PURPOSE, SCOPE, AND AUTHORITY

Purpose

The purpose of this investigation is to determine whether Shuttle Express, Inc., d/b/a Shuttle Express, Go Shuttle Express, Limos by Shuttle Express, and Downtown Airporter, (Shuttle Express or Company) is in compliance with Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (commission) laws and rules outlined in Washington Administrative Code (WAC) 480-30 and Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 81.68, and to determine whether Shuttle Express is in compliance with its commission-approved tariff.

Scope

The scope of this investigation focuses on information obtained by commission staff (staff) relating to Shuttle Express's auto transportation operations between December 1, 2019, and January 31, 2020.

Authority

Staff undertakes this investigation pursuant to RCW 81.01.010, which adopts provisions of RCW 80.01 to include RCW 80.01.040, which directs the commission to regulate passenger transportation companies in the public interest. In addition, RCW 81.04.070 grants the commission specific authority to conduct such an investigation.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

On November 17, 2017, Shuttle Express was penalized $120,000 in the Final Order of consolidated Dockets TC-143691, TC-160516, and TC-161257 for 35,351 violations of WAC 480-30-213 when it used independent contractors to provide auto transportation service. The Company was also found to be combining its scheduled and door-to-door service in violation of WAC 480-30-346(2)(d). On October 16, 2019, staff received notification that Shuttle Express was not operating its scheduled service as required per Tariff No. 11 (tariff).

Due to the information received, staff reviewed Shuttle Express's trip records from December 1, 2019, to January 31, 2020, and discovered a total of 23,313 violations. Staff found Shuttle Express violated its commission-approved tariff, and the following rules in WAC Chapter 480-30:

- WAC 480-30-056(3)(a)(i)(A), Records retention, auto transportation company; Customer service records.
- WAC 480-30-276(2), Tariffs and time schedules, companies must comply with the provisions of filed tariffs and time schedules; Time schedules
- WAC 480-30-346(2)(d), Tariffs and time schedules, page format; Time schedule.

Penalty Recommendation

While the law allows the commission to assess a penalty of up to $1,000 per violation, staff believes the full penalty of $23,313,000 is disproportionate to the Company's annual reported revenue. Staff recommends the commission issue a formal complaint against Shuttle Express, and assess a penalty of up to $409,030 for 23,313 violations of commission regulations, as follows:

- Up to $190,910 for 19,091 violations of WAC 480-30-276(2) for failing to provide service along all routes, and to all points, listed on the Company's filed time schedule.
- Up to $20,120 for 4,024 violations of WAC 480-30-056(3)(a)(i)(A) for failing to maintain complete and accurate customer service records pertaining to schedules operated.
- Up to $198,000 for 198 violations of WAC 480-30-346(2)(d) for failing to list each flag stop, and any point to which service is provided in the Company's time schedule.

BACKGROUND

Company Information

Washington Secretary of State (SOS) records indicate Shuttle Express registered in the state of Washington as a for-profit corporation on October 26, 1970.<sup>1</sup> SOS records list Jimy Sherrell and Kaaren Sherrell as the governing people, and names Jimy Sherrell as the registered agent.

A review of Shuttle Express's complaint history with the commission reveals no informal consumer complaints filed against the Company over the last three years.

COMPLIANCE HISTORY

Docket TC-072228

On April 28, 2008, the commission assessed penalties against Shuttle Express in the amount of $9,500 for 95 violations of WAC 480-30-213(2) because the Company used drivers who were not employees to provide passenger transportation services under Shuttle Express's certificate between September 1 and September 30, 2007.

On July 11, 2008, the commission issued Order 01, approving and adopting the settlement agreement in full between Shuttle Express and staff. As part of the settlement agreement, Shuttle Express: (1) admitted its independent contractor driver program violated WAC 480-30-213(2), (2) agreed to pay a penalty in the amount of $9,500, and (3) agreed to comply with all applicable rules and statutes enforced by the commission in the settlement agreement.

Docket TC-091931

On December 16, 2009, Shuttle Express filed an application to remove restrictive language from its existing certificate that “service may be provided in vehicles no larger than a seven-passenger van.” On November 30, 2010, Shuttle Express conceded during a proceeding that its fleet consisted mostly of 10 passenger vans.<sup>6</sup>

On February 25, 2011, the commission entered Order 04, which granted Shuttle Express’s application to remove the restrictive language from its certificate. Order 04 noted:

We nevertheless remind [Shuttle Express] that WAC 480-30-276 requires that auto transportation companies abide by the tariffs and time schedules on file with the Commission and that WAC 480-30-286 directs carriers to post in each vehicle a copy of the schedule and fares for each route served by that vehicle. Commission Staff may also wish to investigate these claims further.<sup>7</sup>

On March 15, 2011, a petition for administrative review of Order 04 was filed. On April 14, 2011, the commission entered Order 05, which amended Shuttle Express’s certificate to remove the restriction of using vehicles no larger than seven passenger vans. Order 05 noted, “We are troubled that Shuttle Express has been exceeding the limitation in its Certificate, but this is not an enforcement proceeding.”<sup>8</sup>

On May 1, 2013, staff filed a complaint against Shuttle Express alleging that between October 2010 and September 2011, the Company’s operation of its “rescue service” was an unlawful independent contractor program. The complaint alleged that: (1) Shuttle Express violated WAC 480-30-213(2) on 5,715 occasions by relying on independent contractors to transport passengers rather than using Company employees as required by the rule, (2) Shuttle Express failed to maintain sufficient reserve equipment in violation of WAC 480-30-216(6), (3) Shuttle Express improperly released private customer information to independent contractors in violation of WAC 480-30-456, and (4) the Company’s independent contractor program was a repeat offense, violating the terms of Order 01 in Docket TC-072228.

On November 1, 2013, the commission entered Order 03, which determined that Shuttle Express: (1) violated WAC 480-30-213(2) on 5,715 occasions between October 2010 and September 2011 by using independent contractors to provide regulated auto transportation service, (2) had sufficient reserve equipment and thus did not violate WAC 480-30-216(6), (3) violated WAC 480-30-456 on 5,715 occasions by releasing private customer information to independent contractors, and (4) violated Order 01 in Docket TC-072228 on 5,715 occasions by operating an independent contractor program. Order 03 assessed a penalty of $120,000 on the Company and suspended an $85,000 portion of the penalty for three years, subject to conditions.

On January 3, 2014, Shuttle Express filed a petition for administrative review challenging the findings and conclusions of Order 03.

On March 19, 2014, the commission entered Order 04, which found that Shuttle Express: (1) violated WAC 480-30-213(2) on 5,715 occasions between October 2010 and September 2011, (2) did not violate WAC 480-30-456 by providing customer information to independent contractors, and (3) violated Order 01 in Docket TC-072228. Order 04 reduced the previously assessed penalty of $120,000 to $60,000 and required Shuttle Express to pay the entire penalty within 30 days.

In discussing whether Shuttle Express's violations were willful, Order 04 noted:

A prudent company would have consulted with Staff, and if necessary sought a ruling from the Commission, on the permissibility of the "rescue service" before initiating it, or at least when the Company became aware of Staff and the Commission's concerns. Shuttle Express chose not to do so, despite the long history of the Commission and Staff rejecting the Company's attempts to use independent contractors to provide regulated service. The clear implication is that, not having received the answer it wanted in the past, Shuttle Express decided to continue the program without asking, believing that seeking forgiveness would be preferable to requesting permission. Indeed, that was precisely the Company's calculus when it began operating the program at issue in Docket TC-072228. Jimmy Sherrell, the Company's president, testified that "I chose to put it in place, hoping that it would be ignored, and it wasn't, so I paid a fine and I discontinued the service."<sup>9</sup>

Docket TC-132141

On November 19, 2013, Shuttle Express filed a petition for a temporary and conditional exemption from compliance with WAC 480-30-213(2) and WAC 480-30-456 to allow the Company to operate its "rescue service" from December 13, 2013, to January 15, 2014. On December 13, 2013, the commission issued Order 01, which granted Shuttle Express's petition with conditions, and emphasized that the commission is "not condoning Shuttle Express's past practices and do not address, much less make any determinations on, the issues raised in Docket TC-120323. Nor are we endorsing the 'rescue service' or making any conclusion that this service is authorized or permissible under applicable law, including RCW 81.68 and Commission rules governing auto transportation companies."<sup>10</sup>

Dockets TC-143691, TC-160516, and TC-161257

On March 30, 2015, the commission entered Order 04 in Docket TC-143691, which granted Speedishuttle of Washington, LLC, d/b/a Speedishuttle Seattle (Speedishuttle), a certificate of public convenience and necessity to operate as an auto transportation company.

On May 16, 2016, Shuttle Express filed a petition to rehear the matters in Docket TC-143691, and to cancel or restrict Speedishuttle's certificate. Also on May 16, Shuttle Express filed with the commission a formal complaint against Speedishuttle in Docket TC-160516.

On August 4, 2016, the commission entered Order 06, which granted Shuttle Express's petition for rehearing in Docket TC-143691. Also on August 4, the commission issued Order 07/02, which consolidated Dockets TC-143691 and TC-160516.

On November 10, 2016, the commission entered Order 09, which held that the commission cannot grant Speedishuttle a certificate to offer the same service provided by Shuttle Express without a finding that Shuttle Express will not provide such service to the commission's satisfaction.

On December 1, 2016, Speedishuttle filed with the commission a formal complaint against Shuttle Express in Docket TC-161257. The complaint alleged that Shuttle Express used independent contractors and paid commissions to unauthorized ticket agents in violation of commission orders and rules.

On January 5, 2017, the commission entered Order 12/05/02, which consolidated Docket TC-161257 with Dockets TC-143691 and TC-160516. On January 12, 2017, staff notified the commission that it would independently investigate the allegations presented in Speedishuttle's complaint.

On March 17, 2017, staff filed testimony related to its investigation into Shuttle Express, alleging the Company violated WAC 480-30-213 by using independent contractors on 40,727 occasions<sup>11</sup> between January 16, 2014, and September 29, 2016.<sup>12</sup>

On April 3, 2017, the commission entered Order 17/10/07, which amended Order 08 to include rehearing the issue of whether Shuttle Express was providing service to the commission's satisfaction pursuant to RCW 81.68.040 and WAC 480-30-140.

On August 25, 2017, the commission entered Order 19/12/09, which concluded that Shuttle Express: (1) violated WAC 480-30-213 on 35,351 occasions in the two years preceding Speedishuttle's complaint; (2) violated WAC 480-30-391 by failing to file with the commission the form for its ticket agent agreements; (3) must file its ticket agent agreements within 30 days; (4) did not reasonably serve the market pursuant to WAC 480-30-140(2)(c); (5) did not provide service to the full extent of its authority pursuant to WAC 480-30-140(2)(a); (6) violated WAC 480-30-391 for failing to list all flag stops on its scheduled routes in its tariff; (7) must cease and desist its practice of stopping at unlisted flag stops; (8) must file a compliance plan within 90 days; (9) failed to reasonably expand and improve its service; (10) failed to provide service in a manner that meets advertised or posted schedules; (11) will not provide service to the commission's satisfaction pursuant to RCW 81.68.040 and WAC 480-30-140(3); and (12) should be penalized $120,000 for 35,351 violations of WAC 480-30-213.<sup>13</sup>

<sup>11</sup> The two-year statute of limitations reduced the number of actionable violations to 35,351.

With respect to whether Shuttle Express provided service to the commission's satisfaction, Order 19/12/09 held:

We also find that Shuttle Express fails to provide service in a manner that meets the advertised or posted schedules. WAC 480-30-346 requires an auto transportation carrier to include in its time schedules for scheduled service a list of each flag stop along a given route. While carriers are not required to stop at every flag stop each time the route is traveled, they are prohibited from stopping at any location that is not listed as a flag stop. Shuttle Express concedes that it combines its scheduled and door-to-door service, and, as Mr. Marks acknowledged at hearing, that it "more than occasionally" makes stops along scheduled routes that are not listed as flag stops in the company's tariff. As Staff noted in response to a bench request, Shuttle Express's practice of stopping at flag stops not listed for a given route violates Commission rules.

Overall, we find that the nature and extent of Shuttle Express's noncompliance is a predictive indicator that the company will continue to violate Commission rules as it see[s] fits, and conclude on that basis that the company will not provide service to the Commission's satisfaction. We note that RCW 81.68.030 authorizes the Commission to revoke any certificate issued pursuant to Chapter 81.68 if the certificate holder has willfully violated or refused to observe any of the Commission's orders, rules, or regulations. In light of the Commission's statutory authority to revoke Shuttle Express's certificate for willful violations of Commission rules and orders, it follows that such conduct necessarily constitutes a failure to provide service to the Commission's satisfaction. Although we will not take such escalated enforcement action at this juncture, we expect Shuttle Express to significantly overhaul its practices to ensure it complies with all applicable statutes, rules, and orders going forward.<sup>14</sup>

On September 15, 2017, Shuttle Express filed a petition for administrative review of Order 19/12/09.

On November 17, 2017, the commission issued Order 20/13/10,<sup>15</sup> which concluded that Shuttle Express: (1) waived any challenge to the discussion, findings, and conclusions in Order 19/12/09 that it did not expressly state in its petition; (2) violated WAC 480-30-213 on 35,351 occasions when it used independent contractors; (3) violated WAC 480-30-391 by failing to obtain commission approval to pay commissions to hotel personnel; (4) must submit ticket agent agreements to the commission for approval to pay commissions to hotel personnel; (5) may not combine door-to-door and scheduled service except when it is unable to provide transportation at the time and place specified in the reservation that the Company has accepted for a given passenger; (6) should revise its tariff to remove language that is inconsistent with WAC 480-30-

<sup>15</sup> See Attachment C for a copy of Order 20/13/10 in Dockets TC-143691, TC-160516, and TC-161257 (Consolidated) (November 17, 2017).

346(2)(d) within 30 days; (7) will not provide service to the commission's satisfaction pursuant to RCW 81.68.040 and WAC 480-30-140(3); (8) must submit a compliance plan for Staff's review within 90 days; and (9) should be penalized $120,000 for 35,351 violations of WAC 480-30-213.<sup>16</sup>

Specific to Shuttle Express combining its scheduled and door-to-door service, Order 20/13/10 noted:

Commission rules require that “[a]n auto transportation company’s filed time schedule must . . . [s]how the routes served, including the exact location of each regular stop, each flag stop, and any point to which service is provided.” The Initial Order concludes that Shuttle Express’s practice of combining scheduled and door-to-door service violates these rules. Shuttle Express interprets Commission rules not to prohibit a company from making unscheduled stops when providing scheduled service as long as the passengers who obtain scheduled service are picked up and dropped off at the locations specified in the time schedule. The rules are not susceptible to Shuttle Express’s interpretation.

Scheduled service and door-to-door service are separate auto transportation services, and Commission rules treat them as such. The time schedules for scheduled service in a company’s tariff must identify “any point to which service is provided.” Adding door-to-door service points on a scheduled service route is fundamentally inconsistent with this requirement.

Shuttle Express nevertheless points to its tariff in which it states under the heading ALTERNATIVE MEANS OF TRANSPORT, “We also reserve the right to combine Door-to-Door passengers on a scheduled service route so long as the scheduled pick-ups should not be adversely affected.” Shuttle Express, however, cannot reserve rights it does not have. Company tariffs must state “whether alternate means of transport will be provided by the company when it is unable to provide transportation at the time and place specified in the reservation that the company has accepted for that passenger.” Shuttle Express does not claim that it combines door-to-door with scheduled service only when it is unable to provide the service the passenger has reserved. Rather, Mr. Marks testified that “it would not be financially reasonable to only serve passengers on some routes, so we do combine them with others in the general area.” Shuttle Express is not unable to provide a particular service simply because doing so “would not be financially reasonable.”

Shuttle Express’s conduct with respect to this issue typifies our dissatisfaction with the company’s operations. As we discuss below, Shuttle Express repeatedly adopts practices for provisioning regulated auto transportation service despite Commission rules prohibiting such practices. While we find that Shuttle Express’s practice of combining door-to-door and scheduled service is inconsistent with WAC 480-30-346(2)(d), we do not uphold the Initial Order’s finding that Shuttle Express violated the rule. In this instance, the Commission approved Shuttle Express’s tariff provision or allowed it to go into effect by operation of law. Given the inconsistency of the tariff provision with the

Commission's rules, we require Shuttle Express to correct this provision in its tariff rules. Further, if Shuttle Express seeks to combine door-to-door and scheduled service, it should raise that issue in Docket TC-161262, the rulemaking examining the rules governing auto transportation. Pending any revisions to those rules, Shuttle Express may not combine door-to-door and scheduled service except "when it is unable to provide transportation at the time and place specified in the reservation that the company has accepted for that passenger."<sup>17</sup>

On November 21, 2017, Shuttle Express filed a motion for stay. On December 1, 2017, the commission issued Order 21/14/11, which denied Shuttle Express's motion, and ordered the Company to pay the entirety of the $120,000 penalty or file jointly with Staff a proposed plan to pay the penalty in installments over a period not to exceed one year.<sup>18</sup>

On December 14, 2017, Shuttle Express appealed Order 20/13/10 by filing a petition for judicial review in Thurston County Superior Court.<sup>19</sup>

On December 15, 2017, Shuttle Express filed a tariff revision to comply with Order 20/13/10.<sup>20</sup> The Company's revision to "ALTERNATE MEANS OF TRANSPORT" removed the language, "We also reserve the right to combine Door-to-Door passengers on a scheduled service route so long as the scheduled pickups should not be adversely affected."<sup>21</sup>

On April 30, 2018, the commission and Shuttle Express entered into a settlement agreement and release of claim, which the parties agreed: (1) the commission would suspend $50,000 of Shuttle Express's remaining $100,000 penalty balance for a period of two years provided Shuttle Express committed no violations of any applicable commission laws or regulations; (2) Shuttle Express would comply with all applicable commission laws and regulations, and any breach of the settlement agreement would result in imposition of the $50,000 suspended penalty; (3) Shuttle Express would withdraw its petition for judicial review in Thurston County Superior Court; and (4) Shuttle Express released its tort claim against the State of Washington.<sup>22</sup> On May 11, 2018, Thurston County Superior Court entered an order dismissing the action.

Dockets TC-160819 and TC-161262

On June 17, 2016, Shuttle Express filed a petition for a temporary and conditional exemption from compliance with WAC 480-30-213 and WAC 480-30-456 to permit the Company to use independent contractors to supplement its shared ride service to and from SeaTac International Airport (SeaTac) in Docket TC-160819. On September 6, 2016, Shuttle Express filed an amended petition seeking additional partial exemptions from WAC 480-30-221 and WAC 480-30-231 to exempt its independent contractors from certain safety and vehicle identification requirements.

On September 30, 2016, the commission entered Order 01, which granted the Company's petitions with conditions for a period of 10 months.

On December 21, 2016, the commission initiated a rulemaking in Docket TC-161262 to consider revisions to the rules governing auto transportation companies. On June 6, 2017, the commission formally proposed to adopt revised rules that would authorize auto transportation companies to use independent contractors under certain conditions.

On June 16, 2017, Shuttle Express filed a petition for a six-month extension of the exemption granted in Order 01 in Docket TC-160819, while the commission completed the adoption process in Docket TC-161262. On June 29, 2017, the commission issued Order 02, which granted the Company's petition for an extension for a period not to exceed six months, or until 30 days after the effective date of the rules promulgated in Docket TC-161262.

On July 31, 2017, the commission issued its Adoption Order in Docket TC-161262, which amended, repealed, and adopted revisions to WAC Chapter 480-30. Shuttle Express did not raise the issue of combining door-to-door and scheduled service in the rulemaking.

INVESTIGATION

Data Request

On February 18, 2020, staff requested the following records and information from Shuttle Express:

1. Daily trip records for Shuttle Express's door-to-door service customers in Washington from November 1, 2019, through December 31, 2019. The daily trip records must include:
  - (1) the route traveled,
  - (2) the number of passengers carried on each trip,
  - (3) the point each passenger boarded and disembarked from the vehicle, and
  - (4) the fare charged to each customer.
2. Daily trip records for Shuttle Express's scheduled service customers in Washington from November 1, 2019, through December 31, 2019. The daily trip records must include:
  - (1) the route traveled,
  - (2) the tariff schedule operated,
  - (3) the number of passengers carried on each schedule,
  - (4) the point each passenger boarded and disembarked from the vehicle,
  - (5) the fare charged to each customer, and
  - (6) any condition causing the vehicle to deviate from the Company's filed time schedule by more than thirty minutes.
3. How Shuttle Express distinguishes and delineates door-to-door service from scheduled service through its online booking system.

4. How a potential customer chooses between door-to-door service and scheduled service through Shuttle Express's online booking system.
5. The name, title, telephone number, and email address of the Company's contact person that commission staff can work with directly for questions that may arise concerning any details of the data.

The purpose of staff's request for records from November 1, 2019, through December 31, 2019, was to acquire a sample period to accurately capture the Company's auto transportation operations. The deadline for the Company to respond was February 28, 2020.<sup>23</sup>

On February 19, 2020, Shuttle Express submitted to staff one Excel spreadsheet (spreadsheet) "of all share ride and DTA reservations" from December 1, 2019, through January 31, 2020.<sup>24</sup> Although the records furnished by Shuttle Express didn't align with staff's requested sample period, the sample size remained the same. The spreadsheet provided trip numbers, pickup addresses, drop-off addresses, pickup dates and times, number of passengers, and total charges per location for each of the 4,024 regulated auto transportation trips during the time period. Kaaren Sherrell was identified as the contact.

Staff used the documents and information furnished from the original data request, all subsequent responses from Shuttle Express, and commission records to conduct its investigation of the Company's auto transportation operations.

Customer Service Records

Investigation

WAC 480-30-056(3) requires that auto transportation companies maintain complete and accurate customer service records. WAC 480-30-056(3)(a)(i) requires that the company's daily trip records (by route or by unit of equipment) show: (A) the schedules operated, (B) the number of passengers carried on each schedule, (C) the point each passenger boarded and disembarked from the vehicle, (D) the fare charged to each customer, and (E) any condition causing the vehicle to deviate from the company's filed time schedule by more than 30 minutes.

Staff's February 18, 2020, data request to Shuttle Express requested daily trip records for door-to-door service and scheduled service to include: (1) the route traveled, (2) the number of passengers carried on each trip, (3) the point each passenger boarded and disembarked from the vehicle, and (4) the fare charged to each customer.<sup>25</sup>

On February 19, 2020, Shuttle Express contacted staff and explained that its computer database doesn't capture schedules operated for its trips.<sup>26</sup> During the phone conversation, staff clarified that that the Company should provide records that included the schedules operated for all of the trip records requested. Later that day, Shuttle Express furnished data in an Excel spreadsheet that included trip numbers, pickup addresses, drop-off addresses, pickup dates and times, number of passengers, and total charges per location, but did not include the schedule or route operated for each trip.<sup>27</sup> The Company's email stated, "[a]ddresses with DTA in them are our scheduled service addresses."<sup>28</sup> Shuttle Express's position on the meaning of the "DTA" tag appeared to change over the course of their responses.<sup>29</sup>

On February 27, 2020, staff questioned why locations served with scheduled service in Shuttle Express's tariff were identified differently throughout the entire spreadsheet and asked the Company to explain the service differences between the discrepancies.<sup>30</sup>

On February 27, 2020, Shuttle Express stated, "[o]ur software allows us to enter/establish 'landmarks' so we can offer the hotel name in a drop down menu to pick from in case people don't know the address, it speeds up entering the address. If someone uses the landmark address located on a drop down menu, it will have the (SCH) or (DTA). If someone types in the street address, our system utilizes Google maps address designation."<sup>31</sup> Shuttle Express's response appeared to indicate that the "DTA" or "SCH" designations in the spreadsheet had no effect on whether a specific trip was operated as door-to-door service or scheduled service.

On February 27, 2020, staff asked if Shuttle Express was able to identify whether a specific address/trip was scheduled service or door-to-door service.<sup>32</sup> The Company did not respond to this email. On March 3, 2020, staff asked Shuttle Express if it could identify whether a specific trip was operated as door-to-door service or scheduled service if staff was to provide the trip number.<sup>33</sup>

On March 5, 2020, Shuttle Express provided a list of hotels and the type of service it provides to those locations,<sup>34</sup> explaining that, "[a]ny hotels with the 'drop down menu designation' SCH or DTA on their address in the trips will be serviced as a share-ride, scheduled or charter basis per what is specified in the list attached. We also charge a different rate for each type of service so you can tell by that also."<sup>35</sup>

On March 5, 2020, staff questioned if Shuttle Express could identify whether a trip was door-to-door service, scheduled service, or a combination of door-to-door and scheduled service by the trip number. Shuttle Express did not respond to this email.

Findings

Staff ultimately made its determination on whether a trip was operated as door-to-door service, scheduled service, or a combination of the two services by identifying locations served with scheduled service in Shuttle Express's tariff,<sup>36</sup> and identifying whether the associated fares aligned with the Company's door-to-door rates<sup>37</sup> or scheduled service rates.<sup>38</sup>

Shuttle Express failed to provide the schedule or route operated in conjunction with every trip provided between December 1, 2019, and January 31, 2020, resulting in 4,024 violations of WAC 480-30-056(3)(a)(i)(A).

Combination of Door-to-Door and Scheduled Service

Investigation

WAC 480-30-346(2)(d) requires that an auto transportation company's filed time schedule show the routes served, including the exact location of each regular stop, each flag stop, and any point to which service is provided.

On February 21, 2020, staff asked Shuttle Express if it could identify whether a specific trip was operated exclusively as door-to-door service, a combination of door-to-door service and scheduled service, or scheduled service with stops that are not listed in Shuttle Express's tariff.<sup>39</sup> The trip staff referenced included a location served with scheduled service in the Company's tariff, identified in the spreadsheet as "(DTA)," and two other addresses not served with scheduled service in Shuttle Express's tariff.

On February 24, 2020, Shuttle Express responded, stating that the referenced trip was a combination of door-to-door service and scheduled service, "with scheduled hotels being the first stops from SEATAC or the last pickups going to SEATAC as per Speedy Shuttle [sic] Case."<sup>40</sup>

On March 5, 2020, Shuttle Express informed staff that dependent on volume, the Company "will run loops as required, otherwise all of [its] scheduled service runs are operated in conjunction with the door to door trips following the UTC requirements to do so."<sup>41</sup>

Findings

Door-to-door service and scheduled service are separate auto transportation services. Shuttle Express's practice of combining door-to-door service and scheduled service was addressed in consolidated Dockets TC-143691, TC-160516, and TC-161257, and as a result, the Company modified its tariff to avoid inconsistency with WAC 480-30-346(2)(d).<sup>42</sup>

The practice of combining different time schedules is also inconsistent with WAC 480-30-346(2)(d) because each filed time schedule must contain a list of all flag stops and any point at which the Company will provide service.

Staff reviewed 4,024 regulated auto transportation trips between December 1, 2019, and January 31, 2020, and found that Shuttle Express continues to combine its door-to-door service and scheduled service, and also combines its various time schedules. Staff found that Shuttle Express combined its door-to-door service and scheduled service on 189 occasions, and Shuttle Express combined its various time schedules on nine occasions, resulting in 198 violations of WAC 480-30-346(2)(d).<sup>43</sup>

Scheduled Service

Investigation

WAC 480-30-276(2) requires that an auto transportation company provide service along all routes, and to all points, listed on the company's filed time schedule.

On February 24, 2020, staff asked Shuttle Express if it is running scheduled routes per the time schedules provided its tariff, or if the Company is solely operating door-to-door service that happens to also include locations served with scheduled service.<sup>44</sup>

On February 25, 2020, Shuttle Express stated that it had discontinued its scheduled service to University District, Bothell, and Everett "due to operating restrictions imposed during Speedi case making the flag stop be the first drop off or last pick up. We are operating flag stop service to those Bellevue Hotels and Downtown hotels. We do not run a vehicle in loops with a schedule unless the volume allows such as in the summer during cruise season or during peak travel times during a conference."<sup>45</sup>

On February 27, 2020, staff asked Shuttle Express if trips without passengers would be captured in the spreadsheet the Company provided.<sup>46</sup> On February 27, Shuttle Express stated that it will "only run the route when there are advanced reservations or volume dictates."<sup>47</sup>

On March 5, 2020, Shuttle Express stated that “if volume dictates, we will run loops as required, otherwise all of our scheduled service runs are operated in conjunction with the door to door trips following the UTC requirements to do so.”<sup>48</sup>

Findings

Shuttle Express’s tariff states that the Company provides scheduled services between SeaTac and Bellevue/Eastgate, the University District, and multiple Seattle locations every day of the year. Specifically, Schedule No. 3 of the tariff states that routes are operated every hour, while Schedule Nos. 4, 7, 9, 10, 11, and 17 of the tariff provides that routes are operated every half hour, totaling 312 trips per day.<sup>49</sup> Schedule Nos. 8, 12, 13, 14, 15, and 16 were not included in staff’s investigation because those scheduled routes are not operated between October 1 and April 30.

Staff reviewed 4,024 regulated auto transportation trips between December 1, 2019, and January 31, 2020, and found that Shuttle Express failed to provide service along all scheduled service routes on 19,091 occasions in violation of WAC 480-30-276(2), as outlined in the table below.

Tariff 11 Schedule No.	Required Tariff Trips Dec. 2019 – Jan. 2020	Trips Operated Dec. 2019 - Jan. 2020	Violations
3	1,488	0	1,488
4	2,976	56	2,920
7	2,976	0	2,976
9	2,976	2	2,974
10	2,976	1	2,975
11	2,976	28	2,948
17	2,976	166	2,810
Total	19,344	253	19,091

Staff credited Shuttle Express with operating a scheduled route on every trip that included a scheduled service location where the passengers were assessed a rate within the base fare and max fare of scheduled service, regardless of whether the route was combined with door-to-door service or operated strictly as scheduled service.<sup>50</sup>

SUMMARY OF RECOMMENDATIONS

Recommendation

Staff recommends that the commission issue a formal complaint against Shuttle Express. The commission is authorized to penalize Shuttle Express up to $1,000 per violation for 23,313 violations of commission regulations.<sup>51</sup> Staff considered the following factors to determine the recommended penalty amount:<sup>52</sup>

1. How serious or harmful the violations are to the public.

Staff believes the violations cited in this report potentially caused harm to the public. Consumers potentially missed flights due to Shuttle Express abandoning its scheduled service and customers either directly or indirectly were assessed differing fares for the same auto transportation services. However, the commission has not received an informal consumer complaint against Shuttle Express over the last three years, which could be attributed to (1) Shuttle Express's actions not causing harm to the public, (2) a lack of customer awareness that different fares were assessed for the same service, or (3) increased transportation options available to consumers that mitigated the impact of Shuttle Express's failure to perform its scheduled service. Nevertheless, staff believes Shuttle Express failed to provide adequate and dependable service, a responsibility and requirement of all auto transportation companies.

2. Whether the violations were intentional.

On November 17, 2017, the commission entered Order 20/13/10, which held that adding door-to-door service points on a scheduled service route was fundamentally inconsistent with the requirements of WAC 480-30-346(2)(d), and required Shuttle Express to correct its tariff to come into compliance.

On December 15, 2017, Shuttle Express filed a tariff revision to comply with Order 20/13/10, which removed "the right to combine Door-to-Door passengers on a scheduled service route so long as the scheduled pickups should not be adversely affected."

On April 30, 2018, the commission and Shuttle Express entered into a settlement agreement, wherein the parties agreed that the commission would suspend a $50,000 portion of the penalty for a period of two years provided Shuttle Express committed no violations of any applicable commission laws or regulations, and any breach of the settlement agreement would result in imposition of the $50,000 suspended penalty.

Despite the commission addressing this very issue and incentivizing compliance by suspending a $50,000 portion of the penalty, Shuttle Express continued its practice of combining door-to-door service and scheduled service. As referenced in the Final Order, "Shuttle Express has repeatedly and willfully violated Commission rules and regulations."<sup>53</sup>

It is clear that Shuttle Express does not consider the commission's prior enforcement actions sufficient enough to deter it from continuing to violate commission rules.

<sup>53</sup> Dockets TC-143691, TC-160516, and TC-161257 (Consolidated), Order 20/13/10, ¶ 76.

3. Whether the Company self-reported the violations.

Shuttle Express did not self-report any of the violations cited in this report.

4. Whether the Company was cooperative and responsive.

Shuttle Express responded immediately to staff's initial data request and was relatively cooperative and responsive throughout the investigation. There were a couple of occasions where Shuttle Express failed to respond to staff and multiple exchanges where Shuttle Express appeared to be purposely vague and provided generalized information to avoid directly answering staff's questions.

5. Whether the Company promptly corrected the violations and remedied the impacts.

Shuttle Express has not provided staff with evidence that it has corrected the violations; however, to date, the Company has not been informed of the violations in this investigation report. Shuttle Express continues to commit violations previously identified by the commission.

6. The number of violations.

Staff documented 23,313 violations of WAC Chapter 480-30. This is a significant number of violations for the two-month sample period reviewed.

7. The number of customers affected.

Staff cannot accurately calculate how many customers were affected by these violations. The Company failed to provide 19,091 scheduled service trips in a span of two months, but the commission also did not receive any consumer complaints against Shuttle Express during that timeframe. Again, consumers potentially rely on this scheduled service and may have missed flights due to Shuttle Express abandoning its scheduled service.

8. The likelihood of recurrence.

The Company continued with the same practices that it was required to cease in the previous enforcement action. Absent a significant commitment to come into compliance with commission regulations, the violations are likely to reoccur.

As the commission held in Order 19/12/09, "we find that the nature and extent of Shuttle Express's noncompliance is a predictive indicator that the company will continue to violate Commission rules as it see[s] fits ...."<sup>54</sup>

9. The Company's past performance regarding compliance, violations, and penalties.

Shuttle Express has an extensive history of noncompliance with the commission, resulting in both violations and penalties. See pages 5-12 in this investigation report.

10. The Company's existing compliance program.

Kere Greene, President of Shuttle Express, is responsible for the Company's compliance program.

11. The size of the Company.

In 2018, Shuttle Express employed 80 drivers, operated 75 motor vehicles, and reported a gross revenue of $5,510,935.

Summary

While the law allows the commission to assess a penalty of up to $1,000 per violation, staff believes the full penalty of $23,313,000 is disproportionate to the Company's annual reported revenue. Staff recommends the commission issue a formal complaint against Shuttle Express, and assess a penalty of up to $409,030 for 23,313 violations of commission regulations, as follows:

- Up to $190,910 for 19,091 violations of WAC 480-30-276(2) for failing to provide service along all routes, and to all points, listed on the Company's filed time schedule.
- Up to $20,120 for 4,024 violations of WAC 480-30-056(3)(a)(i)(A) for failing to maintain complete and accurate customer service records pertaining to schedules operated.
- Up to $198,000 for 198 violations of WAC 480-30-346(2)(d) for failing to list each flag stop and any point to which service is provided in the Company's time schedule.

BACKGROUND

- 1 On October 10, 2014, Speedishuttle of Washington, LLC d/b/a Speedishuttle Seattle (Speedishuttle) filed with the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity to operate as an auto transportation carrier (Application). Shuttle Express, Inc. (Shuttle Express) objected to the Application. On March 30, 2015, the Commission entered Order 04, Final Order Affirming Order 02, which affirmed the initial order finding that Speedishuttle did not propose to offer the same service that Shuttle Express provides and overruled the objection to granting the Application.
- 2 On May 16, 2016, Shuttle Express filed a Petition for Rehearing of Matters in Docket TC-143691 alleging that Speedishuttle is providing the same service as Shuttle Express, not the service that the Commission found to be different. Shuttle Express contemporaneously filed a Formal Complaint against Speedishuttle in Docket TC-160516. The allegations in the complaint substantially overlap with the allegations in the Petition for Rehearing and further allege that Speedishuttle is engaging in predatory pricing by providing service below cost. On August 4, 2016, the Commission agreed to rehear matters in Docket TC-143691, adjudicate the complaint in Docket TC-160516, and consolidate the two dockets.
- 3 On December 1, 2016, Speedishuttle filed with the Commission a formal complaint against Shuttle Express in Docket TC-161257, alleging that Shuttle Express has used independent contractors and paid commissions to unauthorized ticket agents in violation of Commission orders and rules. On January 5, 2017, the Commission consolidated this docket with Dockets TC-143691 and TC-160516.
- 4 On May 10 and 12, 2017, the Commission conducted an evidentiary hearing before Administrative Law Judge Rayne Pearson. The parties filed initial post-hearing briefs on June 19, 2017, and reply briefs on July 14, 2017.<sup>1</sup>
- 5 On August 25, 2017, the Commission entered its initial order in the consolidated dockets (Initial Order). The order finds that Shuttle Express's use of independent contractors violates applicable statutes and rules and assesses a $120,000 penalty for those violations.

<sup>1</sup> Rather than repeat them here, we adopt the summary of the procedural history, evidence, and parties' positions in paragraphs 1-28 and 30-67 in the Initial Order.

The Initial Order also finds that Shuttle Express violated Commission rules by failing to file the form for its ticket agent agreements and by combining scheduled and door-to-door service. The Initial Order upholds the Commission's grant of a certificate to Speedishuttle both because Shuttle Express will not provide service to the Commission's satisfaction and because Speedishuttle provides a different service than Shuttle Express provides. Finally, the Initial Order finds that Shuttle Express failed to establish that Speedishuttle sets prices for its service below cost or engages in predatory pricing.

6 On September 15, 2017, Shuttle Express submitted a Petition for Administrative Review of the Initial Order (Petition). Shuttle Express essentially assigns error to all of the findings of fact and conclusions of law in the Initial Order. More generally, Shuttle Express contends that (1) it lawfully used independent contractors and paid commissions for referrals from hotel concierges; (2) "Speedishuttle's Business Model differences were not real, were not meaningfully implemented, and did not constitute a different service under the law"; (3) the Initial Order's findings and conclusions concerning whether Shuttle Express will provide service to the Commission's satisfaction are "not supported by cognizable new evidence"; (4) Shuttle Express's complaint that Speedishuttle is engaging in predatory pricing below cost is "actually supported by overwhelming evidence and admitted by Speedishuttle"; and (5) the remedies in the Initial Order "fail to properly apply and enforce the public service laws."<sup>2</sup>

7 On September 26, 2017, Speedishuttle and Commission staff (Staff) submitted their answers to the Petition. Both of these parties oppose the Petition and urge the Commission to approve and adopt the Initial Order as its own.

8 Brooks E. Harlow, Lukas, Nace, Gutierrez & Sachs, LLP, McLean, Virginia, represents Shuttle Express. David Wiley and Blair Fassburg, Williams, Kastner & Gibbs PLLC, Seattle, Washington, represent Speedishuttle. Julian Beattie, Assistant Attorney General, Olympia, Washington, represents Staff.

DISCUSSION AND DECISION

9 We largely deny the Petition. The record amply demonstrates that Shuttle Express has repeatedly and willfully violated Commission rules and regulations, will not provide auto transportation service to the Commission's satisfaction, and should be penalized for its most recent infractions. Shuttle Express has not proven that Speedishuttle can engage, much less has engaged, in predatory pricing. Accordingly, Speedishuttle may retain its existing certificate without modifications. We agree with and adopt as our own much of the discussion in the Initial Order on those issues as supplemented by this Order.

- 10 On the other hand, because we conclude that Shuttle Express will not provide service to the Commission's satisfaction, we need not, and do not conclude that Speedishuttle provides a different service than Shuttle Express. Accordingly, we vacate those aspects of the Initial Order.

Misconduct and Scope of Review

- 11 As an initial matter, Shuttle Express accuses the administrative law judge of conducting a "one-sided and patently unfair proceeding."<sup>3</sup> More specifically, Shuttle Express claims that she engaged in an "improper and undue (not to mention one-sided) narrowing of the proceeding,"<sup>4</sup> "revis[ed] prior Commission orders to make the unassailable facts no longer relevant,"<sup>5</sup> and used "invented" evidence to "freely and liberally" expand the case to support the other parties' positions.<sup>6</sup> Such claims, like all allegations in a pleading or brief, must be well grounded in fact.<sup>7</sup> These are not.
- 12 We find no basis in fact or law for Shuttle Express's accusations. The record demonstrates that the judge's conduct of the proceedings was fair and balanced, her rulings were consistent with Commission rules and prior orders, and substantial evidence supports her findings of fact. Shuttle Express's unsupported accusations to the contrary appear to us to go beyond zealous advocacy and are wholly inconsistent with the behavior we expect from counsel who appear before us and the parties they represent.
- 13 We expect parties, particularly those represented by counsel, to comply with the Commission's procedural rules. In its Answer to the Petition, Staff notes several instances in which Shuttle Express purports to preserve challenges and arguments that are

<sup>7</sup> See, e.g., CR 11(a)(1) (stating that a party's or attorney's signature on a pleading, motion, or legal memorandum certifies that it is well grounded in fact).

not raised or discussed in the Petition. Staff recommends, “To protect the integrity of the review process, the Commission should state in its final order that Shuttle Express has waived any contention of error that is not specifically identified and adequately briefed in its petition.”<sup>8</sup> We agree and so state.

14 The Commission’s procedural rule governing review of initial orders is prescriptive:

Petitions for administrative review must clearly identify the nature of each challenge to the initial order, the evidence, law, rule or other authority that the petitioner relies upon to support the challenge, and state the remedy that the petitioner seeks. Petitions for review of initial orders must be specific. The petitioner must separately state and number every contention. A petition that challenges a finding of fact must cite the pertinent page or part of the record or must otherwise state the evidence it relies on to support its petition, and should include a recommended finding of fact. A petition that challenges a conclusion of law must cite the appropriate statute, rule, or case involved and should include a recommended conclusion of law. A petition that challenges the summary or discussion portion of an initial order must include a statement showing the legal or factual justification for the challenge, and a statement of how the asserted defect affects the findings of fact, the conclusions of law, and the ultimate decision.<sup>9</sup>

The Commission will consider the challenges raised in a petition for administrative review that comply with these requirements. Unless it raises them on its own motion, the Commission will not address issues to which a party obliquely refers or attempts to cross-reference in a prior brief or other filing. Those issues are waived.

15 Accordingly, the only issues Shuttle Express has preserved for administrative review are those it has raised consistent with the requirements in WAC 480-07-825, specifically the contentions of error listed and summarized in paragraph 7 of the Petition. Whether intentional or not, Shuttle Express has waived all other issues, and we do not consider them.

Use of Independent Contractors

- 16 Prior to the date on which Speedishuttle filed its original Application and, later, its complaint, WAC 480-30-213 required an auto transportation company to use vehicles it owns and employ its own drivers to provide auto transportation service. The Initial Order concludes, “Shuttle Express violated WAC 480-30-213 each time it used an independent contractor to provide auto transportation service in the two years preceding Speedishuttle’s Complaint, a total of 35,351 times.”<sup>10</sup> Shuttle Express challenges this conclusion on several grounds, primarily based on its position that the service being provided was not auto transportation service but limousine service, which is not subject to Commission regulation. We disagree.
- 17 Shuttle Express concedes that it arranged for vehicles and drivers other than its own vans and employees to transport passengers to the airport on 35,251 occasions during the relevant time period. Shuttle Express refers to these as instances of “upgrade service,” which the company explains as follows:
- We use the term upgrade to indicate that we’ve contacted the passenger and received positive approval to send them an alternate vehicle for their transportation. Generally, the dispatcher advises the guest that Shuttle Express would like to upgrade their service from a shared van to a private town car or SUV at no additional charge. If the customer accepts the change, then we dispatch the replacement vehicle and service to the guest and make no other change to their booking. If they decline, we send an employee driver in a company owned vehicle.<sup>11</sup>
- 18 While some customers may prefer a town car to a shared-ride van, Shuttle Express cannot plausibly contend that its upgrade service is not auto transportation service as defined in Commission rules and the company’s tariff. A customer requested auto transportation service from Shuttle Express at the rates, terms, and conditions in the tariff, and Shuttle Express provided that service at those rates, terms, and conditions. The only distinction is that Shuttle Express used a vehicle owned and driven by a third-party contractor, rather than an employee driver in a company-owned vehicle. It is a distinction without a difference. Shuttle Express represented to its customers that upgrade service is better service, not different service.<sup>12</sup>

- 19 Shuttle Express also contends that its upgrade service is not auto transportation service because Shuttle Express does not own the vehicle, and the statute defines “auto transportation company” as a person “owning, controlling, operating, or managing any motor-propelled vehicle used in the business of transporting persons and their baggage on the vehicles of auto transportation companies carrying passengers.”<sup>13</sup> According to Shuttle Express, the highlighted language reflects legislative intent to define auto transportation companies as only those who use their own vehicles dedicated to providing that service.
- 20 The statutory language on which Shuttle Express relies is not reasonably susceptible to its interpretation. The phrase “on the vehicles of auto transportation companies” merely modifies “baggage,” requiring passengers and baggage to be transported in the same vehicle. That language does not limit which companies are auto transportation companies. The remainder of the definition does so by specifying persons “owning, controlling, operating, or managing any motor-propelled vehicle.” Shuttle Express cannot claim it is not an auto transportation company as defined in the statute because it is providing auto transportation service using vehicles it does not own.<sup>14</sup>
- 21 Shuttle Express further asserts that the Commission cannot regulate upgrade service because the vehicles used to provide that service are limousines, which are subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Department of Licensing (DOL). Staff correctly observes that we rejected a similar argument the last time the Commission found that Shuttle Express violated former WAC 480-30-213.<sup>15</sup> Further, as Staff notes in its Answer, Shuttle Express cites to no record evidence demonstrating that DOL regulates these vehicles.

<sup>14</sup> Indeed, the Commission’s most recent revisions to its rules governing auto transportation service allowing companies to use independent contractors would conflict with the statute if it required those companies to provide service only using their own vehicles.

- 22 Upgrade service actually involves two separate services. The first service is auto transportation service the travelling passenger receives from Shuttle Express. The passenger contacts Shuttle Express to arrange that service from Shuttle Express and pays Shuttle Express for the service. The second service is “limousine service” (for purposes of this discussion) that Shuttle Express obtains from an independent contractor. Shuttle Express contacts the contractor to arrange the limousine service and pays the contractor for that service. Shuttle Express then uses the limousine service to physically provision the auto transportation service to the travelling passenger. Whether or not DOL regulates the limousine service the independent contractor provides to Shuttle Express, the Commission has jurisdiction over the auto transportation service Shuttle Express provides to the passenger, regardless of the vehicles or drivers Shuttle Express uses to provision that service.<sup>16</sup>
- 23 Shuttle Express claims in its Petition that it merely “solicits passengers for the limousine carriers, refers them, and assists with the booking with independent limousine carriers who accept the proposed transportation. Shuttle Express may, in some cases, assist with the billing and collection of the limousine fares.”<sup>17</sup> The testimony Shuttle Express cites for this proposition is to the contrary. Mr. Marks testified that the only change Shuttle Express made to the original booking was the vehicle used to provide the service: “If the customer accepts the change, we dispatch the replacement vehicle and service to the guest and make no other change to their booking.”<sup>18</sup> Shuttle Express thus does not “refer” the customers to a limousine carrier or “assist with the billing and collection of the limousine fares” when providing upgrade service. The customer books auto transportation service from Shuttle Express and pays Shuttle Express the tariffed fare while Shuttle Express books and pays the limousine carrier.<sup>19</sup>

<sup>16</sup> The Commission codified that concept in its most recent revisions. See, e.g., WAC 480-30-221(1) (“A passenger transportation company must ensure that all vehicles and drivers used to provide passenger transportation services under the authority of the company's certificate comply with all federal, state, and local laws and rules, and commission orders, governing licensing, vehicle safety, and driver safety.”)

<sup>19</sup> We need not, and do not, reach Shuttle Express's constitutional takings challenge because as a matter of fact and law, the Commission has not asserted jurisdiction over limousine services.

- 24 Finally, Shuttle Express argues that all of the trips at issue in this proceeding involved a single stop and that the Commission regulates only multi-stop trips as auto transportation service. According to Shuttle Express, Staff previously agreed with this conclusion and the Commission in its final order in Docket TC-120323 implicitly validated it. Shuttle Express is incorrect.
- 25 As the Initial Order observes, “Neither RCW 81.68 nor WAC 480-30 make any distinction between single-stop and multi-stop trips.”<sup>20</sup> Nor did the Commission implicitly validate such a distinction in Docket TC-120323. The only trips at issue in that docket were multi-stop trips. The Commission summarized Shuttle Express’s position that “Staff concedes that ‘rescue service’ provided on a single-stop basis complies with Commission regulations”<sup>21</sup> but thereafter ignored that argument because it was not germane. The Commission did not conclude, implicitly or otherwise, that regulated auto transportation service does not include single-stop trips.
- 26 Shuttle Express nevertheless contends that Staff told the company that the Commission does not regulate single-stop trips and that Shuttle Express relied on that advice to its detriment. Staff, however, disputes that it ever gave such guidance. The only evidence Shuttle Express offered to support the alleged conversation with Staff was the self-serving hearsay of one of its own personnel. We do not find this credible, particularly in light of the circumstances surrounding upgrade service. Shuttle Express accepts the original booking from the travelling passenger as auto transportation service and only seeks to provide upgrade service if other passengers are not available to share the ride. Auto transportation service does not cease being auto transportation service simply because Shuttle Express does not subsequently receive additional bookings for a particular trip. Indeed, Shuttle Express acknowledges the regulatory status of this service by using its own vehicle and employee driver to provide the service to a single passenger or party if they decline an upgrade.<sup>22</sup> Shuttle Express’s upgrade service is auto transportation service as defined in Commission rules and the company’s tariff.

27 The Initial Order did not err by concluding that Shuttle Express violated former WAC 480-30-213 a total of 35,351 times in the two years prior to the date Speedishuttle filed its complaint.<sup>23</sup>

Hotel Personnel Commissions

28 “An auto transportation company may enter into contracts or agreements with a second party for the sale of tickets or fares on behalf of the company, provided the form of such contracts or agreements has been previously approved by the commission.”<sup>24</sup> The Initial Order finds that “Shuttle Express’s failure to file the form it uses for its commission-based booking program violates” this requirement.<sup>25</sup> Shuttle Express challenges this finding as unsupported and directly contrary to the evidentiary record. We disagree.

29 The Initial Order quotes several provisions in Shuttle Express’s “2015 Commission Guidelines” detailing how hotel personnel can earn commissions on Shuttle Express service they book for others, as well as Mr. Mark’s acknowledgement of that arrangement. This evidence provides substantial support for the Initial Order’s finding.

30 Shuttle Express argues that the term “book” is undefined in that context and thus does not support a legal conclusion that hotel personnel were acting as agents of Shuttle Express. We find no ambiguity in that verb or any reason to believe it has anything other than the common meaning: “to register (something, such as a name) for some future activity or condition (as to engage transportation or reserve lodgings).”<sup>26</sup> Shuttle Express also claims that Mr. Marks’s testimony came in response to a “very leading question that was framed in the passive voice about ‘reservations made for Shuttle Express service on behalf of passengers.’”<sup>27</sup> Shuttle Express made no objection to the question at the hearing, and the context of the questioning makes clear that it refers to reservations the hotel employee made for the travelling passenger.

31 Shuttle Express nevertheless claims that Staff in its response to Bench Request No. 5 stated that “Staff found that Shuttle Express was, in fact, paying certain Seattle-area hotel staff for referring customers to Shuttle Express. However, the hotel staff are not selling tickets or acting as ticket agents. Instead, they are simply referring customers to Shuttle Express.” At best, this raises a conflict with other record evidence. Under the circumstances presented here, we find that the weight of the evidence supports the Initial Order’s findings. Shuttle Express’s 2015 Commission Guidelines document, witness testimony, and Staff’s finding that Shuttle Express was paying hotel staff in conjunction with auto transportation service, support the conclusion that Shuttle Express’s commission arrangement comes within WAC 480-30-391, and Shuttle Express should have filed the form of its agreement for Commission approval to make such payments prior to doing so.

32 Finally, Shuttle Express argues that it could not have violated the rule unless an agent actually sells the ticket for the service and collects the payment from the passenger, which was not the case here. We do not read the rule so narrowly. Both the language and the intent of the rule require an auto transportation company to inform the Commission in advance of any agreement to pay a portion of a company’s regulated fares to another person involved in the company’s ticket sales. The form agreement must include “a statement as to how and when payment will be made to the company for tickets, less commission,” among other items, but such a requirement does not specify who must make the payment or how the company will pay the commission.

33 Even if WAC 480-30-391 did not apply, Shuttle Express’s arrangement with hotel personnel would violate RCW 81.28.080. That statute provides, in relevant part, that a company “shall not refund or remit in any manner or by any device any portion of the rates, fares, or charges [in its tariff] excepting on order of the commission.”<sup>28</sup> As the Commission explained when it previously found that Shuttle Express had violated the applicable rule,

The regulation is designed to facilitate a carrier’s contract with agents such as travel agents or institutions. It is not designed to supersede the requirements of RCW 81.28.080, nor to allow payments to individuals whose jobs do not regularly include such duties. Payment is not proper to bellhops or other individuals whose regular vocations do not involve similar agencies or services, who are not understood by the public to be engaged in such agency roles for compensation, and whose strategic locations afford them the opportunity to refer customers to certain carriers and away from others.<sup>29</sup>

The current rule permits companies to compensate non-company personnel involved in the sale of tickets or fares for company services as long as the Commission has approved that arrangement, but pursuant to the statute, the Commission must approve any payment to third parties that is a refund or remittance of any portion of the company's tariffed fares. Paying a percentage of a company's fare to a third party in compensation for referring the customer is just such a payment.<sup>30</sup> Having failed to obtain Commission approval for those payments, Shuttle Express is violating applicable law by making them.

34 The Initial Order did not err by finding that Shuttle Express's failure to file the form it uses for its commission-based booking program violates WAC 480-30-391(1).<sup>31</sup>

Combining Scheduled and Door-to-Door Service

35 Commission rules require that "[a]n auto transportation company's filed time schedule must . . . [s]how the routes served, including the exact location of each regular stop, each flag stop, and any point to which service is provided."<sup>32</sup> The Initial Order concludes that Shuttle Express's practice of combining scheduled and door-to-door service violates

<sup>29</sup> Everett Airporter Services Enterprises, Inc. v. San Juan Airlines, Inc., d/b/a Shuttle Express, Docket TC-910789, Commission Decision and Order Granting Administrative Review; Modifying Initial Order; Assessing Penalties at 6-7 (Jan. 6, 1993) (EASE v. Shuttle Express).

<sup>30</sup> Staff does not contest the Initial Order's findings on this issue for purposes of administrative review but took the view in response to Bench Request No. 5 that "the purpose of RCW 81.28.080 is not to restrict companies from using hotel staff to provide referrals for transportation. Rather, the statute protects passengers from being charged rates outside the filed tariff." We do not interpret the statute so narrowly. It expressly prohibits any refund or remittance, and we must give full effect to the words the legislature used. While "remit" can mean "refrain from exacting," it is also defined as "to send (money) to a person or place." <https://www.merriam-webster.com/dictionary/remit>. The statutory language thus is broader than reducing a tariff rate for a customer. Protecting passengers from being charged non-tariffed rates is certainly one of the statute's objectives, but particularly in the competitive transportation market, we adhere to our previous conclusion that the legislature is also concerned with payments to third parties "whose strategic locations afford them the opportunity to refer customers to certain carriers and away from others." EASE v. Shuttle Express at 7.

these rules.<sup>33</sup> Shuttle Express interprets Commission rules not to prohibit a company from making unscheduled stops when providing scheduled service as long as the passengers who obtain scheduled service are picked up and dropped off at the locations specified in the time schedule. The rules are not susceptible to Shuttle Express's interpretation.

36 Scheduled service and door-to-door service are separate auto transportation services, and Commission rules treat them as such. The time schedules for scheduled service in a company's tariff must identify "any point to which service is provided."<sup>34</sup> Adding door-to-door service points on a scheduled service route is fundamentally inconsistent with this requirement.<sup>35</sup>

37 Shuttle Express nevertheless points to its tariff in which it states under the heading ALTERNATIVE MEANS OF TRANSPORT, "We also reserve the right to combine Door-to-Door passengers on a scheduled service route so long as the scheduled pick-ups should not be adversely affected."<sup>36</sup> Shuttle Express, however, cannot reserve rights it does not have. Company tariffs must state "whether alternate means of transport will be provided by the company when it is unable to provide transportation at the time and place specified in the reservation that the company has accepted for that passenger."<sup>37</sup> Shuttle Express does not claim that it combines door-to-door with scheduled service only when it is unable to provide the service the passenger has reserved. Rather, Mr. Marks testified that "it would not be financially reasonable to only serve passengers on some routes, so we do combine them with others in the general area."<sup>38</sup> Shuttle Express is not unable to provide a particular service simply because doing so "would not be financially reasonable."

38 Shuttle Express's conduct with respect to this issue typifies our dissatisfaction with the company's operations. As we discuss below, Shuttle Express repeatedly adopts practices

<sup>35</sup> Shuttle Express misses the point by arguing that these additional service points are not "flag stops." Whether characterized as unscheduled flag stops or a combination of door-to-door and scheduled service, Shuttle Express has not listed those service points in its time schedule for scheduled service in violation of Commission rules.

for provisioning regulated auto transportation service despite Commission rules prohibiting such practices. While we find that Shuttle Express's practice of combining door-to-door and scheduled service is inconsistent with WAC 480-30-346(2)(d), we do not uphold the Initial Order's finding that Shuttle Express violated the rule. In this instance, the Commission approved Shuttle Express's tariff provision or allowed it to go into effect by operation of law. Given the inconsistency of the tariff provision with the Commission's rules, we require Shuttle Express to correct this provision in its tariff rules. Further, if Shuttle Express seeks to combine door-to-door and scheduled service, it should raise that issue in Docket TC-161262, the rulemaking examining the rules governing auto transportation. Pending any revisions to those rules, Shuttle Express may not combine door-to-door and scheduled service except "when it is unable to provide transportation at the time and place specified in the reservation that the company has accepted for that passenger."<sup>39</sup>

Application of RCW 81.68.040

An auto transportation company shall not operate for the transportation of persons and their baggage for compensation between fixed termini or over a regular route in this state, without first having obtained from the commission under this chapter a certificate declaring that public convenience and necessity require such operation. . . . The commission may, after notice and an opportunity for a hearing, when the applicant requests a certificate to operate in a territory already served by a certificate holder under this chapter, only when the existing auto transportation company or companies serving such territory will not provide the same to the satisfaction of the commission . . . .<sup>40</sup>

The Initial Order concludes that the auto transportation service Speedishuttle provides is not the same as Shuttle Express's service, and thus the Commission should continue to authorize Speedishuttle to provide service pursuant to its existing certificate.<sup>41</sup> Although stating it was unnecessary in light of this finding, the Initial Order also concluded that Shuttle Express's repeated and persistent noncompliance with Commission rules demonstrates that Shuttle Express has not provided, and will not provide, service to the Commission's satisfaction.<sup>42</sup> Shuttle Express challenges both of these conclusions.

- 40 The Commission may grant an application to provide auto transportation service in a territory that is being served by one or more existing carriers only if that company or those companies "will not provide the same to the satisfaction of the commission." The Commission has interpreted that statutory provision to require that an applicant seeking to provide service in an area already served by one or more certificated carriers must demonstrate that either (1) the applicant does not propose to offer the same service that is currently being provided in the territory; or (2) the existing provider(s) will not provide service to the Commission's satisfaction. We depart from the Initial Order by addressing the second inquiry first.

Service to the Commission's Satisfaction

- 41 The Commission has established several non-exclusive factors it considers when determining whether an auto transportation company is providing service to the Commission's satisfaction. As relevant here, those factors include whether the company (a) "[h]as made a reasonable effort to expand and improve its service"; and (b) "meets advertised or posted schedules."<sup>43</sup> The Commission bases its determination on the company's performance prior to the date the application for competing service is filed and will take into consideration whether evidence presented at the hearing "shows a pattern of behavior."<sup>44</sup>
- 42 The Initial Order finds that (a) Shuttle Express's use of independent contractors to supplement its service demonstrates that it has failed to make reasonable efforts to expand or improve its service;<sup>45</sup> (b) Shuttle Express's practice of combining door-to-door and scheduled service is a failure to meet advertised or posted schedules;<sup>46</sup> and (c) Shuttle Express's "extensive history of noncompliance with Commission rules . . . constitutes a predictive pattern of behavior indicating that Shuttle Express will not provide service to the Commission's satisfaction on a going-forward basis."<sup>47</sup> Shuttle Express's challenge to these findings and conclusions is perfunctory at best. Shuttle Express simply characterizes them as "finding fault with operations that are outside the scope of the Commission's jurisdiction and finding violations of rules that have never been articulated or enforced before. But when those are stripped away, as they must be, there is no new evidence that supports a finding that Shuttle Express 'will not provide' service to the Commission's satisfaction."<sup>48</sup> We disagree.

43 We affirm and adopt the Initial Order's findings and conclusions that Shuttle Express has repeatedly violated Commission rules and on that basis conclude that Shuttle Express will not provide service to the Commission's satisfaction.<sup>49</sup> Shuttle Express has thrice violated the Commission's former prohibition on using independent contractors to provide regulated auto transportation services. Shuttle Express has twice violated rules requiring Commission approval of agreements to pay ticket sale commissions to third parties. While we do not find that Shuttle Express is violating rules requiring separate provisioning of scheduled and door-to-door service, our review in this proceeding indicates that the company's tariff rules do not conform to Commission rules and should be modified. Shuttle Express also violated its certificate by increasing the size of its vans beyond the restrictions in that certificate.<sup>50</sup>

44 These violations show an unacceptable pattern of behavior. Rather than seek to amend its certificate or tariff or change Commission regulations with which the company disagrees,

<sup>48</sup> Petition ¶ 33. Shuttle Express also argues in a footnote that the use of the future tense in the statute and "basic principles of due process suggest that notice and an opportunity to meet a new expectation is essential" prior to concluding that a company will not provide service to the Commission's satisfaction. Id. n.58. The Commission and the Court of Appeals have already rejected this argument. Pacific NW Transp. Servs. v. Washington Utils. and Transp. Comm'n, 91 Wn. App. 589, 596, 959 P.2d 160 (1998). We continue to reject it here.

<sup>49</sup> Initial Order ¶¶ 116-124. We do not address and do not adopt the findings and conclusions in the Initial Order concerning the other factors.

Shuttle Express simply ignores those requirements and provides service as it chooses. The Commission's auto transportation rules are designed primarily to protect consumers and the travelling public. While the Commission continues to examine those rules and make revisions as necessary to better reflect the evolving marketplace, the Commission expects auto transportation companies to comply with the rules unless and until the Commission waives or modifies them.

45 WAC 480-30-140(3) does not specify repeated or willful violations of Commission regulations among the factors for determining whether a company will provide service to the Commission's satisfaction, but the rule provides that those factors are not exclusive. The court of appeals has held in these circumstances "that the Commission, when called upon to evaluate the future, may do so in any rational way that the evidence will support."<sup>51</sup> The legislature has authorized the Commission to revoke an auto transportation company's certificate if that company "willfully violates or refuses to observe any of the commission's proper orders, rules, or regulations."<sup>52</sup> Such conduct is per se unsatisfactory service. Shuttle Express has repeatedly and willfully violated Commission rules and regulations. The record evidence fully supports the conclusion that Shuttle Express has not provided, and will not provide, service to the satisfaction of the Commission within the meaning of RCW 81.68.040.

46 The Initial Order did not err in finding and concluding that Shuttle Express will not provide service to the Commission's satisfaction.

Different Service

47 The Commission has adopted nonexclusive factors it considers when determining whether an applicant for auto transportation authority proposes to provide the same service as the existing certificated carrier(s), including as relevant here, (1) whether the existing companies "are providing service to the full extent of their authority"; (2) "whether the type of service provided reasonably serves the market"; and (3) "[t]he type, means, and methods of service provided."<sup>53</sup> The Initial Order found that Shuttle Express is not providing service to the full extent of its authority or reasonably serving the market

because of its reliance on independent contractors.<sup>54</sup> The Initial Order also found that the type, means, and methods by which Speedishuttle provides service are different than how Shuttle Express provisions its service based on features such as newer luxury vehicles, personal greeters, SpeediTV and Wi-Fi, and use of only company-owned vehicles and drivers to provide exclusively door-to-door service.<sup>55</sup>

48 Shuttle Express challenges these findings as superficial distinctions without a difference that lack evidentiary support. Shuttle Express claims that their speciousness is exemplified by the Commission’s apparent “view that it cannot enforce or require that a carrier – once certificated – must maintain or perpetuate such promised distinctions.”<sup>56</sup> Shuttle Express contends, “At a minimum, Speedishuttle should be required to provide only a service of the type the Commission initially found was different than Shuttle Express’s, i.e., by reservation only and with multi-lingual and greeter service provided to all passengers.”<sup>57</sup>

49 Because we conclude that Shuttle Express is not providing, and will not provide, service to the Commission’s satisfaction, under RCW 81.68.040 we need not, and do not, determine whether some or all of the service Speedishuttle offers is the same as Shuttle Express’s service. We also need not, and do not, decide the extent to which Speedishuttle is adhering to its original business model. By finding that Shuttle Express is not providing and will not provide service to our satisfaction, whether Speedishuttle is serving only the customers it originally targeted is now moot. Speedishuttle is not limited in the auto transportation service it can provide under our decision but may compete head to head with Shuttle Express to the full extent it chooses to do so. We therefore vacate those provisions of the Initial Order.<sup>58</sup>

50 We nevertheless note, as did the Initial Order, that some of Speedishuttle’s representations in its initial application have not been borne out in the company’s practices. For example, the Initial Order found the company failed to demonstrate that it specifically targets non-English speaking customers, which was one of several bases upon which the Commission concluded that Speedishuttle would provide different service.<sup>59</sup> While these portions of the order are vacated, the Commission will continue to monitor Speedishuttle's business practices to ensure it is providing service to the Commission's satisfaction.

Public Convenience and Necessity

- 51 A company may not provide auto transportation service until the Commission has granted it "a certificate declaring that public convenience and necessity require such operation."<sup>60</sup> Shuttle Express argues, "In an irregularity that has never been explained, the Commission has never expressly stated 'that public convenience and necessity requires' or ever required Speedishuttle's service. And even though this missing statutory prerequisite was brought to the Commission's attention, the Initial Order failed to make the required finding."<sup>61</sup> This issue, however, is not before the Commission.
- 52 The current proceeding in Docket TC-143691 is on rehearing of Order 04, the Commission's original final order in this docket. In granting the petition for rehearing, we expressly limited the scope of the rehearing to "whether Speedishuttle is limiting the service it provides to the service and customer types described in the business model on which the Commission based its grant of authority."<sup>62</sup> The Commission subsequently amended that limitation to "include on rehearing the issue of whether Shuttle Express will provide service to the Commission's satisfaction pursuant to RCW 81.68.040 and WAC 480-30-143(3)(a)."<sup>63</sup> The Commission did not agree to rehear whether the public convenience and necessity require Speedishuttle's service. Shuttle Express had the opportunity to raise that issue when seeking administrative review of Order 02, the original initial order overruling Shuttle Express's objection to Speedishuttle's application. Having failed to do so, Shuttle Express has waived that issue, and we do not consider it.
- 53 The Initial Order did not err by not addressing whether the public convenience and necessity require Speedishuttle's operations.

Speedishuttle Pricing

- 54 Shuttle Express’s complaint in Docket TC-160516 alleges that Speedishuttle is engaging in predatory pricing by offering its services at rates below its costs.<sup>64</sup> The Initial Order finds that “Shuttle Express failed to establish that Speedishuttle prices its service below cost or engages in predatory pricing.”<sup>65</sup> Shuttle Express challenges this and related findings as inconsistent with the record evidence and to the extent accurate, as “caused by the withholding and concealment of the data by Speedishuttle.”<sup>66</sup> We disagree.
- 55 No party disputes that Speedishuttle’s operations are not profitable and that it has yet to attract the passenger volumes needed to generate sufficient revenues to cover the average variable costs of its shared ride service.<sup>67</sup> These facts, however, are unremarkable for a company that only recently began providing service. Entering the auto transportation market is a capital-intensive undertaking, and we expect it will take a new company like Speedishuttle facing many established competitors a significant period of time to recover all of its costs and become profitable. Indeed, Shuttle Express “lost a great deal of money during its first years of operation.”<sup>68</sup>
- 56 Shuttle Express nevertheless claims that Speedishuttle’s expenses and losses are far in excess of the amounts the Initial Order finds or Speedishuttle admits. The level of Speedishuttle’s losses after less than two years of operations is immaterial.<sup>69</sup> Whether

<sup>67</sup> Mr. Roemer explained on behalf of Speedishuttle that “average variable cost” in this context is the cost the company incurs to make the trip for which it receives fares, which essentially is the cost of operating the vehicle. Roemer, Exh. HJR-1T at 48:23 – 49:4. To be profitable on a per trip basis, Speedishuttle must have “[e]nough passengers at [its] tariffed fares to exceed the cost of providing that trip.” Id. at 49:8-10.

<sup>68</sup> EASE v. Shuttle Express at 3; see Wood, TR. at 349:23 – 350:4 (acknowledging that Shuttle Express was not profitable for several years after it began to provide service).

<sup>69</sup> We also agree with Speedishuttle that Shuttle Express largely fails to cite any record evidence to support its assertions and instead relies on supposition and extrapolation. Shuttle Express claims that it was unfairly denied access to much of Speedishuttle’s financial information, but the only error Shuttle Express specifies with respect to the Initial Order’s findings and conclusions on Shuttle Express’s predatory pricing complaint is that it is “actually supported by overwhelming evidence and admitted by Speedishuttle.” Petition ¶ 7 at 5. Shuttle Express did not expressly seek Speedishuttle needs four passengers or six per trip to break even, we are not willing to second-guess Speedishuttle's business judgment at this time on how and when it will achieve the requisite passenger counts to achieve full cost recovery and profitability. As the Commission has previously explained,

The Commission does not guarantee profitability nor mandate that a carrier achieve an approved operating ratio when it approves tariff rates. The Commission merely affords a carrier the opportunity to achieve profitability. Operating losses do not prove that the carrier's pricing is predatory.

The Commission requires that rates bear a demonstrable relationship with costs. It allows a carrier the opportunity, when pricing its services, to consider charges for competitive non-regulated services, volumes of service, start-up costs, and other relevant factors.<sup>70</sup>

57 We reject Shuttle Express's argument that offering service at rates that do not recover all costs is per se predatory pricing. As the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) explains, such a link exists only in very limited and rare circumstances:

Consumers are harmed only if below-cost pricing allows a dominant competitor to knock its rivals out of the market and then raise prices to above-market levels for a substantial time. A firm's independent decision to reduce prices to a level below its own costs does not necessarily injure competition, and, in fact, may simply reflect particularly vigorous competition. Instances of a large firm using low prices to drive smaller competitors out of the market in hopes of raising prices after they leave are rare. This strategy can only be successful if the short-run losses from pricing below cost will be made up for by much higher prices over a longer period of time after competitors leave the market. Although the review of the ALJ's discovery and evidentiary rulings and thus has waived any challenge to those rulings.

FTC examines claims of predatory pricing carefully, courts, including the Supreme Court, have been skeptical of such claims.<sup>71</sup>

58 Those circumstances do not exist here. Shuttle Express, not Speedishuttle, is the larger, dominant provider of auto transportation services in Washington. Nor could Speedishuttle charge much higher prices than its current fares. The market for transportation services to and from the airport includes taxis, limousines, buses, light rail, transportation network companies (TNCs), and personal vehicles. Shuttle Express acknowledges that “[b]ecause of competition from unregulated ground transportation services, neither Shuttle Express nor Speedishuttle can stem their current losses with fare increases. The public will not pay more . . . . A fare increase would lead to less overall revenues, not more.”<sup>72</sup> Speedishuttle thus could not raise its rates to recover losses from the allegedly improper below-cost pricing even if Shuttle Express exited the market.<sup>73</sup> Speedishuttle is not engaging, and cannot engage, in predatory pricing.

59 Shuttle Express nevertheless argues that Speedishuttle is “using below-cost pricing to capture 21-34% of the passengers Shuttle Express used to carry.”<sup>74</sup> No evidence supports a connection between the reduction in the number of passengers Shuttle Express carries and Speedishuttle’s rates. To the contrary, Mr. Marks testified on behalf of Shuttle Express that a variety of factors have caused that reduction, including lower gas prices, the availability of light rail, and the entry of Speedishuttle and TNCs into the market.<sup>75</sup> The record also reflects that Speedishuttle’s rates are comparable to, and in some cases higher than, Shuttle Express’s fares,<sup>76</sup> and the decline in Shuttle Express’s passenger volumes began long before Speedishuttle entered the market.<sup>77</sup> Shuttle Express did not fail to prove that Speedishuttle has yet to generate sufficient revenues to recover all of its costs. Rather, Shuttle Express failed to prove that Speedishuttle's rates "are unreasonable, unremunerative, discriminatory, illegal, unfair or intending or tending to oppress the complainant, to stifle competition, or to create or encourage the creation of monopoly."<sup>78</sup>

60 The Initial Order did not err by finding and concluding that Shuttle Express failed to prove that Speedishuttle's fares are unlawful.

Public Interest

61 Shuttle Express contends that the Initial Order fails to address the public interest. According to Shuttle Express, "This proceeding raises important public interest issues, including whether county-wide door-to-door airport shuttle service is sustainable with two carriers splitting a shrinking market."<sup>79</sup> Shuttle Express does not include this issue among its assignments of error, but we nevertheless address the public interest impacts of our decision.

62 Shuttle Express correctly observes that the Commission must regulate in the public interest. Shuttle Express contends that auto transportation service is a natural monopoly that cannot survive competitive entry: "Because in the current market both carriers are now losing money this means that one or maybe both carriers must ultimately fail if the status quo is maintained," and "the public is already being harmed, by increased wait times, reduced efficiency, and higher operating costs per passenger."<sup>80</sup> We view the market and the public interest differently.

63 Door-to-door auto transportation service is not a unique or monopoly market but is part of a larger competitive market for transportation services to and from the airport. The decline in Shuttle Express's ridership over the last few years while airport usage has steadily increased demonstrates that the travelling public views the many alternative forms of transportation as substitutes for auto transportation service.<sup>81</sup> Speedishuttle's

<sup>81</sup> Indeed, Shuttle Express recently represented that it needed a waiver of Commission rules prohibiting the use of independent contractors because "unlicensed ride-share operators provide services that are largely indistinguishable from the Shuttle Express door-to-door auto transportation service," and "their fares are competitive with the regulated door-to-door operators, entry into the market may have contributed to that decline, but the record evidence does not support a finding that this was the sole or even primary cause.<sup>82</sup> Without such evidence, Shuttle Express cannot plausibly claim that a natural monopoly exists or that continuing to permit both Shuttle Express and Speedishuttle to offer auto transportation service necessarily will result in the failure of one or both companies.

64 We find that Speedishuttle's entry into the market is fully consistent with the public interest. We have concluded that Shuttle Express is not providing, and will not provide, service to the Commission's satisfaction. As the legislature envisioned, permitting another carrier to serve the same territory under such circumstances will create a greater incentive for Shuttle Express to improve its service. The Commission revised its rules governing auto transportation service in 2013, in part, to facilitate such competitive entry.<sup>83</sup> Whether or not they are indicative of a different service, the newer vehicles, features, and amenities Speedishuttle offers enhance the quality of auto transportation service offered to customers in King County. To the extent Shuttle Express must correspondingly raise the level of service it provides, including complying with Commission rules, in order to survive in the market, we view that outcome as beneficial to the public interest.

Remedies

65 The Initial Order assesses a penalty of $120,000 against Shuttle Express for its 35,351 violations of former WAC 480-30-213.<sup>84</sup> Shuttle Express contends that it should not be penalized at all because it did not commit these violations but does not otherwise challenge the amount of the penalty or how the Initial Order calculates it. No other party takes issue with the penalty. Neither do we.

such as Shuttle Express." In re Petition of Shuttle Express for Exemption from WAC 480-30-213 and WAC 480-30-456, Docket TC-160819, Amended Petition for Limited and Conditional Exemption ¶ 11 (Sept. 6, 2016).

<sup>82</sup> See, e.g., Kajanoff, TR. at 412:5 – 414:10 (testifying that Shuttle Express cannot know what portion of its gross revenue losses is attributable to Speedishuttle or any one of the many other competitors); accord Wood, TR. at 327:12 – 328:5.

66 Having concluded for the third time that Shuttle Express has violated former WAC 480-30-213, in this instance a total of 35,351 times, we affirm and adopt the penalty of $120,000 against Shuttle Express and the provisions in the Initial Order calculating that amount.<sup>85</sup>

67 The Initial Order also requires Shuttle Express to submit a comprehensive compliance plan for Staff's review detailing how the company will comply with its legal obligations.<sup>86</sup> Shuttle Express does not challenge this aspect of the Initial Order. We believe such a plan would be useful and accordingly affirm and adopt this provision of the Initial Order.

FINDINGS OF FACT

68 The Commission affirms many of the findings of fact in the Initial Order. To minimize potential confusion, the Commission summarizes all of its findings of fact below:

- 69 (1) The Commission is an agency of the state of Washington vested by statute with the authority to regulate the rates, rules, regulations, and practices of auto transportation companies, and has jurisdiction over the parties and subject matter of this proceeding.
- 70 (2) In the two years prior to the date Speedishuttle filed its complaint in Docket TC-160257, Shuttle Express used independent contractors to provide auto transportation service on 35,351 occasions.
- 71 (3) Shuttle Express enters into agreements with hotel personnel to make reservations with Shuttle Express on behalf of hotel customers and, in exchange, receive a 10 percent commission. The form used for such agreements is not on file with the Commission.
- 72 (4) Shuttle Express combines its scheduled service with its door-to-door service.
- 73 (5) Shuttle Express makes stops on its scheduled routes that are not listed as flag stops in the company's tariff or time schedule.

- 74 (6) Shuttle Express made false representations at the Application hearing that it had ceased using independent contractors.
- 75 (7) Shuttle Express has consistently relied on independent contractors to supplement approximately 5 percent of its operations, and did so for more than a decade in violation of Commission rules and orders.
- 76 (8) Shuttle Express has repeatedly and willfully violated Commission rules and regulations.
- 77 (9) No record evidence supports a connection between the reduction in the number of auto transportation passengers Shuttle Express carries and Speedishuttle's rates.
- 78 (10) Record evidence does not show that Speedishuttle is engaging in predatory pricing of its auto transportation service.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

79 The Commission makes the following summary conclusions of law:

- 80 (1) Shuttle Express has waived any challenge to the discussion, findings, and conclusions in the Initial Order that Shuttle Express did not expressly state in its Petition in conformance with WAC 480-07-825.
- 81 (2) Shuttle Express violated WAC 480-30-213 each of the 35,351 times it used an independent contractor to provide auto transportation service in the two years preceding Speedishuttle's complaint.
- 82 (3) Shuttle Express's failure to obtain Commission approval of the company's form of agreement to pay commissions to hotel personnel violates WAC 480-30-391.
- 83 (4) Shuttle Express should be required to submit to the Commission for approval the company's form of agreement to pay commissions to hotel personnel.
- 84 (5) Shuttle Express may not combine door-to-door and scheduled service except when it is unable to provide transportation at the time and place specified in the reservation that the company has accepted for a given passenger.

- 85 (6) Shuttle Express should revise its tariff to remove language that is inconsistent with WAC 480-30-346(2)(d), as described in paragraphs 37 and 38, above, within 30 days of the effective date of this Order.
- 86 (7) Repeated or willful violations of Commission rules and regulations are grounds for the Commission to conclude that a company will not provide service to the Commission's satisfaction pursuant to RCW 81.68.040.
- 87 (8) Shuttle Express is not providing, and will not provide, service to the Commission's satisfaction pursuant to RCW 81.68.040 and WAC 480-30-140(3).
- 88 (9) Shuttle Express did not prove that Speedishuttle's rates are unlawful.
- 89 (10) Speedishuttle's entry as an auto transportation company into the market for transportation services to and from the airport is in the public interest.
- 90 (11) The Commission should penalize Shuttle Express $120,000 for 35,351 violations of WAC 480-30-213. The $120,000 penalty should be due within 30 days of the effective date of this Order.
- 91 (12) Shuttle Express should be required to complete and submit a compliance plan for Staff's review and approval, as described in paragraph 149 in the Initial Order, within 90 days of the effective date of this Order.

RE: Transmittal of Shuttle Express Tariff No 11 Revision

Dear Mr. King:

Shuttle Express requests approval of the submitted Tariff No. 11 revision with an effective date of December 18, 2017. The only revision is to the language in 1) d) describing alternate means of transport.

The recent Final Order in TC-143691 (Order 20), TC-160516 (Order 13), and TC-161257 (Order 10) states that this revision must be submitted to Staff within 30 days of November 17th, 2017.

Additionally, the above orders required submission of a commission agreement to be filed and approved by the commission. As Shuttle Express has opted to discontinue its commission program for all regulated activity with the hotels at this time, we believe no filing is needed. Should Shuttle Express decide to renew the program at a later date, it will submit a proposed form to the commission for approval prior to beginning a commission payment system with hotel staff.

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE OF CLAIM

BETWEEN
WASHINGTON UTILITIES AND TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION

AND SHUTTLE EXPRESS, INC.

SECTION 1. PARTIES

The parties to this agreement are the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (WUTC), Richard Hemstad Building, 1300 S Evergreen Pk Dr SW, Olympia, WA, 98504, and Shuttle Express, Inc, 800 SW 16th St., Renton WA, 98057. Shuttle Express currently holds Auto Transportation (Certificated Bus) and Charter and Excursion operating authority granted by the WUTC.

SECTION 2. EFFECTIVE DATE

This agreement is effective on the date of the final signature below in Section 9.

SECTION 3. BACKGROUND AND PURPOSE OF AGREEMENT

The purpose of this agreement is to resolve the following matters without admission by either party as to the merits of any claims or defenses that have been asserted or could have been asserted in any matter resolved hereby:

A. WUTC Penalty in consolidated dockets TC-143691, TC-160516, and TC-161257.

On November 17, 2017, following an adjudication, the WUTC entered Order 20/13/10 (Final Order) in the above dockets. The Final Order penalized Shuttle Express $120,000 for 35,351 violations of WAC 80-30-213. Pg. 27, ¶ 90. Shuttle Express was ordered to pay the full penalty within 30 days. Id.

On December 8, 2017, the WUTC entered Order 22/15/12 in the above dockets authorizing an alternative payment arrangement. The order allowed Shuttle Express to pay the $120,000 penalty in nine monthly installments, of varying amounts, beginning on January 15, 2018.

On December 14, 2017, Shuttle Express appealed the Final Order by filing a petition for judicial review in Thurston County Superior Court. The petition was assigned cause number 17-2-06582-34. The petition is pending as of the effective date of this agreement.

As of the effective date of this agreement, Shuttle Express has paid $20,000 of the $120,000 penalty, leaving a balance of $100,000.

The parties wish to resolve this matter without the additional delay, uncertainty, and expense associated with further litigation in the Washington State courts.

B. Shuttle Express notice of tort claim.

On December 14, 2017, Shuttle Express filed a notice of tort claim with the Washington State Department of Enterprise Services, Office of Risk Management. The notice alleged, among other things, that the WUTC was responsible for damages arising from the WUTC's negligent and/or unlawful imposition of a $60,000 penalty against Shuttle Express in Docket TC-120323.

The parties wish to resolve this matter without the additional delay, uncertainty, and expense associated with further litigation in the Washington State courts.

SECTION 4. SETTLEMENT OBLIGATIONS

To resolve the matters described above in Section 3, each party promises to take certain actions in consideration of the actions agreed to by the other party.

A. WUTC obligations.

Upon execution of this agreement, the WUTC agrees that $50,000 of Shuttle Express's $100,000 penalty balance arising from the Final Order in consolidated dockets TC-143691, TC-160516, and TC-161257 is suspended for a period of two years provided Shuttle Express commits no violations of any applicable WUTC law or regulations as set forth in Section 4.B.1. The WUTC further agrees that the payment schedule in paragraph 3 of Order 22/15/12 is modified as follows:

January 15, 2018	$5,000 (paid)
February 15, 2018	$5,000 (paid)
March 15, 2018	$5,000 (paid)
April 15, 2018	$5,000 (paid)
May 15, 2018	$5,000 $2,500
June 15, 2018	$15,000 $7,500
July 15, 2018	$20,000 $10,000
August 15, 2018	$30,000 $15,000
September 15, 2018	$30,000 $15,000

All other provisions of Order 22/15/12 are unchanged.

B. Shuttle Express obligations.

1. Compliance with applicable laws and regulations for two years. Upon execution of this agreement, Shuttle Express agrees that, during the two-year period commencing on the effective date of this agreement, the company will comply with all applicable WUTC laws and regulations. Shuttle Express will be in material breach of this agreement if, during the two-year compliance period, the WUTC enters a final order, or an initial order that becomes final by operation of law, finding that Shuttle Express has committed any violation of any law in RCW Title 81.68 and/or of any regulation in WAC-30, as those laws and regulations currently exist or as they may be amended during the two-year period. The remedy for such breach will be imposition of the suspended $50,000 penalty at the time of the WUTC's order. The non-suspended penalty, if any remains, is still due as provided in Section 4.A.

2. Agreement to withdraw judicial review petition. Shuttle Express further agrees that it will withdraw its pending petition for judicial review in (Thurston County Superior Court cause number 17-2-06582-34), by filing on behalf of the parties, or by agreeing that the WUTC will file on behalf of the parties, a stipulated motion and order of dismissal or other appropriate procedure for terminating the petition with prejudice. If no such filing is made within 30 days after the effective date of this agreement, Shuttle Express will be in material breach of the agreement. The remedy for such breach will be nullification of this agreement.
3. Release of tort claim. Shuttle Express further agrees that it releases and forever discharges all existing and future claims and causes of action for damages against the State of Washington and its officers, agents, employees, agencies and departments that were described in or contemplated by the notice of tort claim filed by Shuttle Express with the Department of Enterprise Services, Office of Risk Management, on December 14, 2017. This is a final, conclusive, and complete release of all unknown and unanticipated damages, including attorney fees, costs, and any adverse tax consequences, arising from the occurrence(s) alleged to have occurred in the December 14, 2017 tort claim notice.

SECTION 5. PUBLIC INTEREST

The parties agree that this agreement is in the public interest because, among other reasons, it allows each party to avoid the additional delay, uncertainty, and expense associated with further litigation in the Washington State courts of Shuttle Express's petition for judicial review and its potential civil damages lawsuit.

SECTION 6. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the parties. No other understandings regarding this agreement, oral or otherwise, shall bind either of the parties.

SECTION 7. GOVERNING LAW

This agreement shall be construed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the state of Washington. In the event of a lawsuit arising from or pertaining to this agreement, venue shall be proper only in Thurston County Superior Court. Shuttle Express, by execution of this agreement, acknowledges the jurisdiction of the courts of the state of Washington.

SECTION 8. ATTORNEY FEES

If either party initiates litigation to enforce any provision of this agreement, or initiates litigation as a result of this agreement, each party shall pay its own attorney fees, expenses, and costs incurred at any stage of the litigation.

Description: 2/19/2020 at 10:05am: Received call from phone number (206) 930-6057 and spoke with Jimmy and Kaaren Sherrell, governing people of Shuttle Express.

Jimmy stated that he received my request for information, and explained that he's not very tech savvy, and handed the phone off to Kaaren.

Kaaren stated that Shuttle Express's computer database doesn't capture everything that I requested such as tariff schedule number, and asked specifically what I needed. I explained that I needed the number of routes the company made during the requested timeframe; origin, every intermediate stop, and destination of every route; the number of passengers carried on each trip; the fare charged to each customer; and the schedule operated.

During the conversation Kaaren stated that Shuttle Express no longer operates its scheduled service, and stated that the company can't afford to have empty vans running all day long.

Kaaren also stated that the Port of Seattle is no longer letting the company transport a single passenger, and is requiring Shuttle Express to have multiple groups in order to leave the airport without being penalized. Kaaren stated that the company is losing a lot of walk-up passengers to TNCs, and then started discussing how TNC traffic makes the Port of Seattle more money via its fee structure.

Kaaren then handed the phone back to Jimmy who praised how the commission started regulating the safety aspect of limousine carriers used as independent contractors.

The phone call was then mutually terminated.

Hello Jason,

Yes we know how each hotel is serviced. Attached is a list of all the hotels we used to service on a flag stop scheduled basis to the piers and SEATAC and how they are serviced today. Any hotels with the "drop down menu designation" SCH or DTA on their address in the trips will be serviced as a share-ride, scheduled or charter basis per what is specified in the list attached. We also charge a different rate for each type of service so you can tell by that also.

Let me know if you have any more questions.

Thanks,
Kaaren

Good morning,

On February 27, I asked if you could explain the auto transportation services associated with different address descriptions from the Excel spreadsheet you provided (see email below), to which you responded, "Our software allows us to enter/establish 'landmarks' so we can offer the hotel name in a drop down menu to pick from in case people don't know the address, it speeds up entering the address. If someone uses the landmark address located on a drop down menu, it will have the (SCH) or (DTA). If someone types in the street address, our system utilizes Google maps address designation."

If I were to list all trip numbers that included a stop or stops at location(s) found under the scheduled service portion of your tariff, would you be able to tell me if those trips were unscheduled door-to-door service or scheduled service?

Please respond back to me within the week.

Thank you,

Kaaren,

Can I please get clarification on your response to the third item - are you stating that Shuttle Express cannot identify whether a specific address/trip was scheduled service versus door-to-door service?

Subject: RE: Shuttle Express - Data Request

Good morning,

I have some additional questions pertaining to the spreadsheet:

- 1) Can you explain why there are missing trip numbers in the spreadsheet? In the first 15 trips provided by Shuttle Express, the trip numbers go from 257864 to 257869, 257872 to 257880, and 257881 to 257963. These gaps in trip numbers occur throughout the entire spreadsheet. I sent you the share-ride trips, the missing numbers were private reservations.
- 2) If Shuttle Express were to run a route without passengers, would that trip be captured in the spreadsheet? The smallest number of passengers referenced in the spreadsheet is one. We only run the route when there are advanced reservations or volume dictates.
- 3) The same addresses are referred to differently throughout the spreadsheet. A few examples: (1) trip 258200 refers to "Hyatt Regency Bellevue (SCH) 900 Bellevue Way Northeast," trip 258293 refers to "Hyatt Regency 900 Bellevue Way Northeast," and trip 262764 refers to "900 Bellevue Way Northeast;" (2) trip 262688 identifies "300 112th Avenue Southeast Bellevue," while trip 263504 identifies "Hilton Bellevue (SCH) 300 112th Avenue Southeast Bellevue;" and (3) trip 262695 refers to "Hotel 116 a Coast Hotel 625 116th Avenue Northeast Bellevue," while trip 262916 refers to "Hotel 116 (SCH) 625 116th Avenue Northeast Bellevue."
  - a. Can you explain the service difference between these addresses referenced? Our software allows us to enter/establish "landmarks" so we can offer the hotel name in a drop down menu to pick from in case people don't know the address, it speeds up entering the address. If someone uses the landmark address located on a drop down menu, it will have the (SCH) or (DTA). If someone types in the street address, our system utilizes Google maps address designation.
  - b. Would the answer to 2a apply to all addresses in the spreadsheet that differ like the examples provided? Yes.

Thank you,

Hi Jason,
We have discontinued our scheduled service to U district, Bothell and Everett due to operating restrictions imposed during Speedi case making the flag stop be the first drop off or last pick up. We are operating flag stop service to those Bellevue Hotels and Downtown hotels. We do not run a vehicle in loops with a schedule unless the volume allows such as in the summer during cruise season or during peak travel times during a conference.

Thanks!
Kaaren

Good afternoon,

Thank you for the response, Kaaren. I have an additional question regarding your answer to number 4.

During our phone conversation on February 19, 2020, you informed me that Shuttle Express is no longer operating its scheduled service. An example of Shuttle Express' scheduled service would be running between Bellevue and SeaTac Airport with scheduled stops at Hyatt Regency, Westin, Sheraton, Meydenbauer Center, Hilton, etc., with Shuttle Express' vehicles leaving every half hour (time schedule no. 4). If Shuttle Express is operating all of its scheduled service routes there should be a minimum of 312 trips per day (schedules 3, 4, 7, 9, 10, 11, and 17).

Is Shuttle Express operating its scheduled service per the time schedules provided in tariff no. 11?

-Or-

Is Shuttle Express solely operating a door-to-door service (by-reservation-only) that includes locations identified in the scheduled service portions of Shuttle Express' tariff no. 11?

Sincerely,

Hello Jason,

Here are the answers to your questions below:

1. SCH identifies non-downtown hotels.
2. DTA identifies downtown hotels.
3. SCH identifies hotels that are not down town Seattle. DTA identifies our downtown hotels.
4. 1. No. 2. Yes with scheduled hotels being the first stops from SEATAC or the last pickups going to SEATAC as per Speedy Shuttle Case. 3. All scheduled service stops are listed in the Shuttle Express tariff. A. Yes.

I will send the rest of your questions on the audit in a separate email.

Thanks,

Kaaren

Subject: RE: Shuttle Express - Data Request

Good afternoon Kaaren,

Thank you for the Excel spreadsheet. I have the following questions about the data provided within the spreadsheet:

1. What does "SCH" represent? E.g., on trip number 258293 I see references to "Hampton Inn & Suites Bellevue Downtown (SCH)," "Hilton Bellevue," and "Hyatt Regency." All of these locations are identified in Schedule No. 4 of Shuttle Express' tariff, but only Hampton Inn is identified as "SCH" in the spreadsheet.
2. What is the difference between "SCH" and "DTA"? E.g., on trip number 258167 I see references to both "SCH" and "DTA."
3. On 2/19/2020, we discussed over the phone how Shuttle Express is no longer running its scheduled service due to financial losses incurred by running empty vans all day long, and how Shuttle Express exclusively operates a by-reservation-only, door-to-door service model. If that is true, what is the purpose of Shuttle Express identifying locations as "SCH" and "DTA" in its database?
4. Trip number 258300 references three addresses and one scheduled service address (DTA). Was this trip: (1) operated exclusively as unscheduled door-to-door service, (2) a combination of unscheduled door-to-door service and scheduled service, or (3) scheduled service with stops that are not listed in Shuttle Express' tariff?
  - a. Would the answer to #4 apply to all other similar data contained in the spreadsheet?

Regarding the data request that was sent to Shuttle Express on 2/18/2020 (attached), can you please provide a narrative response in a Microsoft Word document for items 3-5?

Thank you,

Jason Hoxit

Subject: Shuttle Express - Data Request

Hello Jason,

Attached is an Excel spread sheet of all share ride and DTA reservations for December and January of 2019. After our conversation, I have included all of the reservations within each trip we make including the scheduled service addresses so you can see all the reservations and times within each trip in order to address both questions 1 and 2. Addresses with DTA in them are our scheduled service addresses.

If you want to see only the DTA reservations we either picked up or dropped off separately from their trip:

1. select the drop down box arrow

2. Enter "DTA" in the search box under Text Filters,
3. then press OK.
4. Please also note November and December are our slowest hotel business months. Cruise Ship season May 15th to October 15th are our busiest months.

Please let me know if you have any questions and if this will meet your data requirements of your audit request and if not what additional information you will need.

Sincerely,

Kaaren

Hello Jeff,

To summarize our conversation on the phone, the hotels that say Share-ride are serviced on a door to door basis. Also, if volume dictates, we will run loops as required, otherwise all of our scheduled service runs are operated in conjunction with the door to door trips following the UTC requirements to do so.

Thanks,
Kaaren

Subject: FW: Shuttle Express - Data Request

Good morning,

On February 27, I asked if you could explain the auto transportation services associated with different address descriptions from the Excel spreadsheet you provided (see email below), to which you responded, "Our software allows us to enter/establish 'landmarks' so we can offer the hotel name in a drop down menu to pick from in case people don't know the address, it speeds up entering the address. If someone uses the landmark address located on a drop down menu, it will have the (SCH) or (DTA). If someone types in the street address, our system utilizes Google maps address designation."

If I were to list all trip numbers that included a stop or stops at location(s) found under the scheduled service portion of your tariff, would you be able to tell me if those trips were unscheduled door-to-door service or scheduled service?

Please respond back to me within the week.

Thank you,

Kaaren,

Can I please get clarification on your response to the third item - are you stating that Shuttle Express cannot identify whether a specific address/trip was scheduled service versus door-to-door service?

Thank you,
