Now comes Covad Communications Company ("Covad"), who moves that this Commission vacate in part and correct in part its Fourteenth Supplemental Order ("Order") declaring Covad to be in default when Covad entered an appearance at the Prehearing Conference on March 10, 2004.

Pursuant to the Order, "any party to the original proceeding in this docket who has not entered an appearance as a party and who is not shown under "appearances," above, is hereby declared to be in default pursuant to the provisions of RCW 34.05.440 and WAC 480-07-450 by failing to enter an appearance at the prehearing conference or subsequently as allowed in the prehearing conference order and supplemental notice." Covad did enter an appearance and is shown to have done so in the Order, yet is listed in Appendix A to the Order as being in default. As such, Covad moves to vacate in part and correct in part that part of the Order declaring it to be in default.

Respectfully submitted this 7th day of April, 2004.
