Basic Description:

On or about July 1, 2022, Tom Wise of Tank Wise LLC clipped a 5/8th gas line with his backhoe. According to both eyewitness reporting and PSE's assessment (CR #22-69-3001960864) Tom Wise failed to pothole as required which resulted in willfully negligent damages. Tom Wise was charged $899.06 by PSE for an emergency cut and cap. Unbeknownst to me, the property owner, he worked with the primary contractor, DYNA Builders, and arranged to pass that cost along to me. Neither Dyna nor Tom Wise made me aware of this. More importantly, neither Dyna nor Tom Wise notified me that they had cut the gas line and the financial and disruptive consequences of that action. Neither Dyna nor Tom Wise filed a DIRT report. When I asked why there was a 6-8" metal plate in the front yard (the cut and cap fixture) I was told it was just some standard PSE work. It wasn't until 14 months later, when I received a $4,500 PSE invoice that I came to understand what had happened. Total damages amount to around $10k
