The Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) believes that you have committed a violation of Washington Administrative Code (WAC) 480-30-071 which requires charter and excursion carriers to file annual reports with the Commission by December 31 each year. You are classified as such a company. Commission records show that you did not make the filing by the required date of December 31, 2009. Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 81.04.405 allows penalties of $100 for every such violation. Each and every such violation shall be a separate and distinct offense and, in the case of a continuing violation, every day's continuance shall be and be deemed to be a separate and distinct violation.

As a result, the Commission hereby notifies you that it has assessed penalties against you in the amount $100, as follows:

On November 3, 2009, the Commission mailed 2009 Annual Safety Report forms and 2010 Regulatory Fee packets to charter and excursion carriers registered in Washington State. A letter from Executive Director and Secretary David W. Danner instructed companies to file annual safety reports and pay regulatory fees by December 31, 2009. Further, the letter stated failure to file the annual safety report by December 31 would result in a penalty and possible cancellation of the company's permit to operate in Washington. Those companies wishing to request an extension to file the annual safety report were asked to do so prior to December 31, providing a reason for the requested extension. You did not request an extension.

On January 15, 2010, the Commission sent letters to those companies that had not yet filed their reports. The letter, signed by David W. Danner, gave an extension to companies to file their reports by January 29, 2010. In the letter, Mr. Danner stated the Commission would not seek to penalize any company with a report received postmarked by January 29, 2010.

On February 1, 2010, the Commission received Travel NW Style, LLC's 2009 Annual Safety Report. It was postmarked January 30, 2010.

This information, if proved at a hearing and not rebutted or explained, is sufficient to support the penalty assessment.

Your penalty is due and payable now. If you believe the violation did not occur, you may request a hearing to contest the penalty assessment. If there is a reason for the violation that you think should excuse you from the penalty, you may ask for mitigation (reduction) of this penalty. See RCW 81.04.405.

You have the right to present your request for review or mitigation at a hearing, but you are not required to do so. If you do, the Commission will review the evidence supporting your request in an informal hearing, called a Brief Adjudicative Proceeding, before an administrative law judge. The administrative law judge will consider your plea and notify you of his or her decision.

You must act within 15 days after receiving this notice to do one of the following:

- Pay the amount due.
- Request a hearing to contest the occurrence of the violations.
- Request mitigation to contest the amount of the penalty.

Please indicate your selection on the enclosed form and send it to the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission, Post Office Box 47250, Olympia, Washington 98504-7250, within FIFTEEN (15) days after you receive this notice.

If you do not act within 15 days, the Commission may refer this matter to the Office of the Attorney General for collection. The Commission may then sue you to collect the penalty.

DATED at Olympia, Washington, and effective February 18, 2010.

ANN E. RENDAHL
Administrative Law Judge

RE: Penalty Assessment TE-100277
Penalty Amount: $100
Service date: Feb 19, 2010

We admit to the violation, as stated in the Penalty Assessment Letter dated February 19, 2010. Please, however, consider our request for an administrative decision concerning the matter.

We'd like to request a lesser penalty assessment based on our report being postmarked 1 day later than the deadline of January 29, 2010. We did drop the report in a USPS mailbox reciprocal on January 29, 2010 at approximately 5:30pm (which is the scheduled time of the last mail pickup for the day), but must have missed the pickup for the letter to be postmarked that same day. We do agree this is entirely our error, and would simply ask your consideration for a penalty reduction being our company is a year old and finances are very limited.

Thank you in advance for your kind consideration.

Sincere Regards,
