RE:

Penalty for late filing, 2013 Annual Report

I ask that the Commission reduce the penalty amount for the late filing of our report. I did file late but I had good reason. I was awaiting accurate numbers from my accounting company. Much of the work is done at the same time as my taxes. The company I used had to file for an extension and I was pressing to get the essential information to include all of it in my report. I was hard pressed to get the information I needed prior to the end of May. I anticipated having everything complete by mid April to then prepare the report. One thing after another and the individuals in charge of my accounting were not available. I realize I did not file an extension which if this happens again, I will take advantage of that opportunity. I simply didn't have all of the data to provide. Please consider this when making your decision. I would certainly appreciate some relief.
