We can address staff's request to withdraw later. MS. CARSON: I'm sorry. JUDGE DOROSHKIN: So the procedural schedule, is there agreement between PSE and the complainants including the Tulalip Tribe? MR. STOKES: Yes, Your Honor. JUDGE DOROSHKIN: Okay. Why don't we read that into the record and then go on to staff's request for withdrawal. MR. STOKES: So the dates that we've agreed upon, we have settlement conference the week of December 9th. Was that December 10th? MS. CARSON: We're agreeable to December 10th.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	Ms. Carson, you were beginning to address that point. MS. CARSON: Yes. Thank you, Your Honor. Having now talked with my client about that, we think that it would be helpful to have staff as a party. The penalties at issue here were passed through the PSE's purchase gas adjustment, PGA, mechanism; and to the extent there's any kind of refund, if there were decided to be to these customers, we would want staff to be a part of that decision as well. So we ask that staff remain a party to this case. JUDGE DOROSHKIN: Mr. Stokes, do you have anything to add? MR. STOKES: I don't have an objection to that. It may make sense to at least have them do the settlement conference; and then if we get beyond that, maybe they drop out then. That's another approach. MS. CARSON: That's a possibility. JUDGE DOROSHKIN: Okay. And does staff have

           As I said before, both parties are ably 2 represented by counsel, and so staff was confident that this issue could be resolved without their intervention.
           But that being said, obviously if ALD would like them to be involved, they will be. Thank you.

           JUDGE DOROSHKIN: All right. I will take 7 that issue under advisement and address that in the prehearing conference order.
 9
           Does anyone else have anything to add on 10 that?
11
           MR. STOKES: No.
12
           JUDGE DOROSHKIN: Is there anything else
   that we need to address today?
14
           MR. STOKES: No, Your Honor.
15
           MR. CALLAGHAN: No, Your Honor.
           MS. CARSON: No, Your Honor.
16
17
           JUDGE DOROSHKIN: Okay. Then I will issue
18 an order shortly with the procedural schedule and the other matters that we discussed here shortly.
20
           So we are adjourned. Thank you.
21
           MR. STOKES: Thank you.
22
           MR. CALLAGHAN: Thank you.
23
           MS. CARSON: Thank you.
