hedging or conversion transaction, or persons whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar. All persons considering the purchase of Notes are advised to consult their own tax advisors concerning the consequences, in their particular circumstances, under the Code and the laws of any other taxing jurisdiction, of the ownership of the Notes.

As used herein, the term “U.S. Holder” means a beneficial owner of a Note that is for United States federal income tax purposes:

- (a) a citizen or resident of the United States;
- (b) a corporation, partnership or other entity created or organized under the laws of the United States or any political subdivision thereof;
- (c) an estate the income of which is subject to United States federal income tax without regard to its source; or
- (d) a trust if a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of the trust and one or more United States persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust.

Payments of Interest

Interest on a Note, other than original issue discount, generally will be taxable to a U.S. Holder as ordinary income at the time it is received or accrued, depending on the holder’s regular method of accounting for tax purposes.

Original Issue Discount

General

Original issue discount (“OID”) is the excess of the “stated redemption price at maturity” of a Note over its issue price if such excess equals or exceeds a “de minimis amount” (as defined below). The issue price of a Note generally will be the first price at which a substantial amount of Notes included in the issue of which the Note is a part is sold other than to bond houses, brokers, or similar persons or organizations acting in the capacity of underwriters, placement agents, or wholesalers. The stated redemption price at maturity is the sum of all payments provided for under the terms of the Note other than “qualified stated interest”. A qualified stated interest payment is generally any one of a series of stated interest payments on a Note that are unconditionally payable at least annually at a single fixed rate (with certain exceptions for lower rates paid during some periods) applied to the outstanding principal amount of the Note. Notes issued with OID are hereinafter called “OID Notes”. Special rules for “Floating Rate Notes” are described below under “Notes Issued with Floating Interest Rates.”

U.S. Holders of OID Notes that mature more than one year from the date of issuance generally must include OID in income as ordinary interest income in advance of actual receipt of some or all of the corresponding interest payments from Avista Corp. U.S. Holders of OID Notes generally must include in income the daily portion of OID as it accrues during each accrual period over the life of a Note under a formula based upon the compounding of interest at a rate that provides for a constant yield to maturity (the “Constant Yield Method”).

The Constant Yield Method

Under the Constant Yield Method, the amount of OID includible in income by a U.S. Holder of an OID Note is the sum of the daily portions of OID with respect to the OID Note for each day during the taxable year or portion of the taxable year on which the U.S. Holder holds such OID Note (“accrued OID”). The daily portion is determined by allocating to each day in any “accrual period” a pro rata portion of the OID allocable to that accrual period. Accrual periods with respect to a Note may be of any length selected by the U.S. Holder and may vary in length over the term of the Note as long as:

- (a) no accrual period is longer than one year and
- (b) each scheduled payment of interest or principal on the Note occurs on either the final or first day of an accrual period.

The amount of OID allocable to an accrual period equals the excess of

- (x) the product of the OID Note’s adjusted issue price at the beginning of the accrual period and such Note’s yield to maturity (determined on the basis of compounding at the close of each accrual period and properly adjusted for the length of the accrual period) over
- (y) the sum of the payments of qualified stated interest on the Note allocable to the accrual period.

The “adjusted issue price” of an OID Note at the beginning of any accrual period is the issue price of the Note:

- (a) increased by the amount of accrued OID for each prior accrual period; and
- (b) decreased by the amount of any payments previously made on the Note that were not qualified stated interest payments.

For purposes of determining the amount of OID allocable to an accrual period, if an interval between payments of qualified stated interest on the Note contains more than one accrual period, the amount of qualified stated interest payable at the end of the interval (including any qualified stated interest that is payable on the first day of the accrual period immediately following the interval) is allocated pro rata on the basis of relative lengths to each accrual period in the interval, and the adjusted issue price at the beginning of each accrual period in the interval must be increased by the amount of any qualified stated interest that has accrued before the first day of the accrual period but that is not payable until the end of the interval. The amount of OID allocable to an initial short accrual period may be computed using any reasonable method if all other accrual periods other than a final short accrual period are of equal length.

The amount of OID allocable to the final accrual period is the difference between

- (a) the amount payable at the maturity of the Note (other than any payment of qualified stated interest) and
- (b) the Note's adjusted issue price as of the beginning of the final accrual period.

Because OID is calculated based on the compounding of interest, U.S. Holders will generally have to include in income increasingly greater amounts of OID in successive accrual periods.

De Minimis OID

In general, if the excess of a Note's stated redemption price at maturity over its issue price is less than 1/4 of 1 percent of the Note's stated redemption price at maturity multiplied by the number of complete years to its maturity (the "de minimis amount"), then such excess, if any, constitutes "de minimis original issue discount" and the Note is not an OID Note. Unless the election described below under "Election to Treat All Interest as Original Issue Discount" is made, a United States Holder of a Note with de minimis original issue discount must include such de minimis original issue discount in income as stated principal payments on the Note are made. The includible amount with respect to each such payment will equal the product of the total amount of the Note's de minimis original issue discount and a fraction, the numerator of which is the amount of the principal payment made and the denominator of which is the stated principal amount of the Note.

Short Term Notes

In general, an individual or other cash basis U.S. Holder of a Note with a term of one year or less (a "short-term Note") is not required to accrue OID (as specially defined below for the purposes of this paragraph) for U.S. federal income tax purposes unless it elects to do so (but may be required to include any stated interest in income as the interest is received). Accrual basis U.S. Holders and certain other U.S. Holders, including banks, regulated investment companies, dealers in securities, common trust funds, U.S. Holders who hold Notes as part of certain identified hedging transactions, certain pass-through entities and cash basis U.S. Holders who so elect, are required to accrue OID on short-term Notes on either a straight-line basis or under the Constant Yield Method (based on daily compounding), at the election of the U.S. Holder. In the case of a U.S. Holder not required and not electing to include OID in income currently, any gain realized on the sale or retirement of the short-term Note will be ordinary income to the extent of the OID accrued on a straight-line basis (unless an election is made to accrue the OID under the Constant Yield Method) through the date of sale or retirement. U.S. Holders who are not required and do not elect to accrue OID on short-term Notes will be required to defer deductions for interest on borrowings allocable to short-term Notes in an amount not exceeding the deferred income until the deferred income is realized.

For purposes of determining the amount of OID subject to these rules, all interest payments on a short-term Note, including stated interest, are included in the short-term Note's stated redemption price at maturity.

Election to Treat All Interest as Original Issue Discount

A U.S. Holder may elect to include in gross income all interest that accrues on a Note using the Constant Yield Method, with the modifications described below. For purposes of this election, interest includes stated interest, OID, de minimis original issue discount, market discount, de minimis market discount and unstated interest, as adjusted by an amortizable bond premium (described below under “Notes Purchased at a Premium”) or acquisition premium.

In applying the Constant Yield Method to a Note with respect to which this election has been made, the issue price of the Note will equal its cost to the electing U.S. Holder, the issue date of the Note will be the date of its acquisition by the electing U.S. Holder, and no payments on the Note will be treated as payments of qualified stated interest. This election will generally apply only to the Note with respect to which it is made and may not be revoked without the consent of the Internal Revenue Service. If this election is made with respect to a Note with amortizable bond premium, then the electing U.S. Holder will be deemed to have elected to apply amortizable bond premium against interest with respect to all debt instruments with amortizable bond premium (other than debt instruments the interest on which is excludible from gross income) held by the electing U.S. Holder as of the beginning of the taxable year in which the Note with respect to which the election is made is acquired or thereafter acquired. The deemed election with respect to amortizable bond premium may not be revoked without the consent of the Internal Revenue Service.

Notes Issued with Floating Interest Rates

Floating Rate Notes are subject to special rules. For these purposes, a Floating Rate Note will qualify as a “variable rate debt instrument” if it:

- (a) has an issue price that does not exceed the total noncontingent principal payments by more than the lesser of (1) the product of (A) the total noncontingent principal payments, (B) the number of complete years to maturity from the issue date and (C) .015 and (2) 15 percent of the total noncontingent principal payments; and
- (b) does not provide for stated interest other than stated interest compounded or paid at least annually at (1) one or more “qualified floating rates,” (2) a single fixed rate and one or more qualified floating rates, (3) a single “objective rate” or (4) a single fixed rate and a single objective rate that is a “qualified inverse floating rate.”

A qualified floating rate or objective rate in effect at any time during the term of the instrument must be set at a “current value” of that rate. A “current value” of a rate is the value of the rate on any day that is no earlier than 3 months before the first day on which that value is in effect and no later than 1 year following that first day.

A variable rate is a “qualified floating rate” if:

- (a) variations in the value of the rate can reasonably be expected to measure contemporaneous variations in the cost of newly borrowed funds in the currency in which the Note is denominated; or

(b) it is equal to the product of such a rate and either (1) a fixed multiple that is greater than 0.65 but not more than 1.35, or (2) a fixed multiple greater than 0.65 but not more than 1.35, increased or decreased by a fixed rate.

If a Note provides for two or more qualified floating rates that (a) are within 0.25 percentage points of each other on the issue date or (b) can reasonably be expected to have approximately the same values throughout the term of the Note, the qualified floating rates together constitute a single qualified floating rate. A rate is not a qualified floating rate, however, if the rate is subject to certain restrictions (including caps, floors, governors, or other similar restrictions) unless such restrictions are fixed throughout the term of the Note or are not reasonably expected to significantly affect the yield on the Note.

An “objective rate” is a rate, other than a qualified floating rate, that is determined using a single, fixed formula and that is based on objective financial or economic information that is not within the control of or unique to the circumstances of the issuer or a related party. A variable rate is not an objective rate, however, if it is reasonably expected that the average value of the rate during the first half of the Note’s term will be either significantly less than or significantly greater than the average value of the rate during the final half of the Note’s term. An objective rate is a “qualified inverse floating rate” if:

(a) the rate is equal to a fixed rate minus a qualified floating rate; and

(b) the variations in the rate can reasonably be expected to inversely reflect contemporaneous variations in the cost of newly borrowed funds.

If interest on a Note is stated at a fixed rate for an initial period of one year or less followed by either a qualified floating rate or an objective rate for a subsequent period and:

(a) the fixed rate and the qualified floating rate or objective rate have values on the issue date of the Note that do not differ by more than 0.25 percentage points; or

(b) the value of the qualified floating rate or objective rate is intended to approximate the fixed rate, the fixed rate and the qualified floating rate or the objective rate constitute a single qualified floating rate or objective rate. Under these rules, CD Rate Notes, CMT Rate Notes, Commercial Paper Rate Notes, Federal Funds Rate Notes, LIBOR Notes, Prime Rate Notes and Treasury Rate Notes should generally be treated as “variable rate debt instruments.”

In general, if

(a) a Floating Rate Note that provides for stated interest at a single qualified floating rate or objective rate throughout the term thereof qualifies as a “variable rate debt instrument,” and then all stated interest on the Note is qualified stated interest and will be taxed accordingly. The amount of OID for such Notes, if any, is determined by using, in the case of a qualified floating rate or qualified inverse floating rate, the value as of the issue date of the qualified floating rate or qualified inverse floating rate, or, in the case of any other objective rate, a fixed rate that reflects the yield reasonably expected for the Note.

(b) interest on such Note is unconditionally payable in cash or other property (other than debt instruments of the issuer),

In general, any other Floating Rate Note that qualifies as a variable rate debt instrument will be converted into an “equivalent” fixed rate debt instrument for purposes of determining the amount and accrual of OID and qualified stated interest on the Note. For this calculation, the amount of interest and OID accruals on the Note are generally determined by:

(a) determining a fixed rate substitute for each variable rate provided under the Floating Rate Note (generally, the value of each variable rate as of the issue date or, in the case of an objective rate that is not a qualified inverse floating rate, a rate that reflects the reasonably expected yield on the Note);

(b) constructing the equivalent fixed rate debt instrument (using the fixed rate substitutes described above);

(c) determining the amount of qualified stated interest and OID with respect to the equivalent fixed rate debt instrument, and

(d) making the appropriate adjustments for actual variable rates during the applicable accrual period.

If a Floating Rate Note does not qualify as a “variable rate debt instrument,” then the Note would be treated as a contingent payment debt obligation. The effect of treating a Floating Rate Note as a contingent payment debt obligation would be to require a U.S. Holder, regardless of its regular method of accounting, to accrue income based on the “comparable yield” of the Floating Rate Note (i.e., the yield at which Avista Corp. would issue a fixed rate debt instrument with the same maturity and with terms and conditions otherwise similar to the Floating Rate Note). As a result, a U.S. Holder could accrue income in excess of cash payments actually received, and any gain or loss upon the sale, exchange or retirement of the Floating Rate Note would be treated as other than long-term capital gain or loss.

Notes Purchased at a Premium

A U.S. Holder that purchases a Note for an amount in excess of its “stated redemption price at maturity” may elect to treat such excess as “amortizable bond premium,” in which case the amount required to be included in the U.S. Holder’s income each year with respect to interest on the Note will be reduced by the amount of amortizable bond premium allocable (based on the Note’s yield to maturity) to such year. Any election to amortize bond premium shall apply to all bonds (other than bonds the interest on which is excludible from gross income) held by the U.S. Holder at the beginning of the first taxable year to which the election applies or thereafter acquired by the U.S. Holder, and is irrevocable without the consent of the Internal Revenue Service. See also “Original Issue Discount — Election to Treat All Interest as Original Issue Discount.”

Basis and Sales, Exchanges or Retirements

A U.S. Holder's tax basis in a Note will generally equal the cost of such Note to the U.S. Holder plus the total amount of OID or market discount included in such U.S. Holder's income plus the amount of income, if any, attributable to de minimis OID and de minimis market discount included in the U.S. Holder's income with respect to the Note, less (a) any payments received by such U.S. Holder that are not qualified stated interest and (b) the amount of any amortizable bond premium applied to reduce interest on the Note.

Upon the sale, exchange or payment of a Note having a maturity date more than one year from the date of issuance, the U.S. Holder of a Note will generally realize capital gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount realized and the U.S. Holder's tax basis in such Note. U.S. Holders of OID Notes that have a maturity date one year or less from the date of issuance, and who do not elect to accrue OID using the Constant Yield Method, will generally be required to treat gain realized on the sale, exchange or payment of such Note as interest income to the extent of OID accrual on a straight-line basis through the date of such sale, exchange or payment. Capital gain of a non-corporate U.S. Holder is generally subject to a maximum tax rate of 20% in respect of property held for more than one year. Under current law, the deductibility of capital losses is subject to certain limitations.

Backup Withholding

Certain backup withholding and information reporting requirements may apply to payments on a Note to registered U.S. Holders who are not otherwise exempt from such requirements pursuant to the Code. In general, with respect to non-corporate U.S. Holders, information reporting requirements will apply to payments of principal, any premium and interest on a Note and the proceeds of the sale of a Note before maturity, and to the accrual of OID on OID Notes and backup withholding at a rate of 31% will apply to such payments and to payments of OID if the U.S. Holder fails to provide an accurate taxpayer identification number or is notified by the Internal Revenue Service that it has failed to report all interest and dividends required to be shown on its federal income tax returns. Any amounts withheld from a payment to a U.S. Holder under backup withholding rules would be allowed as a refund or a credit against such U.S. Holder's U.S. federal income tax provided the required information is furnished to the Internal Revenue Service.

SUPPLEMENTAL PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The Notes are being offered on a continuing basis by Avista Corp. through Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated, Merrill Lynch & Co., Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated and Salomon Brothers Inc, the Agents, who have agreed to use reasonable efforts to solicit offers to purchase the Notes; provided that Avista Corp. has reserved its right to sell, solicit and accept offers to purchase Notes on its own behalf. Avista Corp. will have the sole right to accept offers to purchase Notes and may reject any offer in whole or in part. An Agent will have the right to reject any offer in whole or in part. Payment of the purchase price of the Notes will be required to be made in immediately available funds. Unless otherwise specified in the pricing supplement, Avista Corp. will pay an Agent, in connection with sales of Notes resulting from a solicitation made or an offer to purchase received by such Agent, a commission ranging from .125% to .875% of the initial offering price of the Notes to be sold, depending upon the maturity of the Notes.

Avista Corp. may also sell Notes to an Agent as principal for its own account at discounts to be agreed upon at the time of sale. The Notes may be resold to investors and other purchasers at a fixed offering price or at prevailing market prices, or prices related thereto at the time of such resale or otherwise, as determined by the Agent and specified in the pricing supplement. An Agent may offer the Notes it has purchased as principal to other dealers. An Agent may sell the Notes to any dealer at a discount and, unless otherwise specified in the pricing supplement, such discount allowed to any dealer will not be in excess of the discount to be received by such Agent from Avista Corp. After the initial public offering of the Notes that are to be resold by the Agents to investors and other purchasers on a fixed public offering price basis, the public offering price, concession, and discount may be changed.

In order to facilitate the offering of the Notes, the Agents may engage in transactions that stabilize, maintain or otherwise affect the price of the Notes. Specifically, the Agents may overallocate in connection with the offering, creating a short position in the Notes for their own account. In addition, to cover overallocations or to stabilize the price of the Notes, the Agents may bid for, and purchase, the Notes in the open market. Finally, any underwriting syndicate participating in a sale of Notes to one or more Agents acting as principal may reclaim selling concessions allowed to an underwriter or a dealer for distributing the Notes in the offering, if the syndicate repurchases previously distributed Notes in transactions to cover syndicate short positions, in stabilization transactions or otherwise. Any of these activities may stabilize or maintain the market price of the Notes above independent market levels. The Agents are not required to engage in these activities, and may end any of these activities at any time.

The Agents may be deemed to be “underwriters” within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”). Avista Corp. and the Agents have agreed to indemnify each other against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the federal securities laws, or to contribute to payments made in respect of any such liabilities. Avista Corp. has also agreed to reimburse the Agents for certain expenses.

Avista Corp. does not intend to apply for the listing of the Notes on a national securities exchange, but has been advised by the Agents that the Agents intend to make a market in the Notes, as permitted by applicable laws and regulations. The Agents are not obligated to do so, however, and the Agents may discontinue making a market at any time without notice. No assurance can be given as to the liquidity of any trading market for the Notes.

Concurrently with the offering of Notes through the Agent as described herein, Avista Corp. may issue other Debt Securities under the Indenture referred to herein. Any Debt Securities sold by Avista Corp. pursuant to the Prospectus will reduce the aggregate principal amount of Notes that may be offered by this Prospectus Supplement and the Prospectus.

The Agents and/or certain of their affiliates may engage in transactions with and perform services for Avista Corp. and certain of its affiliates in the ordinary course of business.

LEGAL MATTERS

The following information supplements the information regarding legal opinions contained under "LEGAL MATTERS" in the accompanying prospectus. AVISTA CORPORATION

Avista Corp., formerly known as The Washington Water Power Company, was incorporated in the State of Washington in 1889, and is a diversified energy services company. Avista Corp.'s subsidiaries include Avista Energy, Avista Advantage, Avista Labs and Pentzer Corporation. At December 31, 1998, Avista Corp.'s employees included 1,536 people in its utility operations and approximately 2,153 people in its majority-owned non-regulated businesses (energy and non-energy). Avista Corp.'s corporate headquarters are located at 1411 East Mission Avenue, Spokane, Washington 99220, which serves as the Inland Northwest's center for manufacturing, transportation, health care, education, communication, agricultural and service businesses.

The Company's operations are organized into four lines of business, two of which comprise its utility operations. The Energy Delivery business provides electricity and natural gas in a 26,000 square-mile area in eastern Washington and northern Idaho, with a combined population of approximately 825,000, as of December 31, 1998, as well as natural gas services in a 4,000 square-mile area in northeast and southwest Oregon and South Lake Tahoe region of California, with a combined population of approximately 459,000, as of such date. The Generation and Resources business includes the generation and production of electric energy, and short- and long-term electric and natural gas wholesale sales and wholesale marketing primarily to, and commodity trading with, other utilities and power brokers in the Western System Coordinating Council. The National Energy Trading and Marketing business, which is conducted through subsidiaries, focuses on commodity trading, energy marketing and energy related products and services on a national basis. The non-energy business primarily consists of Pentzer, a private investment firm.

Regulatory, economic and technological changes have brought about the accelerating transformation of the electric utility industry from a vertically integrated monopoly to separate market driven businesses. Changes underway in the utility and energy industries are creating new opportunities to expand Avista Corp.'s businesses and serve new markets. In pursuing such opportunities, Avista Corp. is shifting its strategic direction to growth in order to achieve its goal of becoming a diversified North American energy company.

USE OF PROCEEDS

Avista Corp. intends to use the net proceeds from the issuance and sale of the debt securities offered by this prospectus (the "Debt Securities") for any or all of the following purposes: (a) to fund a portion of Avista Corp.'s construction, facility improvement and maintenance programs, (b) to retire or exchange one or more outstanding series of its preferred stock, bonds or long-term notes, (c) to reduce or eliminate short-term debt issued for any of these purposes, (d) to reimburse Avista Corp.'s treasury for funds previously expended for these purposes and (e) for other corporate purposes. Avista Corp. also has an existing shelf registration statement on file with the SEC for the issuance and sale of Medium-Term Notes, Series C. As of June 30, 1999, Avista Corp. had $166,000,000 of Medium-Term Notes, Series C available for issuance and sale, the net proceeds from which may be used for purposes similar to those enumerated above. The prospectus supplement relating to each series or tranche of the Debt Securities will indicate the expected use of the proceeds of that series or tranche.

DESCRIPTION OF THE DEBT SECURITIES

General

Avista Corp. may issue the Debt Securities in one or more series, or in one or more tranches within a series, under an Indenture, dated as of April 1, 1998 (the “Original Indenture”), between Avista Corp. and The Chase Manhattan Bank, as trustee (the “Trustee”), the Original Indenture, as amended and supplemented from time to time, being hereinafter referred to as the Indenture. The terms of the Debt Securities will include those stated in the Indenture and those made part of the Indenture by the Trust Indenture Act. The following summary is not complete and is subject in all respects to the provisions of, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to, the Indenture and the Trust Indenture Act. Avista Corp. has filed the Indenture, as well as a form of officer’s certificate to establish a series of debt securities, as exhibits to the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part. Capitalized terms used under this heading which are not otherwise defined in this prospectus have the meanings set forth in the Indenture. Wherever particular provisions of the Indenture or terms defined in the Indenture are referred to, those provisions or definitions are incorporated by reference as part of the statements made in this prospectus and those statements are qualified in their entirety by that reference. References to article and section numbers, unless otherwise indicated, are references to article and section numbers of the Indenture.

In addition to the Debt Securities, other debt securities may be issued under the Indenture, without any limit on the aggregate principal amount. The Debt Securities and all other debt securities issued under the Indenture are collectively referred to as the “Indenture Securities.” Each series of Indenture Securities will be unsecured and will rank pari passu with all other series of Indenture Securities, except as otherwise provided in the Indenture, and with all other unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness of Avista Corp. Except as otherwise described in the applicable prospectus supplement, the Indenture does not limit the incurrence or issuance by Avista Corp. of other secured or unsecured debt, whether under the Indenture, under any other indenture that Avista Corp. may enter into in the future or otherwise. See the prospectus supplement relating to any offering of Debt Securities.

The applicable prospectus supplements will describe the following terms of the Debt Securities of each series or tranche:

- (a) the title of the Debt Securities;
- (b) any limit upon the aggregate principal amount of the Debt Securities;
- (c) the date or dates on which the principal of the Debt Securities is payable or the method of determination thereof and the right, if any, to extend such date or dates;
- (d) the rate or rates at which the Debt Securities will bear interest, if any, or the method by which such rate or rates, if any, will be determined, the date or dates from which any such interest will accrue, the interest payment dates on which any such interest will be payable, the right, if any, of Avista Corp. to defer or extend an interest payment date, and the regular record date for any interest payable on any interest payment date and the person or persons to whom interest on the Debt Securities will be payable on any interest payment date, if other than the person or persons in whose names the Debt Securities are registered at the close of business on the regular record date for such interest;
- (e) the place or places where, subject to the terms of the Indenture as described below under “—Payment and Paying Agents”, the principal of and premium, if any, and interest, if any,

on the Debt Securities will be payable and where, subject to the terms of the Indenture as described below under “—Registration and Transfer”, the Debt Securities may be presented for registration of transfer or exchange and the place or places where notices and demands to or upon Avista Corp. in respect of the Debt Securities and the Indenture may be served; the Security Registrar and Paying Agents for the Debt Securities; and, if such is the case, that the principal of the Debt Securities will be payable without presentation or surrender;

(f) any period or periods within which, or date or dates on which, the price or prices at which and the terms and conditions upon which the Debt Securities may be redeemed, in whole or in part, at the option of Avista Corp.;

(g) the obligation or obligations, if any, of Avista Corp. to redeem or purchase any of the Debt Securities pursuant to any sinking fund or other mandatory redemption provisions or at the option of the Holder, and the period or periods within which, or date or dates on which, the price or prices at which and the terms and conditions upon which the Debt Securities will be redeemed or purchased, in whole or in part, pursuant to such obligation, and applicable exceptions to the requirements of a notice of redemption in the case of mandatory redemption or redemption at the option of the Holder;

(h) the denominations in which any of the Debt Securities will be issuable if other than denominations of $1,000 and any integral multiple of $1,000;

(i) if the Debt Securities are to be issued in global form, the identity of the depository; and

(j) any other terms of the Debt Securities.

Payment and Paying Agents

Except as may be provided in the applicable prospectus supplement, Avista Corp. will pay interest, if any, on each Debt Security on each interest payment date to the person in whose name such Debt Security is registered (the registered holder of any Indenture Security being called a “Holder”) as of the close of business on the regular record date relating to such interest payment date; provided, however, that Avista Corp. will pay interest at maturity (whether at stated maturity, upon redemption or otherwise, “Maturity”) to the person to whom principal is paid. However, if there has been a default in the payment of interest on any Debt Security, such defaulted interest may be payable to the Holder of such Debt Security as of the close of business on a date selected by the Trustee which is not more than 30 days and not less than 10 days before the date proposed by Avista Corp. for payment of such defaulted interest or in any other lawful manner not inconsistent with the requirements of any securities exchange on which such Debt Security may be listed, if the Trustee deems such manner of payment practicable. (See Section 307.)

Unless otherwise specified in the applicable prospectus supplement, Avista Corp. will pay the principal of and premium, if any, and interest, if any, on the Debt Securities at Maturity upon presentation of the Debt Securities at the corporate trust office of The Chase Manhattan Bank in New York, New York, as paying agent for Avista Corp. Avista Corp. may change the place of payment of the Debt Securities, may appoint one or more additional paying agents (including Avista Corp.) and may remove any paying agent, all at its discretion. (See Section 502.)

Registration and Transfer

Unless otherwise specified in the applicable prospectus supplement, Holders may register the transfer of Debt Securities, and may exchange Debt Securities for other Debt Securities of the same series and tranche, of authorized denominations and having the same terms and aggregate principal amount, at the corporate trust office of The Chase Manhattan Bank in New York, New York, as security registrar for the Debt Securities. Avista Corp. may change the place for registration of transfer and exchange of the Debt Securities, may appoint one or more additional security registrars (including Avista Corp.) and may remove any security registrar, all at its discretion. (See Section 502.) Except as otherwise provided in the applicable prospectus supplement, no service charge will be made for any transfer or exchange of the Debt Securities, but Avista Corp. may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with any registration of transfer or exchange of the Debt Securities. Avista Corp. will not be required to execute or to provide for the registration of transfer of or the exchange of (a) any Debt Security during a period of 15 days before giving any notice of redemption or (b) any Debt Security selected for redemption in whole or in part, except the unredeemed portion of any Debt Security being redeemed in part. (See Section 305.)

Redemption

The applicable prospectus supplement will set forth any terms for the optional or mandatory redemption of Debt Securities. Except as otherwise provided in the applicable prospectus supplement with respect to Debt Securities redeemable at the option of the Holder, Debt Securities will be redeemable only upon notice by mail not less than 30 nor more than 60 days before the date fixed for redemption. If less than all the Debt Securities of a series, or any tranche thereof, are to be redeemed, the particular Debt Securities to be redeemed will be selected by such method as shall be provided for such series or tranche, or in the absence of any such provision, by such method of random selection as the Security Registrar deems fair and appropriate. (See Sections 403 and 404.)

Any notice of redemption at the option of Avista Corp. may state that such redemption will be conditional upon receipt by the paying agent or agents, on or before the date fixed for such redemption, of money sufficient to pay the principal of and premium, if any, and interest, if any, on such Debt Securities and that if such money has not been so received, such notice will be of no force or effect and Avista Corp. will not be required to redeem such Debt Securities. (See Section 404.)

Satisfaction And Discharge

Any Indenture Securities, or any portion of the principal amount thereof, will be deemed to have been paid for purposes of the Indenture and, at Avista Corp.'s election, the entire indebtedness of Avista Corp. in respect thereof will be deemed to have been satisfied and discharged, if there shall have been irrevocably deposited with the Trustee or any Paying Agent (other than Avista Corp.), in trust:

(a) money in an amount which will be sufficient, or

(b) in the case of a deposit made before the maturity of such Indenture Securities, Eligible Obligations, which do not contain provisions permitting the redemption or other prepayment thereof at the option of the issuer thereof, the principal of and the interest on which when due, without any regard to reinvestment thereof, will provide moneys which, together with the money, if any, deposited with or held by the Trustee or such Paying Agent, will be sufficient, or

- (c) a combination of (a) and (b) which will be sufficient, to pay when due the principal of and premium, if any, and interest, if any, due and to become due on such Indenture Securities. For this purpose, Eligible Obligations include direct obligations of, or obligations unconditionally guaranteed by, the United States, entitled to the benefit of the full faith and credit thereof and certificates, depositary receipts or other instruments which evidence a direct ownership interest in such obligations or in any specific interest or principal payments due in respect thereof and such other obligations or instruments as shall be specified in an accompanying prospectus supplement. (See Section 601.)

The right of Avista Corp. to cause its entire indebtedness in respect of the Indenture Securities of any series to be deemed to be satisfied and discharged as described above will be subject to the satisfaction of conditions specified in the instrument creating such series.

The Indenture will be deemed to have been satisfied and discharged when no Indenture Securities remain outstanding thereunder and Avista Corp. has paid or caused to be paid all other sums payable by Avista Corp. under the Indenture. (See Section 602.)

Events of Default

Any one or more of the following events with respect to a series of Indenture Securities that has occurred and is continuing will constitute an "Event of Default" with respect to such series of Indenture Securities:

(a) failure to pay interest on any Indenture Security of such series within 60 days after the same becomes due and payable; provided, however, that no such failure shall constitute an Event of Default if Avista Corp. has made a valid extension of the interest payment period with respect to the Indenture Securities of such series if so provided with respect to such series; or

(b) failure to pay the principal of or premium, if any, on any Indenture Security of such series within 3 business days after its Maturity; provided, however, that no such failure will constitute an Event of Default if Avista Corp. has made a valid extension of the Maturity of the Indenture Securities of such series, if so provided with respect to such series; or

(c) failure to perform, or breach of, any covenant or warranty of Avista Corp. contained in the Indenture for 90 days after written notice to Avista Corp. from the Trustee or to Avista Corp. and the Trustee by the Holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the Outstanding Indenture Securities of such series as provided in the Indenture unless the Trustee, or the Trustee and the Holders of a principal amount of Securities of such series not less than the principal amount of Indenture Securities the Holders of which gave such notice, as the case may be, agree in writing to an extension of such period before its expiration; provided, however, that the Trustee, or the Trustee and the Holders of such principal amount of Indenture Securities of such series, as the case may be, will be deemed to have agreed to an extension of such period if corrective action is initiated by Avista Corp. within such period and is being diligently pursued; or

(d) default under any bond, debenture, note or other evidence of indebtedness of Avista Corp. for borrowed money (including Indenture Securities of other series) or under any mortgage, indenture, or other instrument to evidence any indebtedness of Avista Corp. for borrowed money, which default (1) constitutes a failure to make any payment in excess of $5,000,000 of the principal of, or interest on, such indebtedness or (2) has resulted in such indebtedness in an amount in excess of $10,000,000 becoming or being declared due and payable prior to the date it would otherwise have become due and payable, without such payment having been made, such indebtedness having been discharged, or such acceleration having been rescinded or annulled, within a period of 90 days after written notice to Avista Corp. by the Trustee or to Avista Corp. and the Trustee by the Holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the Outstanding Securities of such series as provided in the Indenture,

(e) certain events in bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization of Avista Corp. (See Section 701.)

(See Section 701.)

Remedies

Acceleration of Maturity

If an Event of Default applicable to the Indenture Securities of any series occurs and is continuing, then either the Trustee or the Holders of not less than 33% in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Indenture Securities of such series may declare the principal amount (or, if any of the Outstanding Indenture Securities of such series are Discount Securities, such portion of the principal amount thereof as may be specified in the terms thereof) of all of the Outstanding Indenture Securities of such series to be due and payable immediately by written notice to Avista Corp. (and to the Trustee if given by the Holders); provided, however, that if an Event of Default occurs and is continuing with respect to more than one series of Indenture Securities, the Trustee or the Holders of not less than 33% in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Indenture Securities of all such series, considered as one class, may make such declaration of acceleration and not the Holders of the Indenture Securities of any one such series.

At any time after such a declaration of acceleration with respect to the Indenture Securities of any series has been made, but before a judgment or decree for payment of the money due has been obtained, such declaration and its consequences will, without further act, be deemed to have been rescinded and annulled, if

(a) Avista Corp. has paid or deposited with the Trustee a sum sufficient to pay

(1) all overdue interest, if any, on all Indenture Securities of such series;

(2) the principal of and premium, if any, on any Indenture Securities of such series which have become due otherwise than by such declaration of acceleration and interest, if any, thereon at the rate or rates prescribed therefor in such Indenture Securities;

(3) interest, if any, upon overdue interest, if any, at the rate or rates prescribed therefor in such Indenture Securities, to the extent that payment of such interest is lawful; and

(4) all amounts due to the Trustee under the Indenture in respect of compensation and reimbursement of expenses; and

(b) all Events of Default with respect to Indenture Securities of such series, other than the non-payment of the principal of the Indenture Securities of such series which has become due solely by such declaration of acceleration, have been cured or waived as provided in the Indenture. (See Section 702.)

Right to Direct Proceedings

If an Event of Default with respect to the Indenture Securities of any series occurs and is continuing, the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Indenture Securities of such series will have the right to direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceedings for any remedy available to the Trustee in exercising any trust or power conferred on the Trustee; provided, however, that if an Event of Default occurs and is continuing with respect to more than one series of Indenture Securities, the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Indenture Securities of all such series, considered as one class, will have the right to make such direction, and not the Holders of the Indenture Securities of any one of such series; and provided, further, that (a) such direction does not conflict with any rule of law or with the Indenture, and could not involve the Trustee in personal liability in circumstances where indemnity would not, in the Trustee's sole discretion, be adequate and (b) the Trustee may take any other action deemed proper by the Trustee which is not inconsistent with such direction. (See Section 712.)

Limitation on Right to Institute Proceedings

No Holder of any Indenture Security will have any right to institute any proceeding, judicial or otherwise, with respect to the Indenture or for the appointment of a receiver or for any other remedy thereunder unless:

(a) such Holder has previously given to the Trustee written notice of a continuing Event of Default with respect to the Indenture Securities of any one or more series;

(b) the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Indenture Securities of all series in respect of which such Event of Default has occurred, considered as one class, have made written request to the Trustee to institute proceedings in respect of such Event of Default and have offered the Trustee reasonable indemnity against costs and liabilities to be incurred in complying with such request; and

(c) for 60 days after receipt of such notice, the Trustee has failed to institute any such proceeding and no direction inconsistent with such request has been given to the Trustee during such 60 day period by the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of Indenture Securities then Outstanding.

Furthermore, no Holder of Indenture Securities of any series will be entitled to institute any such action if and to the extent that such action would disturb or prejudice the rights of other Holders of Indenture Securities of such series. (See Section 707.)

No Impairment of Right to Receive Payment

Notwithstanding that the right of a Holder to institute a proceeding with respect to the Indenture is subject to certain conditions precedent, each Holder of an Indenture Security will have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to receive payment of the principal of and premium, if any, and interest, if any, on such Indenture Security when due and to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment, and such rights may not be impaired or affected without the consent of such Holder. (See Section 708.)

Notice of Default

The Trustee is required to give the Holders notice of any default under the Indenture to the extent required by the Trust Indenture Act, unless such default shall have been cured or waived, except that no such notice to Holders of a default of the character described in clause (c) under “- Events of Default” may be given until at least 75 days after the occurrence thereof. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the term “default” means any event which is, or after notice or lapse of time, or both, would become, an Event of Default. The Trust Indenture Act currently permits the Trustee to withhold notices of default (except for certain payment defaults) if the Trustee in good faith determines the withholding of such notice to be in the interests of the Holders. (See Section 802.)

Consolidation, Merger, Sale of Assets and Other Transactions

Avista Corp. may not consolidate with or merge into any other Person, or convey or otherwise transfer, or lease, all of its properties, as or substantially as an entirety, to any Person, unless:

(a) the Person formed by such consolidation or into which Avista Corp. is merged or the Person which acquires by conveyance or other transfer, or which leases (for a term extending beyond the last Stated Maturity of the Indenture Securities then Outstanding), all of the properties of Avista Corp., as or substantially as an entirety, shall be a Person organized and existing under the laws of the United States, any State or Territory thereof or the District of Columbia or under the laws of Canada or any Province thereof; and

(b) such Person shall expressly assume the due and punctual payment of the principal of and premium, if any, and interest, if any, on all the Indenture Securities then Outstanding and the performance and observance of every covenant and condition of the Indenture to be performed or observed by Avista Corp.

In the case of the conveyance or other transfer of all of the properties of Avista Corp., as or substantially as an entirety, to any person as contemplated above, Avista Corp. would be released and discharged from all obligations under the Indenture and on all Indenture Securities then outstanding unless Avista Corp. elects to waive such release and discharge. Upon any such consolidation or merger or any such conveyance or other transfer of properties of Avista Corp., the successor, transferee or lessee would succeed to, and be substituted for, and would be entitled to exercise every power and right of, Avista Corp. under the Indenture. (See Sections 1001, 1002 and 1003.)

For purposes of the Indenture, the conveyance, transfer or lease by Avista Corp. of all of its facilities:

- (a) for the generation of electric energy,
- (b) for the transmission of electric energy,
- (c) for the distribution of electric energy and/or natural gas, in each case considered alone,
- (d) all of its facilities described in clauses (a) and (b), considered together, or

- (e) all of its facilities described in clauses (b) and (c), considered together, will in no event be deemed to constitute a conveyance or other transfer of all the properties of Avista Corp., as or substantially as an entirety, unless, immediately following such conveyance, transfer or lease, Avista Corp. owns no unleased properties in the other such categories of property not so conveyed or otherwise transferred or leased.

The Indenture will not prevent or restrict:

(a) any consolidation or merger after the consummation of which Avista Corp. would be the surviving or resulting entity, or

(b) any conveyance or other transfer, or lease, of any part of the properties of Avista Corp. which does not constitute the entirety, or substantially the entirety, thereof. (See Section 1004.)

If Avista Corp. conveys or otherwise transfers any part of its properties which does not constitute the entirety, or substantially the entirety, thereof to another Person meeting the requirements set forth in the first paragraph under this heading, and if:

(a) such transferee expressly assumes the due and punctual payment of the principal of and premium, if any, and interest, if any, on all Indenture Securities then outstanding and the performance and observance of every covenant and condition of the Indenture to be performed or observed by Avista Corp.; and

(b) there is delivered to the Trustee an independent expert's certificate (i) describing the property so conveyed or transferred and identifying the same as facilities for the generation, transmission or distribution of electric energy or for the storage, transportation or distribution of natural gas and (ii) stating that the aggregate principal amount of the Indenture Securities then outstanding does not exceed 70% of the fair value of such property, then Avista Corp. would be released and discharged from all obligations and covenants under the Indenture and on all Indenture Securities then outstanding unless Avista Corp. elects to waive such release and discharge. In such event, the transferee would succeed to, and be substituted for, and would be entitled to exercise every right and power of, Avista Corp. under the Indenture. (See Section 1005.)

Modification of Indenture

Modifications Without Consent

Avista Corp. and the Trustee may enter into one or more supplemental indentures, without the consent of any Holders of Indenture Securities, for any of the following purposes:

(a) to evidence the succession of another Person to Avista Corp. and the assumption by any such successor of the covenants of Avista Corp. in the Indenture and in the Indenture Securities; or

(b) to add one or more covenants of Avista Corp. or other provisions for the benefit of all Holders of Indenture Securities or for the benefit of the Holders of, or to remain in effect only so long as there shall be Outstanding, Indenture Securities of one or more specified series, or one or more Tranches thereof, or to surrender any right or power conferred upon Avista Corp. by the Indenture; or

(c) to change or eliminate any provisions of the Indenture or to add any new provisions to the Indenture, provided that if such change, elimination or addition adversely affects the interests of the Holders of the Indenture Securities of any series or Tranche in any material respect, such change, elimination or addition will become effective with respect to such series or Tranche only when no Indenture Security of such series or Tranche remains Outstanding; or

(d) to provide collateral security for the Indenture Securities or any series thereof; or

(e) to establish the form or terms of the Indenture Securities of any series or Tranche as permitted by the Indenture; or

(f) to provide for the authentication and delivery of bearer securities and coupons appertaining thereto representing interest, if any, thereon and for the procedures for the registration, exchange and replacement thereof and for the giving of notice to, and the solicitation of the vote or consent of, the Holders thereof, and for any and all other matters incidental thereto; or

(g) to evidence and provide for the acceptance of appointment by a successor trustee with respect to the Indenture Securities of one or more series; or

(h) to provide for the procedures required to permit the utilization of a non-certificated system of registration for all, or any series or Tranche of, the Indenture Securities; or

(i) to change any place or places where (1) the principal of and premium, if any, and interest, if any, on all or any series of Indenture Securities, or any Tranche thereof, will be payable, (2) all or any series of Indenture Securities, or any Tranche thereof, may be surrendered for registration of transfer, (3) all or any series of Indenture Securities, or any Tranche thereof, may be surrendered for exchange and (4) notices and demands to or upon Avista Corp. in respect of all or any series of Indenture Securities, or any Tranche thereof, and the Indenture may be served; or

(j) to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision therein which may be defective or inconsistent with any other provision therein, or to make any other changes to the provisions thereof or to add any other provisions with respect to matters and questions arising under the Indenture, so long as such other changes or additions do not adversely affect the interests of the Holders of Indenture Securities of any series or Tranche in any material respect.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, if the Trust Indenture Act is amended after the date of the Original Indenture in such a way as to require changes to the Indenture or the incorporation therein of additional provisions or so as to permit changes to, or the elimination of, provisions which, at the date of the Original Indenture or at any time thereafter, were required by the Trust Indenture Act to be contained in the Indenture, the Indenture will be deemed to have been amended so as to conform to such amendment or to effect such changes or elimination, and Avista Corp. and the Trustee may, without the consent of any Holders of Indenture Securities, enter into one or more supplemental indentures to evidence or effect such amendment. (See Section 1101.)

Modifications Requiring Consent

Except as provided above, the consent of the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Indenture Securities of all series then Outstanding, considered as one class is required for the purpose of adding any provisions to, or changing in any manner, or eliminating any of the provisions of, the Indenture pursuant to one or more supplemental indentures; provided, however, that if less than all of the series of Indenture Securities Outstanding are directly affected by a proposed supplemental indenture, then the consent only of the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Indenture Securities of all series so directly affected, considered as one class, will be required; and provided, further, that if the Indenture Securities of any series have been issued in more than one Tranche and if the proposed supplemental indenture directly affects the rights of the Holders of one or more, but less than all, of such Tranches, then the consent only of the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Indenture Securities of all Tranches so directly affected, considered as one class, will be required; and provided, further, that no such amendment or modification may:

(a) change the Stated Maturity of the principal of, or any installment of principal of or interest on, any Indenture Security other than pursuant to the terms thereof, or reduce the principal amount thereof or the rate of interest thereon (or the amount of any installment of interest thereon) or change the method of calculating such rate or reduce any premium payable upon the redemption thereof, or reduce the amount of the principal of any Discount Security that would be due and payable upon a declaration of acceleration of Maturity or change the coin or currency (or other property) in which any Indenture Security or any premium or the interest thereon is payable, or impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or after the Stated Maturity of any Indenture Security (or, in the case of redemption, on or after the redemption date) without, in any such case, the consent of the Holder of such Indenture Security;

(b) reduce the percentage in principal amount of the Outstanding Indenture Securities of any series, or any Tranche thereof, the consent of the Holders of which is required for any such supplemental indenture, or the consent of the Holders of which is required for any waiver of compliance with any provision of the Indenture or of any default thereunder and its consequences, or reduce the requirements for quorum or voting, without, in any such case, the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Indenture Security of such series or Tranche; or

(c) modify certain of the provisions of the Indenture relating to supplemental indentures, waivers of certain covenants and waivers of past defaults with respect to the Indenture Securities of any series, or any Tranche thereof, without the consent of the Holder of each outstanding Indenture Security of such series or Tranche.

A supplemental indenture which changes or eliminates any covenant or other provision of the Indenture which has expressly been included solely for the benefit of the Holders of, or which is to remain in effect only so long as there shall be Outstanding, Indenture Securities of one or more specified series, or one or more Tranches thereof, or modifies the rights of the Holders of Indenture Securities of such series or Tranche with respect to such covenant or other provision, will be deemed not to affect the rights under the Indenture of the Holders of the Indenture Securities of any other series or Tranche.

If the supplemental indenture or other document establishing any series or Tranche of Indenture Securities so provides, and as specified in the applicable prospectus supplement and/or pricing supplement, the Holders of such Indenture Securities will be deemed to have consented, by virtue of their purchase of such Indenture Securities, to a supplemental indenture containing the additions, changes or eliminations to or from the Indenture which are specified in such supplemental indenture or other document, no Act of such Holders will be required to evidence such consent and such consent may be counted in the determination of whether the Holders of the requested principal amount of Indenture Securities have consented to such supplemental indenture. (See Section 1102.)

Duties of the Trustee; Resignation; Removal

The Trustee will have, and will be subject to, all the duties and responsibilities specified with respect to an indenture trustee under the Trust Indenture Act. Subject to such provisions, the Trustee will be under no obligation to exercise any of the powers vested in it by the Indenture at the request of any Holder of Indenture Securities, unless such Holder offers it reasonable indemnity against the costs, expenses and liabilities which might be incurred thereby. The Trustee will not be required to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur personal financial liability in the performance of its duties if the Trustee reasonably believes that repayment or adequate indemnity is not reasonably assured to it. (See Sections 801 and 803.)

The Trustee may resign at any time with respect to the Indenture Securities of one or more series by giving written notice thereof to Avista Corp. or may be removed at any time with respect to the Indenture Securities of one or more series by Act of the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding Indenture Securities of such series delivered to the Trustee and Avista Corp. No resignation or removal of the Trustee and no appointment of a successor trustee will become effective until the acceptance of appointment by a successor trustee in accordance with the requirements of the Indenture. So long as no Event of Default or event which, after notice or lapse of time, or both, would become an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, if Avista Corp. has delivered to the Trustee with respect to one or more series a resolution of its Board of Directors appointing a successor trustee with respect to that or those series and such successor has accepted such appointment in accordance with the terms of the Indenture, the Trustee with respect to that or those series will be deemed to have resigned and the successor will be deemed to have been appointed as trustee in accordance with the Indenture. (See Section 810.)

Evidence of Compliance

Compliance with the Indenture provisions is evidenced by written statements of Avista Corp. officers or persons selected or paid by Avista Corp. In certain cases, Avista Corp. must furnish opinions of counsel and certifications of an engineer, appraiser or other expert (who in some cases must be independent). In addition, the Indenture requires that Avista Corp. give the Trustee, not less than annually, a brief statement as to Avista Corp.'s compliance with the conditions and covenants under the Indenture.

Governing Law

The Indenture and the Indenture Securities will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, except to the extent that the Trust Indenture of 1939, as amended, shall be applicable.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

Avista Corp. may sell the Debt Securities in any of four ways: (a) directly to a limited number of institutional purchasers or to a single purchaser, (b) through agents, (c) through underwriters or (d) through dealers. The applicable prospectus supplement relating to each series of Debt Securities will set forth the terms of the offering of such Debt Securities, including the name or names of any such agents, underwriters or dealers, the purchase price of such Debt Securities and the net proceeds to Avista Corp. from such sale, any underwriting discounts and other items constituting underwriters' compensation, the initial public offering price and any discounts or concessions allowed or reallocated or paid to dealers. Any initial public offering price and any discounts or concessions allowed or reallocated or paid to dealers may be changed from time to time.

If Avista Corp. uses underwriters to sell Debt Securities, the underwriters will acquire such Debt Securities for their own account and may resell them in one or more transactions, including negotiated transactions, at a fixed public offering price or at varying prices determined at the time of sale. Unless otherwise set forth in the prospectus supplement relating to a series of Debt Securities, the obligations of any underwriter or underwriters to purchase such Debt Securities will be subject to certain conditions precedent, and such underwriter or underwriters will be obligated to purchase all of such Debt Securities if any are purchased, except that, in certain cases involving a default by one or more underwriters, less than all of such Debt Securities may be purchased.

If an agent of Avista Corp. is used in any sale of a series of Debt Securities, any commissions payable by Avista Corp. to such agent will be set forth in the applicable prospectus supplement relating to such Debt Securities. Unless otherwise indicated in the applicable prospectus supplement, any such agent will be acting on a best efforts basis for the period of its appointment.

Any underwriters, dealers or agents participating in the distribution of the Debt Securities may be deemed to be underwriters, and any discounts or commissions received by them on the sale or resale of Debt Securities may be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions, under the Securities Act. Agents, underwriters and dealers may be entitled under agreements entered into with Avista Corp. to indemnification by Avista Corp. against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act.

Unless otherwise provided in the applicable prospectus supplement relating to a series of Debt Securities, Avista Corp. does not intend to apply for the listing of the Notes on a national securities exchange, but has been advised by the agents that they intend to make a market in the Notes, as permitted by applicable laws and regulations. The agents are not obligated to do so, however, and the agents may discontinue making a market at any time without notice. No assurance can be given as to the liquidity of any trading market for the Notes.

The agents and/or certain of their affiliates may engage in transactions with and perform services for Avista Corp. and certain of its affiliates in the ordinary course of business.
