Re: TN-240347 – Approving Name Change

Dear Community in Motion:

The Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) issued certificate NPC068919 to Human Services Council authorizing the services described in the certificate.

On May 14, 2024, Community in Motion filed an application to change the name from Human Service Council to Community in Motion and requests the Commission amend its records to reflect new name. The name change request does not involve a change in the ownership, management or control of operating authority held by Community in Motion.

The Commission grants the application and amends its records to reflect certificate NPC068919 is held in the name of Community in Motion. The company's revised certificate NPC068919 is enclosed.
