Re: UG-250754 - Thermostat Rewards Program – Schedule 235 – Temporary Adjustments to Rates for Thermostat Rewards Program – Withdrawal of Page – DO NOT REDOCKET

On October 6, 2025, Northwest Natural Gas Company, dba NW Natural (“NW Natural” or “the Company”), filed a tariff revision in the above-mentioned docket, seeking to introduce tariff schedules for its proposed Thermostat Rewards Program. The filing included proposed tariff Schedule R – Thermostat Rewards Program and Schedule 235 – Temporary Adjustments to Rates for Thermostat Rewards Program.

After discussions with Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission Staff, NW Natural requests to withdraw Schedule 235 from consideration as part of the Company’s Thermostat Rewards Program in this docket. Staff requested that NW Natural withdraw Schedule 235 and instead propose the rate recovery tariff in a future filing when it requests cost recovery. Therefore, the Company requests to withdraw Schedule 235 (Sheet 235.1) from the filing in this docket. There is no change to NW Natural’s filed proposed Schedule R – Thermostat Rewards Program.
